

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgeses of Queenborough, in the County of Kent, has been presented to his Majesty by Richard Evans and Thomas Newnham, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of the Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgeses of Queenborough in the County of Kent.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgeses of this ancient Corporation, most humbly beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the present wicked and unnatural Rebellion against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, and with our Lives, towards the Support of your Majesty's just and rightful Title to the Crown of these Realms, in Opposition to the Pretender, and all his Adherents foreign and domestick. And we do, with the highest Sense of Duty and Gratitude, acknowledge and declare ourselves fully convinced, that the Protestant Religion, together with the Laws and Liberties of this Country, so dear to every true Briton, can be only safe and secured to us, and our Posterity, under your Majesty's long and auspicious Reign, and by a lasting Succession of Princes of the illustrious House of Hanover, which God grant.

Given under our Corporation Seal, the 29th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, has been presented to his Majesty by Charles L'Empriere, Esq; his Majesty's Advocate General in the Island of Jersey, and Deputy of the States of the said Island, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the States of the Island of Jersey, most humbly beg Leave to express our Joy on your Majesty's safe

Return to your British Dominions, after your Cares and Fatigues for maintaining the Liberties of Europe.

— also to congratulate your Majesty on the important Conquest of Cape Breton, whereby an agreeable Prospect opens to your Majesty's Subjects, in the Increase of your Maritime Power, and of their Trade and Navigation.

— and farther on the late happy Birth of a Prince, an additional Security to the Protestant Succession in your Royal House, and therein to the Happiness of your People, in the full and free Enjoyment of their Religious and Civil Rights.

— Such is that Happiness, that whoever that partakes of it, looks upon the Rebellion raised and carried on against your Majesty's Person and Government by a popish Pretender and his Adherents, (a Scheme so manifestly tending to change our Liberty into Slavery, both in Church and State) must be filled with Indignation and Amazement at so daring an Attempt, especially we of this Island, where there is not a single Person disaffected to your Majesty.

With a just and grateful Sense of our high Obligations to your Majesty, under whose auspicious Reign we continue to enjoy the special Privileges granted us by your Royal Predecessors, we assure your Majesty, that we will ever resolutely and zealously join in Support of your Majesty's Government, and in the Defence of this Island, against all Attempts of your Majesty's Enemies.

So praying Almighty God for your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, and for the utter Disappointment of the Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, we are, as in Duty bound,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's
most dutiful

From your Majesty's most loyal Subjects,
Island of Jersey,
Nov. 13, 1745.

The following Address of the Provost, Burgeses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Inniskillin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Corporation of Inniskillin

To the King's most Excellent Majesty

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Burgeses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Inniskillin,
