Kensington, May 13.

THE following Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, has been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave most heartily to congratulate your Majesty upon that glorious Success with which your Councils and Arms have been of late so signally blessed.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction we see, that Peace and Quiet, so long enjoyed under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, again happily secured to us, after having been disturbed by a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion, in Favour of an abjur'd Pretender, fomented by the common Invaders of the Rights of Mankind.

Animated by the Cause of Liberty, and led on by a Prince of your Royal House, your Majesty's brave and faithful Troops have shewn, that vain are the Attempts of the Abettors of Slavery, against the zealous Assertors of the Freedom of their Country ; that Weak are the Tools of an arbitrary Prince, opposed to the true and solid Courage of a free People.

The glorious Part his Royal Highness the Duke had in the Conduct of this great Event, fills us your Majesty's loyal Subjects with inexpressible Pleasure : We see your Majesty's Family established on the Throne, and the Happiness of our latest Posterity secured by the Success of that Day, where your Majesty's Royal Virtues were distinguished in your Son, and the Courage and Conduct of the Father so conspicuous in his illustrious Descendant.

May that good Providence, which conducted your Majesty to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, and hitherto preserved you on it, still watch over you ; that, after a long and happy Reign, you may transmit to your Royal Heirs the peaceable Government of a truly grateful and loyal People.

EDW. GROSE, Clerk
to his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Recorder of the said Town of Nottingham, and one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Majesty's Arms against your Rebellious Subjects in Scotland, encouraged and supported by the old and inveterate Enemies to this Kingdom. Nothing can equal our Detestation and Abhorrence of their wicked and traitorous Attempts, but the sincere Joy and Satisfaction we receive from this important Victory, which has at once put an End to a most desperate and for some Time successful Rebellion, carried on in order to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties ; Blessings which we have long enjoy'd under der your Majesty's most just and legal Government, and which no wise Man can hope to secure to himself and his Posterity, but by preserving the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal House.

Repeated Experience has fully convinced us, that no Consideration of Danger to your Majesty's sacred Person, or to your Royal Relations, can deter your Majesty from pursuing such Measures as are most conducive to the true Interest of your People; and we beg Leave on this Occasion, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to return our most humble and sincere Thanks to your Majesty for your great Goodness in committing this difficult and dangerous Affair to the Management of his Royal Highness the Duke, to whose Courage and Conduct we are so greatly indebted for this speedy and compleat Deliverance from the domestick Dangers which threatened us.

May the Almighty continue to bless your Majesty's Arms with Success, and give you the like Victory over all your Enemies, that thereby Peace, Safety and Prosperity may be restored to your Majesty and to your Kingdoms.

Given under our Corporation Seal the 5th Day of May 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to his Majesty by Edward Southwell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, and their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this Time of general Joy, sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the great and wished for Success, with which it has pleased the Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, against those desperate and rebellious Wretches, that have, with such Insolence and Wickedness, attempted to reduce this free and independent Nation to a State of Slavery, Poverty and Superstition.

Here, Dread Sir, permit us, with most grateful Hearts, to express our Acknowledgments for your Majesty's Royal and Paternal Care for the British Constitution, in giving the supreme Command, upon that important Expedition, to your Heroic and Illustrious Son; who, by his Courage, Activity and Conduct, has been the glorious Instrument of restoring Tranquillity, in so great a Degree, to these your Dominions.

When we reflect upon those just and necessary Measures your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, has ever pursued, in order to preserve to us and our Posterity the free Enjoyment of the Protestant Religion, against the subtil Contrivances and open Assaults of its avowed Enemies, as well as to secure our civil Liberties and Rights against the Encroachments of arbitrary Power, we entertain a most lively Sense of your Majesty's Royal Regard for the common Good of your People, and of the Pains you undergo to make this Kingdom great and happy.

May Almighty God crown your Royal Labours with Success; and so direct your Arms and Councils, that they may restore Peace to Europe, and secure to your faithful Subjects a free and uninterrupted Trade. We on our Parts shall be always ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, (on the Stability of which depends our National Felicity) against the Bigottry of Rome, and the Tyrannical Designs of any Foreign Power whatever.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to his Majesty by ——— Henley, Esq; their Recorder, and Philip Bennet, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Defeat of your Rebellious Subjects, has raised the Hearts of your loyal and dutiful Citizens of Bath to that Height of Joy, that Words are too weak to express the Transport we feel: Yet can we not, without great Injustice to your Majesty, be silent on this happy Occasion. The victorious Event is indeed no Matter of Astonishment to us, since the Cause you engaged in is the favourite Cause of Heaven, the Cause of Virtue and of Liberty; and since that Cause was committed to the Care of his Royal Highness the Duke, distinguished by a Greatness of Soul, ever ready to sacrifice his Person in the Defence of his Country, conducted by the most consummate Prudence, and improved by every Quality that can attract the Soldiery to a cheerful and willing Obedience to his Commands.

