St. James's, November

THE following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Hereford, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Hereford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Canons, Prebendaries, and other Members of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, willing to lay hold of every Opportunity of testifying our sincere Zeal for the Honour of God and the Welfare of our Country, among the rest of your Majesty's faithful People, do most humbly presume to congratulate your Majesty upon the late Success of your Arms in America, by the taking of Cape Breton; and further, upon your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions at this critical Season, when a rebellious Insurrection is actually begun at Home, and hostile Invasions are daily expected from Abroad, in Favour of an abjur'd popish Pretender; one who is bent upon the utter Extirpation of our most pure Religion, our unparalleled Liberty, and Enjoyment of every Thing that is valuable to reasonable Men, under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Protection, in order to enforce and entail upon us Slavery, and the Idolatrous Superstition of Rome, by the arbitrary and cruel Maxims of Paris and Madrid.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for our long Enjoyment of the inestimable Blessings before mentioned, of a thorough Sense and Conviction of our present Possession of them, and of Hope that we, and our Posterity to latest Generations, may yet continue to enjoy them, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty (as we have all of us once, and most of us again and again sworn) that we will ever bear faithful and true Allegiance to your Majesty, your Heirs and lawful Successors; and do all that lieth in our Power to assist and defend your Majesty, against the malicious and traitorous Designs of all your Enemies both foreign and domestick; and more especially at this Time, against the insolent Attempts of an abjur'd popish Pretender, and all his perfidious Abettors.

In the mean Time we will continually and earnestly beseech the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous.

The following Address and Association of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, have been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address and Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

At the Castle of Exon, October 8, 1745.

To the King.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, have with great Impatience waited for this first Opportunity of a publick Meeting, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions, and on the taking of Cape Breton in North America by your Majesty's Arms.

We beg Leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that this very valuable Acquisition, besides the Satisfaction it has afforded your Subjects in general, proves in a more particular Manner agreeable to the Inhabitants of this Part of your Kingdom, from whence a considerable Trade has been long carried on in the Fishery of Newfoundland. We have now a Prospect of extending and improving that profitable Branch of Commerce, and return your Majesty our Thanks, with an Affection and Warmth suitable to the Importance of so great a Benefit.

But we are more especially desirous to lay Hold of the present Occasion to express to your Majesty our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which is now carried on in North Britain, contrived and supported by France and Spain, in Favour of a popish Pretender to the Crown of these Realms.

When on the one Hand we consider your Majesty in the Character you have hitherto constantly sustained; that of Guardian and Protector of the Protestant Religion and Liberties of Europe; and, on the contrary, when we reflect what Princes have ever acted as the Invaders and Subverters of the Religious and Civil Rights of Mankind; we are less surprized that any Endeavours from Abroad to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Government; but it is with Grief and Astonishment that we observe some of your Majesty's Subjects (how few and inconsiderable soever) engaged in so monstrous and desperate an Attempt; an Attempt, which, in Disgrace to the first Principles of human Nature itself, can be no other than a Rebellion for Slavery.

We hereby assure your Majesty; that we will, to the utmost of our Power and Abilities, stand by, assist and support your Majesty, and your Royal Family, against all your Enemies whatsoever, agreeable to this our Association, which we humbly pray your Majesty to accept.

We cannot but look upon it as a most happy Circumstance, that the main Body of your People, of all Degrees and Orders whatsoever, should be voluntarily rising up at once (as they now actually are) in Defence of your Majesty's just Rights, thereby declaring, that they know of no Interests of their own, separate and distinct from those of your Majesty.

We doubt not but that the Divine Providence, which has more than once rescued these Kingdoms from Popery and Arbitrary Power, will strengthen your Majesty's Hands to the subduing of all your Enemies both domestick and foreign; and that the same Spirit of Liberty, which gave Birth to our Constitution, will exert itself in the preserving to us that inestimable Blessing.

The Association.

