The following Address of the Annual Committee of the Convention of Royal Burrows, as representing the Citizens and Burgeses of North Britain, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Annual Committee of the Convention of Royal Burrows, as representing the Citizens and Burgeses of North Britain, most humbly intreat Permission to congratulate your sacred Majesty on the great and important Success of your Majesty's Arms under his Royal Highness the Duke, and on the entire Suppression of the wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which has unhappily long prevailed in this Part of the Island.

We have the highest Reason to be sensible of our glorious Deliverance from the greatest of Evils, and to rejoice, that from being subject to insolent lawless Tyranny, we are happily restored to our mild and free Government, under a most gracious Sovereign, who has always made the Law the Rule of his Conduct.

As your Majesty's Subjects are again in the full Possession of their Rights and Liberties, have their Property secured, Commerce and their domestick Peace and Tranquillity in a great Measure restored; as this Felicity is owing to your Majesty's paternal Care and transcendent Wisdom; we your Majesty most faithful State of Burrows, beg Leave to express our Joy and Acknowledgments with the most grateful and sincere Hearts, and humbly to assure your Majesty of our most dutiful and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our utmost Endeavours, in our Sphere, for the Support of your Majesty's Government, which, by confirm'd Experience, we know to be an inestimable Blessing to your People.

We earnestly beseech the Supreme Being, that the like Success may at all Times attend your Majesty's Arms, whereof, under the Divine Influence, we have the greatest Expectations, from the superior Conduct and Valour of the Illustrious Hero, deservedly at the Head of your Majesty's Troops; and that your Majesty may live many Years to have the Pleasure and Glory of beholding your Subjects free, happy and contented, and these Parts of the World secure in the Enjoyment of the Blessings your Majesty shall have procured for them.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Victory obtained over the Rebels in Scotland, by the Valour and Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; a Victory of the utmost Consequence, not only to this Nation in particular, (as it has freed us from the dismal Prospect of Popery, Slavery and Arbitrary Power) but also to all the Protestant Powers in Europe, as their Well-being depends on the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty and your Illustrious House.

We want Words to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of this unnatural Rebellion, and of the inevitable Ruin it must have brought on us and our Posterity, had the Rebels succeeded, being