If the constant Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Protection are too common to excite that that Attention to them they justly merit; yet your Majesty's most affectionate Resolutions to preserve your People from the Tyranny of Arbitrary Power, and to rescue them from the Miseries of popular Fury, and upon hazarding the Life of your Royal Son in executing those Resolutions, demand the utmost Tribute of Gratitude and Thanksgiving, and silence the Clamours of Discontent and Faction.

We assure you, Sir, our Breasts are inspired with such grateful Sentiments, that each Morning our Voices shall be tun'd for our Deliverance, and your Praises shall be the Subject of our Evening Song.

We impute the Liberty we enjoy to your Majesty's paternal Care of us, and, in Return for that Care, will deserve your future Protection, by a filial Submission to your Person, and a legal Attachment to your Government, and will, as far as our Authority or Influence can extend, inculcate the same Lessons to others.

To recompense your unwearied Endeavours for the publick Good, may your Majesty's Reign over us be long and prosperous, undisturbed by the Attacks of open Violence, unalarm'd by the more dangerous Machinations of secret Conspiracies; may their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales be as conspicuous for their Happiness as they are for their Virtues; may the young Hero return in Safety to this Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and, by his Presence, rejoice the Inhabitants thereof; may our Waters prove Fountains of Health to her Royal Highness the Princess Caroline; may Heaven pour down the choicest Blessings upon the whole Royal Family, and to secure those we enjoy to the latest Posterity; may he crown your personal Virtues, add so great a Dignity to flourish on the Heads of your Royal Descendants, as long as honest Britons have any Relish for Liberty, are the sincere Wishes of us your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, this Seventh Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, having been transmitted by their Moderator to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Presbytery of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Joy, for the happy Success of your Majesty's Arms under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, against the Enemies of your Government, and of our most valuable Interests.

The Safety of your Government, and the Preservation of our Peace and Happiness, we look upon as inseparably united: Your Enemies we must always hold as our's: Your Success we rejoice in as our Deliverance, recovering us from Oppression and Violence, to the secure Possession of all that is dear to us as Men and Christians.

Such an intire Defeat of these audacious Rebels, who threatened the utter Destruction of our Religion and Liberties; — A Victory obtained with so little Loss of your Majesty's brave and faithful Troops; — The Preservation of the valuable and important Life of their illustrious General, — can't fail to inspire the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude and Thankfulness to our most Gracious God.

Permit us, Great Sir, to share in your Majesty's Happiness on receiving the joyful News of the Safety and Success of so brave a Son; Permit us to say, we know no greater earthly Blessing, than to be under the Government of a Family which produces such amiable Examples of acquiring true Glory, by despising Ease and Luxury, submitting to Toil and Hardships, and encountering Dangers for the publick Good, With the highest Pleasure we adore that kind Providence which raised up such a glorious Instrument of our Deliverance at this Time, to fix the Hearts of all true Britons in an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty and your illustrious House, and for ever extinguish the Hopes of our inveterate Enemies.

With the utmost Astonishment must we view the Infatuation of those Men, who would wantonly throw away the Blessings of Liberty, the secure Enjoyment of their Properties, the Establishment and free Exercise of the Protestant Religion; or intrust with these invaluable Blessings a popish Pretender, who dares to claim Free-born Britons as his rightful Slaves! Forgive us to assure your Majesty, with all Humility, that it has been our utmost Endeavour, at all Times, to keep our People awake to a Sense of the true Interest of the Nation and of our Posterity, as depending, under God, on the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and the Succession to it in your Royal House. And we should be most unworthy of the Character we bear, and of your Majesty's repeated Favours, if it was not at Heart with us now to possess those under our Care with a warmer Zeal than ever in Behalf of our happy Constitution, after being threatned with such prodigious Ruin.

We trust in our Gracious God, that our implacable Enemies will now see it to be vain for them to make any future Attempts, in Behalf of popish Tyranny and arbitrary Power, against a brave and free People, sensible of the Happiness they they enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and resolved ever to remain faithful to the best of Kings.