WHEREAS there is a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion carried on in North

Britain by popish and perjured Traytors, and likely to be supported by an Invasion from Abroad, against his most sacred Majesty, in order to place a popish Pretender on the Throne of these Nations, to the utter Subversion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties;

We the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, do heartily, sincerely, and solemnly profess, testify, and declare, that his Majesty King George the Second is rightful and lawful King of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging: And we do mutually promise and engage to stand by and assist each other, to the utmost of our Power, in the Support and Defence of his Majesty's Person, Title and Government, against the said Pretender to his Majesty's Crown, and in Support of the Protestant Succession in his Majesty's Royal House, as the same stands by Law established.

And whereas many Estates in this County are held by Leases for Lives, absolute or for Years determinable upon Lives; Now, in order for the further Encouragement of our Tenants to expose themselves in Defence of their Country, if any Person or Persons, who shall enlist or be enlisted in any Regiment or Troop raised for this present Service, by vertue of this Association, or of any Subscription thereon, by whose Life or Lives any of our Estates are or shall be held, shall, in any Part of Great Britain, within Six Months from the Date hereof, happen to be killed, or receive any Wound or Maim (of which he or they shall die within Six Months then next after) in such Service against his Majesty's Enemies foreign or domestick; we do hereby mutually promise and engage, that we will waive our Claims to any Herriots on Account thereof; and will also, within two Months next after such Deaths, at the Request of the Parties respectively interested therein, without any Fine or Consideration, grant a new Lease or Leases, or do such other Acts as shall be requisite for the Renewal or filling up such Estates, to as that our several Lessees shall have the like Interests in their several Estates, as they would have had, if the Persons, on whose Lives they held their Estates, had not engaged in such publick Service.

The following Address and Association of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, have been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Hobart, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which
Address

Address and Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your faithful Subjects of this County, as a Testimony of our Affection and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, and of our utter Abhorrence of the wicked and detestable Attempt in Favour of a popish Pretender, have this Day, with an unanimous Concurrence, enter'd into a solemn Association, which we beg Leave most humbly to lay before your Majesty.

An Association of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk.

WHereas there is now a horrid and an unnatural Rebellion, formed and carried on by Papists and other wicked and traitorous Persons, countenanced and supported by the ancient and implacable Enemies of our Country, with Intent to dethrone his Majesty King George, to subvert our Religion and Liberty, and to place the Crown of Great-Britain on the Head of a popish Pretender, who must, for his own Safety, be dependant on France and Rome; We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, being fully convinced, that an Union of Hearts and Forces will greatly conduce to his Majesty's Safety, and the Protection of our Country, do voluntarily and firmly bind ourselves, every one of us the one to the other, jointly and severally, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do hereby solemnly promise, that with our Bodies, Lives and Estates, we and every of us will stand by and assist each other, in the Support and Defence of his Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and will, as well with Force of Arms, as by all other lawful Means, withstand the said popish Pretender and Traytors, and all Manner of Persons and their Abettors, who shall attempt, act, council or consent to any Thing that shall tend to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or any of his Royal Family. All which we will faithfully perform, according to the plain Sense and Meaning of the above-written Instrument, as we hope for Favour from Almighty God, and Esteem amongst good Men.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Pontefract, has been presented to his Majesty by George Morton Pitt, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Pontefract.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's truly dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of your ancient Borough of Pontefract, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are most sincerely well affected to your Royal Person and Government; that we will most cheerfully and readily do our utmost in the Defence of both against your Majesty's most ungrateful Subjects the Rebels in the North, the popish Pretender and all his Adherents; and that we have the greatest Abhorrence of them and their Proceedings, and of all who have occasioned our present Troubles.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most wise and just Government: We rejoice that the most inveterate of your Enemies cannot point out the least Violation or Oppression of our happy Constitution during your Majesty's Reign, or that of your Royal Father our late Sovereign; and we glory that our Actions have been consistent with these our publick Professions to your Majesty, and are certain, that our future Conduct will have your Majesty's Approbation, as we have nothing more at Heart, than preserving the Crown of these Realms in your Majesty's Royal Person and illustrious House, upon which all that is really dear and valuable to us and our Posterity, absolutely depends.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and forty-five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Mayor Elect, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Traders and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstable in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Mayor Elect, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Representatives representatives in Parliament, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Traders and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstable in the County of Devon, in the Guildhall assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, &c. beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions, on the Success of your unwearied Endeavours for the Support of the Common Cause, and of your Majesty's Arms at Cape Breton; a Place of the utmost Importance to the Trade, the Riches, and Welfare of this Nation.

