St. James's, May 3.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, waited on his Majesty with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms; which under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, has defeated the Rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects, assisted by the most inveterate Enemies to the British Constitution.

Permit us, Sir, to return our most unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for the Appointment of his Royal Highness the Duke, to this important Service; whose Conduct and Bravery, so early conspicuous, have, by the Blessing of the Almighty, produced this our happy Deliverance; a Glory reserv'd for one of your illustrious Family, endowed with those princely Qualities, which render him amiable to those under his Command, and formidable to his Enemies.

As Disgrace and Ruin have fallen on the Heads of those wicked Persons who have been Confederates in this abhorred and detested Rebellion for the Subversion of our happy Constitution, and depriving us of all that is dear and valuable to us; so (we trust) that by Divine Providence from their Disappointment and Destruction, Stability will redound to your Majesty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Person and Family, and Glory to your Government, over a free and happy People.

May a Series of Success attend your Majesty's Arms, until Tranquillity be restored to Europe; and your Subjects firmly established in the Possession of their just Rights of Trade and Navigation.

Give us Leave to add, that it shall be always our firm Resolution, as it is our indispensable

Duty, to oppose every Attempt of the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, against the Rights of your Crown, and that Happiness which we hope this Nation will ever enjoy under a Succession of Protestant Princes of your Majesty's Royal House.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this affectionate Address. The Satisfaction you shew in the Success of my Arms, against the Enemies of our happy Constitution, and in the Conduct of my Son the Duke, is a fresh and most agreeable Mark of your Duty to me, and Zeal for my Government.

They were graciously received, and had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall, April 29.

This Day an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Inverness, April 23. On Monday Mr. Grant, with 600 of his Followers, came to join us, and for the present they are ordered to be quartered in the M'Intosh's Country. The Grants having taken the Lord Balmerino, delivered him up to his Royal Highness: He is the Person, who, after the Battle of Dunblain in the last Rebellion, deserted to the Rebels at Perth. He was then Captain Elphinstone, of Shannon's Regiment of Foot.

All the French Officers and Soldiers, who were left here, are now Prisoners; and Yesterday 310 of them were shipped off for New-castle. Almost all the Pretender's Son's Servants are come in; and as they were all French, and had not been with him before he came to France, his Royal Highness has given them Passports to go Home. Lord Sutherland is with 8 or 900 of his People in the Head of the Frasers Country, and near the Chisolms of Strath Glas. Lord Loudoun, who is at present with 1300 Men in the Isle of Skye, is ordered by his Royal Highness to land in the Country of the Glenranolds, and to march up to Fort Augustus. Lord Cobham's Regiment is this Day marched for Montrose, to guard the Sea Coast.

From the Camp of Taro, April 22, N. S. The Marquis de Castellar retired in the Night between the 19th and 20th Instant from Parma, with all the Forces and Baggage which he could possibly get together, and took the Road that leads to the Mountains, leaving the rest of his Troops and his Artillery in the Cittadel of Parma; which General Nadafti being informed of, he immediately pursued M. de Castellar, and has posted his Forces in such a Manner, that it will be difficult for the Spaniards to escape. After their Retreat, the Cittadel of Parma immediately capitulated, and the Garrison consisting of 500 Men, besides 350 Sick, are made Prisoners of War, being permitted however to retain their Baggage. M. de Castellar's Corps is computed at 5000 Men.

Ulm, April 29, N. S. Letters which arrived this Morning from Inspruck confirm the foregoing Account, and add, that an Estafette passed there the 25th, in his Way from Italy to Vienna, who gave out, that General Nadafti had attacked and defeated the Body under M. de Castellar, and that of those who had escaped from the Battle, 250 had deserted to the Austrians.

Vienna, April 27. Valentia was invested on the 13th Instant, and the Artillery was expected on the 18th, during which Interval the King of Sardinia's Intention was to allow the Spaniards an honourable Capitulation, if they desired it; but in Case they waited till the Arrival of the Artillery, his Sardinian Majesty's Resolution was to make them Prisoners of War. This Court has received Advice from Milan, as if the Infant's Baggage and the Spaniards Great Artillery were arrived in the Genoese Territory, while M. de Maillebois was on the other Hand making such Motions, as seemed to indicate a Design to join M. de Gages.

Copenhagen, April 30, N. S. The King of Denmark has now resumed his gentle Exercise of going Abroad in a close Coach during the Warmth of the Day; and Dispositions are making for his Removal, next Tuesday, to Hirschholm. As to the State of his Health, it seems to be pretty much the same still, without any considerable Alteration one Way or other. About four Days ago her Royal Highness the Hereditary Princess Louisa was taken ill of the Measles, which have been so rife here of late; but as they came out very favourably, and are attended with no bad Symptoms, there is good Reason to hope that the Danger is already past.

Hague, May 6, N. S. The Letters from Paris of the 2d Instant mention the French King's being set out the Night before for Brussels. Marshal Bathiani has removed his Headquarters to the Right of Mechlin, and drawn the Austrians lower down the Dyle; and it is thought the whole Allied Army will soon encamp all together in Order of Battle, in some Post the fittest for covering Antwerp, and preserving its Communication with this Country. The Rendezvous of the French Army does not seem yet declared, though some say, they have marked out a Camp at Zaventheim before Brussels.

Rotterdam, May 6. Letters from Mechlin and Antwerp mention the French King's Arrival at Brussels on Wednesday Night, and that their Troops were in Motion on every Side; and some Letters even say, that they were advanced near Mechlin.

Willemsstadt, April 26. The Transports, with the Recruit Horses belonging to Lord

Stair, Lord Rothes, and General Cope's Regiment, arrived safe here this Morning at Five of the Clock, and it was hoped would be all disembarked by To-morrow Morning's Tide.

Whitehall, May 2.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Diederick Weslell Linden, Doctor of Physick, his Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of England, for making of Salt Petre.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 1.

Order'd, that the Court goes out of Mourning on Sunday next the 4th Instant, for the late Prince of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel Bevern.