It is our constant Prayer, that God may multiply his best Blessings on your Majesty, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke, and the other illustrious Branches of your Royal Family: That he may establish your Throne in Righteousness, and defeat all the wicked Designs of your Enemies at Home and Abroad: That you may reign securely in the Hearts of your Subjects, and long enjoy the unspeakable Pleasure of making Britain Great and Happy: And when at last your faithful Service to the King of Kings shall be crowned with an eternal Reward, your Posterity may remain the Glory of the British Throne, the Guardians of the Rights of Mankind, and the Support of the Protestant Interest to latest Generations.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Edinburgh, Jo. Jardine, Moderator.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Professors and Masters of the University of Glasgow, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montrose, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Professors and Masters of the University of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to testify our hearty Concurrence in the universal and unfeigned Joy of a faithful People, delivered from Oppression by the glorious Victory with which it has pleased our most Gracious God to reward the singular Vigilance, wise Conduct and Fortitude of his Royal Highness the Duke: As we have the deepest Sense of your Majesty's Goodness in sending him amidst such Perils, to deliver this Country from that Variety of Distress and Oppression it has suffered; which, though excessive, we had too good Reason to believe, would have been only the Prelude to a more intolerable Tyranny.

We gratefully acknowledge the Divine Goodness in giving us so many National Blessings in your Illustrious House, and in preserving his Highness amidst such imminent Dangers; and trust in God, that Great Britain shall for the Future enjoy, undisturbed, the full Happiness of its Constitution, and resume its natural Influence in maintaining the Liberty of Europe, under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

As in the Midst of Dangers, we were not deficient in due Expressions of our loyal and faithful Attachment to your Majesty and your Royal House, and exerted ourselves in the Cause of Liberty, in Proportion to our Ability; we shall ever continue our most earnest Endeavours to promote the same loyal Dispositions in all those whom our Instructions or Example can influence.

We are,
May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's
most humble,
most dutiful,
and faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable William Earl of Panmure, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar, having now, through the Presence and Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, an Opportunity of meeting again in a free and undisturbed Manner, think ourselves bound, by all the Ties of Duty, Loyalty and Gratitude, to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Thanks for that tender Concern and Regard you have been graciously pleased to express for your loyal Subjects in this Part of your Dominions, by sending for our Deliverer, from an odious and unnatural Rebellion, and to restore Peace to a Kingdom, of itself the sole Cause of its own Disquiet, a Prince, for whose Safety all Europe so justly trembles, whom every Lover of Valour and Liberty so justly admires.

Conscious of the many Blessings it has enjoyed since the Accession of your Majesty's Royal Father to the Throne; the Effect of the late happy Revolution; free in our Liberties, free in our Laws, and flourishing in our Manufactures, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we could not fail to look on those who dared to think of any Change of our present Constitution, with the most sincere Hatred and Abhorrence.

But

But as such an Attempt was contrary to all Laws both Human and Divine, so it has pleased the Almighty to turn the Edge of their Devices against themselves; into the Snare, which they laid for others, are they fallen; deluded Victims to a despotick Monarch's lawless Ambition; to a blind and superstitious Religion.

With the sincerest Joy and Satisfaction we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success which has attended your Arms over these Disturbers of our Quiet, whose Practices we have always held in the greatest Detestation. To the wise Conduct, Vigilance and Activity of his Royal Highness the Duke, we must intirely attribute this Victory. May he daily increase in Military Glory, and from being the Terror and Scourge of the Invaders of your Majesty's Dominions, become the glorious Avenger of the publick Wrongs of Europe.

We unfeignedly wish that your Majesty may long continue a Blessing to these Kingdoms, a Support to our Liberties, and the Protestant Religion; That your Arms may be always crowned, where-ever they shall be aimed, with that Success which ought to attend on Justice and a good Cause: And finally, that the Crown of Great Britain may remain in your Majesty's Illustrious House to the latest Generations.

Signed at the Desire, and in the Presence of the Meeting, by the Right Honourable John Lord Gray, Sheriff Principal of the County of Forfar, at Forfar, this Twenty sixth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty six Years.

The following Address of the Manadgers of the Town of Montrose has been presented to his Majesty by the Honourable John Maule, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Manadgers of the Town of Montrose.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Manadgers of the Town of Montrose, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Success of your Arms, under the auspicious Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland against the Rebels: This Event fills our Hearts with Joy, by giving us a well-grounded Confidence, that this Country shall soon be delivered from these Confusions and Troubles it has so long labour'd under by this unnatural Rebellion.

May the Almighty always grant you Victory and Success, not only over your Domestick but Foreign Enemies, and that after a long, happy, and glorious Reign, your Posterity may govern these Realms until Time shall be no more.

Sign'd by the unanimous Order of the Manadgers,

Ja. Coultts, Preses.

Stockholm, April 29, O. S. According to our last Letters from Gottenburg, the Swedish Officers are still there.