Sensible of that Happiness we enjoy under the best of Kings, under your Majesty's mild and prudent Administration, we cannot enough express our Abhorrence of all Endeavours to introduce a Foreign Power destructive of our Laws, our Liberty, and our Property, and of the Interest and Right of your Majesty, their Guardian and Protector.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment for your sacred Person and Government, of our full Resolution to oppose in every Respect, and with all our Power, all such Schemes and Enterprizes which tend to destroy them.

May the Almighty, in whose Hands are the Hearts of Kings, continue to inspire you with a Love for universal Liberty, to crown all your Endeavours with Success, both at Home and Abroad: May your Reign be long and glorious over a free and loyal People: May your Royal Issue ever sit upon the Throne, and may they ever imitate your great and glorious Example, in personally fighting for the Liberties of Europe Abroad, and in protecting those of their People at Home, in supporting of Trade, which is the grand Support of this Nation, and in doing every Thing which makes your Majesty the Envy of other Nations, and the Glory and Delight of your own.

The following Address of the Admiral, Captains and Officers of the Squadron of his Majesty's Ships in Torbay, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Admiral, Captains, and Officers of the Squadron of his Majesty's Ships in Torbay.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Admiral, Captains, and Officers of a Squadron of your Majesty's Ships now in Torbay, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our Zeal and Fidelity in this Conjunction, when with the utmost Indignation we see your Dominions invaded, and Part of your Subjects deluded into a Rebellion by a popish and abjured Pretender. And as we cannot by any Means be more firmly bound, than we already are by our repeated Oaths, to defend with our Lives your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, on the Preservation of which our Religious Laws, and Liberties depend; we beg Leave to assure you, Sir, that we are likewise willing to do the same with our Fortunes to the utmost of our Abilities; and though being employ'd at Sea has prevented us joining in those Tenders that have been already made by the Officers in your Royal Navy, as a Proof of their Zeal and Loyalty, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness and Desire to concur therein.

We beg Leave to subscribe ourselves, with the truest Zeal and Attachment,

Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury of the County of Cornwall, having been transmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Edgcumbe, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, assembled in Quarter Sessions for the County of Cornwall, at Bodmin, the Eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1745. and of the Grand Jury then and there sworn.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and on the Success of your Arms at Cape Breton; and to lay before you, our true Sense of the Happiness we enjoy, under our glorious Constitution, and your Majesty's just and mild Administration.

A pure Religion, free from Superstition and Bigotry, and Laws calculated for the Preservation of the Lives, Liberties and Properties of each Individual, as also a Prince who has made it his constant Care and Study to defend and support them, are such inestimable Advantages, that none but Persons possessed with Madness, or something worse, can wish to change.

Therefore, Great Sir, permit us to assure you, that we shall, to the utmost of our Abilities, exert ourselves, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, being fully convinced, that your Enemies are only such, for your being so steady a Protector of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, against the most secret Machinations and open Violences of Papists, whose Religion is Idolatry, their Law an arbitrary and oppressive Power, and their Liberty Bondage.

To perpetuate the Blessings of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and to prevent us from these deplorable Calamities, may that God, whom we adore in Sincerity and Purity of Heart, preserve the Diadem of these Kingdoms on the Head of your Royal Person and Posterity, till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, most heartily congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and on the important Success of your Majesty's Arms in America.

We cannot omit observing, with the highest Pleasure and Satisfaction, that your Majesty's Enemies are so grievously distressed by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and Vigour and Power of your Arms, that notwithstanding they loudly boast of Conquests, they are necessitated to sue for Peace.

The Success of your generous Endeavours for the Liberty of Europe, by which you have so eminently contributed to give a powerful Head to the Empire, able and willing to controul the restless Ambition of the House of Bourbon, fills all Hearts, that have a due Sense of the Value of Freedom, with the greatest Joy and Transpott; and gives your faithful Subjects a new Occasion of expressing their highest Gratitude to your Majesty, for the unwearied Pains you have taken, to secure to latest Posterity those Rights and Privileges, which we have ever enjoyed, since we had the Happiness of being governed by your most Excellent Majesty.

With infinite Concern and Abhorrence we behold the base Ingratitude of some of your Majesty's Subjects, stir'd up by the dark Intrigues of your Majesty's implacable Enemies, who reward your Majesty's paternal Care of all your Subjects, by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a popish Pretender, whose Birth, Education, and Obligations, will ever render him incapable of ruling a People, accustomed to a long Enjoyment of Blessings under your Royal and illustrious Family.

May your Majesty's Arms soon reduce these abandoned Wretches to a just Sense of their Guilt; may their wicked Attempt only give a fresh Occasion to the World to observe, that your Majesty reigns in the Hearts of your grateful Protestant Subjects; may you ever be victorious over all your Enemies foreign and domestick; to effect which, our Persons and Fortunes shall always be ready at your Majesty's Command: May there never want one of your Majesty's Descendants to govern these Kingdoms, in Spite of the avowed Malice and united Schemes of France, Spain, Rome, and the Pretender. And we, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects can wish no greater Happiness for us or our Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, this Twenty fourth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

Copy of the Association entered into by the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, the 22d Day of October 1745.

WHEREAS a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion is raised in Scotland, in order to place a popish Pretender on the Throne of these Kingdoms, to the Subversion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; we the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, having an utter Abhorrence of such an insolent Attempt, a due Sense of his Majesty's paternal Care of, and Concern for the Preservation of our happy Constitution in Church and State, and of his exposing his Royal Person in Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe, do heartily, sincerely and solemnly mutually promise and engage to unite, associate, stand by, and, to the utmost of our Power, assist each other in Support and Defence of his Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, and the Protestant Succession to the Crown in his Royal House, against the Pretender and all his Adherents.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Christchurch in the County of Southampton, has been presented to his Majesty by Edward Hooper, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Christchurch in the County of Southampton.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion broke out in North Britain, in Favour of a popish Pretender, sent thither and supported by the most inveterate Enemies of the Religion, Liberties, and Commerce of your People; and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Loyalty, and hearty Zeal to exert, at all Hazards, our utmost Endeavours for the Safety of your Royal Person and Government.

The Event of this detestable Enterprize will (we trust in Divine Providence) speedily demonstrate to the World, that the free Spirit of this great Protestant Nation will ever bear down and frustrate all Designs of subjecting it to Popery and arbitrary Power; and that your People, from a due Sense of the inestimable Blessings they enjoy under your auspicious Reign, and the excellent Constitution of our Country, will effectually support your Majesty's Right to your Crown, and the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House.

We received with great Joy the News of your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions; we beseech your Majesty to accept our Congratulations upon it; and upon the Success of your Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton; an Acquisition of vast Importance in Point of Trade and maritime Power.

Permit us also to congratulate your Majesty on the Election of an Emperor. This happy Effect of the wise Measures your Majesty has taken, will, we doubt not, soon establish firmly that Balance of Power on the Continent, upon the utter Subversion of which (so long artfully, though hitherto vainly attempted) France seems to have founded her aspiring Hopes of becoming able to obtain the Dominion of the Seas; after which indeed that perfidious Power might well promise herself the Accomplishment of her insolent, but favourite System, universal Empire.

May your Majesty's Councils and Arms ever prove successful to the Confusion of all your Enemies, and to the perpetual Support of the Liberties of Europe, the Protestant Religion, and the Freedom of Trade, and Happiness of your People, in whose Hearts and Affections may your Majesty long and gloriously reign secure.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of your Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, do humbly approach your Majesty, to assure you of our steady and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We look upon the daring Attempt now made in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Crown, and to enslave us and our Posterity under a popish and arbitrary Government, with the highest Indignation. We are too sensible of our envied Happiness in Church and State, owing, under God, to your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, not to sacrifice our dearest Interests in the Support and Preservation of them. Animated by the glorious Example of our Ancestors, (Inhabitants of this Town) eminently distinguished in History for a firm, constant and unshaken Loyalty, we shall endeavour, in the great and just Cause of Liberty and Religion, to approve ourselves worthy our Descent.