Vienna, May 11, N. S. The Austrian Army was to have passed the Taro in the Night between the 3d and 4th Instant, in the Face of the Enemy, General Nadasti being to have led the Avant Guard that was to have been composed of all the Hussars, Warasdins, and Horse and Foot Grenadiers; but by Letters of the 4th Instant it appears, that M. de Gages, who, according to the Reports of the Deserters, has not above 15 or 16000 Men, retired the Day before, and left the Passage free, but the Route that he has taken is not yet known, or at least not yet confessed. In the mean while M. de Castellar has gained the Genoese Territory, having made 200 of his Officers do the Duty of common Grenadiers, in forming the Rear Guard. It is assured by private Letters from Mantua, that, upon the Retreat of M. de Castellar, the Number of Deserters from his Corps was so considerable as to have made it unsafe to let them enter into the Town, especially as so many Spanish Prisoners were already in the Place. The Reason why the Austrians deferred so long the Passage of the Taro, was principally the Want of Carriages, which the Parmesan Peasants had removed out of their Reach. Prince Lobcowitz set out the Day before Yesterday for the Army upon the Rhine.

Berlin, May 14, N. S. The King of Prussia set out Yesterday for Pymont. He proposed to be at Saltz dal To-day, to stay with the Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick till the 16th, and then to pursue his Journey. His Prussian Majesty is expected back the 10th of next Month, and it is thought he will go to Silesia soon after his Return. M. Podewils, who was formerly his Prussian Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague, is now publicly nominated to go in the same Character to the Court of Vienna, and is promoted on this Occasion, to the Dignity of Minister of State. He proposes to begin his Journey the latter End of this Month.

Copenhagen, May 14, The Mediterranean Squadron was Yesterday under Sail, in order to fall down into the Sound, but the Wind not serving, they were forced to cast Anchor a few Miles from hence, near the Coast of Sweden.

Hague May 20. M. Bathiani has effectuated his Retreat without any Loss or Molestation, and has found it adviseable to push the same quite to Breda, where he is supposed to have arrived last Night or this Morning. The Marshal has left nothing behind him, except a few Men in Fort Marguerite, and in the Cittadel of Antwerp.

Inverness, May 5. It is thought that our Stay here will not be long, from the Dispositions which are making for carrying forward Provisions, of which a very considerable Quantity has been amassed here.

Sir James Kinloch, two of his Brothers, and some others, are taken by Prince Frederick of Hesse's Hussars.

Commodore Smith receiv'd Yesterday Advice from Capt. Jefferys, of the Scarborough, dated Deer Sound, in the Orkneys, the 27th past, that a Ship from New England was put in there, sent Express from the Governor to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, with an Account, that one of his Majesty's 20 Gun Ships, with a Privateer, had taken a Galleon, which was by far the richest Prize that had been made since the War began, she having on board a Million Sterling in Bullion. The Captain of the Scarborough writes further, that every Thing was quiet in those Parts, the Rebels having been gone above a Fortnight from thence.

Admiralty-Office, May 8, 1746.

His Majesty having been graciously pleas'd, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be inform'd of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Sea Officers Widows, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Sums as the Funds of the said Charity shall produce for one Year ending the 31st Day of this Month, as soon as the Pay-books can be made up, and the Money shall be issued into the Pay Master's Hands for that Purpose; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

Navy-Office, May 3, 1746.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury having been pleas'd to direct, that Bills made out with Interest, and registred on the Course of the Navy, and Transports, shall have the Interest which may become due thereon paid Quarterly, till the principal Money is paid off; The principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, do hereby give Notice thereof, and that they will from time to time advertize in the Gazette, and other publick Papers, the respective Day on which the said Interest shall be paid at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy.

Navy May 9, 1746.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, give Notice, that Tallies and Orders on the Land Tax, Anno 1746. carrying Interest, at the rate of 4 per Cent. per Annum, are lodged in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, to compleat the Payment of Bills carrying Interest, and registred on the Courses of the Navy, Victualling, and Transports, in the Months of May, June, July, August and September, 1745. and that such Persons who are possess'd of any of those Bills may, upon bringing them to the proper Offices, have them assigned and exchanged for Land Tax Tallies and Orders, agreeable to former Advertisements.

Victualling-Office, May 3, 1746.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury having been pleas'd to direct, that Bills made out with Interest, and registred on the Course of the Victualling, shall have the Interest that may become due thereon paid Quarterly, till the Principal Money is paid off; The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice thereof, and that they will from Time to Time advertize in the Gazette, and other publick Papers, the respective Days on which the said Interest shall be paid at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy.

London, May 8, 1746.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Court of the Governors and Company for working of Mines, Minerals and Metals, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be held at the Sun Fire Office behind the Royal Exchange, on Thursday the 12th of June next, from Twelve o'Clock till Two in the Afternoon, on special Affairs.