May

May the God of Heaven, infinitely wise, good and powerful, take you into His holy Care and Protection, and may He continue, to the latest of Times, the peaceable Enjoyment of the Crown of these Realms to your Majesty, and your Royal House.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Walter Cary, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness in the County of Devon:

Most gracious Sovereign;

Religion and Liberty, the most valuable Blessings of Mankind, being fully enjoy'd in these Kingdoms, under our present happy Constitution, supported and adorned by your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; We cannot (amidst our Joy for your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions, and the important Reduction of Cape Breton) but be fired with the warmest Indignation against those who endeavour to bereave us of both, by an unnatural Rebellion at Home, and threatened Invasion from Abroad, in Favour of an abjur'd Pretender, to the Introduction of Popery and arbitrary Power amongst us.

But amidst these audacious Attempts upon every Thing that is dear to us, we cannot but observe too, with the most sensible Pleasure and Satisfaction, all Orders and Degrees, and all Denominations of Men, uniting in a forward Zeal, noble Resolutions and vigorous Associations, in Defence and Support of your most sacred Majesty and illustrious House. And humbly crave Leave, Liege Lord, to join in our most solemn Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Person and Government, and Readiness to contribute our utmost Efforts to defeat the Designs of all your Enemies, whether foreign or domestick. And

May the Blessing of God on your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, enable you speedily to quell the Spirit of Faction and Rebellion; to reduce the Combined Force of France and Spain; to recover the Balance of Power, and to restore Tranquillity to Europe, by procuring an honourable and lasting Peace; and thereby a flourishing Trade and Prosperity to these Kingdoms.

Given at our Council Chamber under our Common Seal, this 12th Day of October 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeses of Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to his Majesty by Baptist Levison Gower and Randle Wilbraham, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeses of Newcastle under Lyme, to his most sacred Majesty King George the Second:

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeses of your Majesty's most dutiful, ancient and loyal Corporation of Newcastle under Lyme, to congratulate you upon your safe Arrival in your British Dominions; and also to express our Satisfaction and Joy upon the Success of your Majesty's Aims in the Taking of Cape Breton; an Acquisition highly valuable, as it is a Source so productive of Wealth to your Majesty's Trading Subjects, and the Loss of it so detrimental to our inveterate and hereditary Enemy.

As we share in every Blessing that attends your Majesty's Government; so are we affected with every Thing that can in the least Degree give your Majesty Uneasiness.

It is with Horror and Detestation, that we hear of those Rebellious Attempts in Scotland, calculated to overturn, at the same Time, the present happy Establishment of the Crown, as well as the Liberty and Religion of these Kingdoms: We look upon them all as connected, as inseparable; and the same Providence, that has at all Times exerted its Power for the Protection and Security of the latter, will (we trust) never suffer any Attack against the former, to go on unpunished, unrevenge'd.

That Unanimity which has appear'd in our Country at large for your Majesty's Service, is an Earnest of our constant Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that none will be more ready and willing to hazard even our Lives and Fortunes for the Support and Preservation of both, than the Corporation of Newcastle.

Given under the Common Seal of our said Corporation, the 14th Day of October, in the 19th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The

The following Address of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Deerhurst, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to congratulate your safe and seasonable Arrival in these your Majesty's Kingdoms.

We thankfully acknowledge your unwearied Endeavours in Support of the common Liberties of Europe, with which our own are so visibly connected: But the Conquest of Cape Breton, by your Naval Forces, is what demands our particular Thanks to God and your Majesty, as it may be attended with very beneficial Consequences to the Fishing Trade of this Nation, on which the chief Manufacture of this Borough depends; and therefore we humbly rely on your Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness for preserving it to your Crown, if consistent with the General Good.

As the Son of the Pretender has now dared, in Defiance of the Laws, to invade your Realms, and to raise a Rebellion against your Majesty, the true Defender of our Religion, Liberties, and Properties; we ardently pray that, by the Blessing of God upon your Arms, he and his Adherents may soon receive the Punishment due to their Presumption; and, for our Parts, shall be ready to exert our utmost Powers, and to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. William Chetwynd, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival to these your British Dominions, on the happy Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Taking of Cape Breton, and likewise upon the safe Landing of your Majesty's Troops from Abroad, not doubting, but by their Assistance, your Majesty will be able to resist all Foreign Attempts in Favour of a popish Pretender, and chastise the Insolence of those, who have dared to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's Government.

As our Liberties depend upon your Majesty's Safety, your Majesty may be assured we will, at all Times and upon all Occasions, to the utmost of our Power, defend your Majesty and your Royal Family, under whose Influence only we can expect to enjoy the Benefits of our happy Constitution.

Given under our common Seal of the Town Hall of the aforesaid Borough, the 4th Day of October 1745.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Colchester, has been presented to his Majesty by Samuel Savill, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Colchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with most sincere Congratulations on your happy Arrival in these Kingdoms, and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in America; where, by the generous Efforts of a Free People, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, a much more important Conquest has been made, than any your Enemies have to boast of.

The fresh Attempts of France, in abetting the Invasion of this Land in Favour of a popish Pretender, we reject with the utmost Abhorrence ience and Indignation; and are always ready to contribute the utmost in our Power to save our Country from Popery and Slavery, and by an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty and the Protestant Succession, to secure to ourselves those Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's just and gentle Government; and which we hope may be perpetuated to this Nation under the happy Reigns of your illustrious Family.

Errata.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, most humbly approach your Royal Throne, to congratulate your Majesty on the safe and happy Delivery of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the Addition of another Prince to your Royal Family: A most happy and seasonable Event; as it tends, at this Time, (when the most daring and unnatural Attempts have been form'd, and are still carrying on against it) to strengthen and support the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House; and to perpetuate to us the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your just and most gracious Administration.

With Hearts therefore, Royal Sir, warm'd with the sincerest Sentiments of Loyalty and Gratitude, these your faithful Subjects humbly beg Leave to renew their most hearty and solemn Assurances of an inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government; and to add their most ardent Prayers for your Happiness and Prosperity; and, more especially, that your Arms may be crown'd with Success; and that, having vanquish'd all your Enemies, your Majesty and your illustrious Descendants (inheriting your princely Virtues, and form'd and instructed by your Royal Pattern and Example) may continue to guard and protect these Kingdoms, against Tyranny and Oppression, to latest Posterity.

Whitehall, October 30.

There are Advices from Berwick of the 25th at Night, that the Carriages which the Rebels had demanded from different Places, all came into Edinburgh upon the 22d and 23d, but were immediately dismissed; and the People belonging to them were told, they should have some Days Notice before their March: to get them ready again.

Upon the 22d they had a General Review between Leith and Edinburgh.

Whitehall, November 1.

There is Advice from Berwick of the 28th of October, that upon the 26th, Glenbucket's and the Athol Men march'd to Musselburgh, and gave out they were to stay there till further Orders. The Rebels seem'd to be packing up their Baggage upon that Day, and their Cannon, consisting of seven Pieces, were sent to the Eastward. A Detachment of 5 or 600 of their Men was station'd at Allaway, at a narrow Passage upon the Firth, where they were erecting a Battery to secure a Passage, and building flat bottom'd Boats for bringing over their Arms, &c. landed at Montross and Stonehaven. The Ludlow and Fox Men of War were in the Road of Leith. It was report'd that the Rebels had great Differences amongst themselves. They had a small Camp upon the Plain between Inverask and Dalkeith. Lord Loudon was at Inverness with a good Number of Men, and had, by those Accounts, been join'd by the Sutherland People, the Monroes, &c. The Campbells of Argyllshire were said to be in Arms for the King, and encamp'd at Inverary. Other Letters mention, that John Campbell, Esq; Lieutenant Colonel to Lord Loudon's Highland Regiment, had, with three Companies thereof, attack'd, disarm'd, and dispers'd 700 of the Macleans; who were upon their March to join the Rebels near Edinburgh. General Blakeney and his Men, in Stirling Castle, were all well. Marshal Wade was at Newcastle upon the 29th, with all the Troops from Doncaster; excepting those from Ireland, which are one Day's March behind. He propos'd halting at Newcastle a Day or two, and then to march on towards Edinburgh. The seven Battalions from Flanders were all safely arriv'd at Newcastle and Berwick, together with the seven Companies of Brackel's Regiment, Dutch, which had been left in Holland.
