TH E following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lonsdale, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the extraordinary Success with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless your Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, against a savage Host of Rebels, and an audacious Pretender, whose Claim we have solemnly abjured, whose Cause we utterly abhor.

When we reflect that his Royal Highness's expeditious and tremendous Advance on the unnatural Rebels in this County, averted from us the Fire and Sword, the Ruin and Desolation, which they had violently threatened; when we recollect their Rapine, Tyranny and Oppression, in every Place of their Traverses, and at the same Time review your Majesty's glorious Defeat of their impious Attempts against your Crown and the Constitution; it is with Hearts full of the greatest Duty and Gratitude we acknowledge your Royal Perfections in forming and pursuing those Schemes, which have preserved to us every Thing dear, and delivered us from every Thing dreadful to a free People. We are happy, and we know ourselves to be happy, under a gracious Sovereign, who guards his Subjects with Vigilance, governs them with Wisdom, endears them with Mildness, and protects them with Fortitude.

Permit us, Sacred Sir, on this joyful Occasion, to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for your Wisdom in appointing your Royal Son the Commander of your Forces, and for your Goodness and Greatness of Mind, in exposing him to a Complication of Perils for the Preservation of Religion, Law, Liberty, and Great Britain. His eminent Military Virtues render him equal to so important a Trust, and he has signally distinguished himself to be a wise and a brave General; indefatigable in Toil, and intrepid in Danger; prudent in concerting the Measures of War, and steady in executing them. Thus the young Hero, in the Day of the late Battle, warm in his Courage, and cool in his Conduct, made all Opposition fall before him, and gained a compleat Victory, that will shed over your Majesty's Reign a lasting Glory, and diffuse to your faithful People a solid Happiness.

As we have the clearest Views of an inseparable Connection betwixt our own Happiness and the firm Establishment of the Protestant Succession, Duty and Affection to your Majesty will always unite with the Dictates of Self-Love, to engage us in the most fervent Prayers to Almighty God, for the best Blessings upon your Majesty, and every Branch of your illustrious Family.

We are, with the most profound Submission,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most devoted, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Southampton, has been presented to his Majesty by John Walter, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Loyalty and Duty we most humbly beg Leave to congratulate late your Majesty upon the happy and glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, in crushing the late wicked and unnatural Rebellion, formed against your Majesty, and our Constitution.

We have a grateful Sense of the Conduct and Valour of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and of your Majesty's faithful and courageous Troops under his Command, in this signal and ever memorable Victory. And (with Thankfulness to God, and under his Almighty Protection) we cannot but hope your Majesty and your Kingdom safe from the malicious and destructive Views and Enterprizes of detestable and insolent Rebels, encouraged by your Majesty's Enemies Abroad, and by the Abettors of popish Superstition and arbitrary Power at Home.

As upon the first Notice of this wicked Rebellion, we testified our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty, by a most unanimous Association, and a cheerful and voluntary Subscription, for raising Forces for the Security of your Majesty's Person and Government: So we do assure your Majesty of our constant and utmost Endeavours to deserve your Majesty's future Protection, by a steady Perseverance in our Duty and Loyalty to your Majesty, and in our Prayers to God for the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and the Succession thereof in your Royal Family.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by John Blagrove and William Strode, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses, of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, do most heartily congratulate your Majesty upon that glorious Success with which your Councils and Arms have been so signally blessed.

Your Royal Army, animated by the Justice of your Cause, and inspired by the Presence and gallant Behaviour of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, have, we are persuaded, totally extinguished the most horrid and unnatural Rebellion in Scotland, and thereby effectually disappointed the detested Views of the House of Bourbon, in Favour of an abjured Pretender, bred up in Superstition, and a Fondness of arbitrary Power.

May those amiable Virtues in your Majesty, which adorn your Crown, attract the Hearts of all your Subjects, and engage them unanimously to join their best Endeavours in supporting (what we are sure your Majesty will esteem the chief Glory of your Reign) the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms; and after a long and happy Reign over us, may you transmit to your Royal Heirs, together with your own Virtues, the peaceable Government of a truly loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty ninth Day of May 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans in the County of Hertford, has been presented to his Majesty by James West, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Albans in the County of Hertford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Albans in the County of Hertford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, in the total Defeat of your unnatural and rebellious Subjects, spirited up and supported by the most inveterate Enemies of this Kingdom.

It gives us infinite Pleasure to see our illustrious Hero, so early and so greatly distinguish himself in the Cause of Religion and Liberty; and it affords us a pleasing Prospect of future Happiness, that the same princely Qualities (which have so much endeared your Majesty to your Subjects) shine forth so conspicuously in his Royal Highness.

Permit us, Sir, to return our most hearty Thanks to your Majesty, for the many Blessings we enjoy under your just and mild Government; and to add our sincere Wishes for your Majesty's Health, and the perpetual Establishment of these Kingdoms in your illustrious House.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commons of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Lancaster, has has been presented to his Majesty by Francis Reynolds, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commons of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Lancaster in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commons of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Lancaster in Common Council assembled, with Thanks to the Almighty, and Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Majesty's Arms under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, against the Rebels in Scotland, assisted by the natural Enemies of Great Britain. This Battle will set the Greatness of his Royal Highness's Valour and Conduct in its true Lustre.

We, in a particular Manner, humbly approach your Majesty with the utmost Sense of Gratitude, in appointing the Illustrious British Hero to command your Majesty's Forces, which, animated by his Presence, Prudence and Courage, dissipated our Fears, when labouring under the most dismal Apprehensions of losing all that was dear and valuable to us, our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, which we happily enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and gracious Government and Protection.

We and all your faithful and loyal Subjects shall ever acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care over us; and we shall daily and devoutly pray to the King of Kings, for your Majesty's long Life, happy and glorious Reign, and for your Royal Posterity to succeed after you for ever.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Seal of the said Corporation to be hereunto affixed this 26th Day of May 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Fonnereau, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Arms, in the Defeat of the Rebels, under the prudent and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke.

When we consider the many Benefits and Advantages your Majesty's Subjects reap under your mild and gentle Administration, and the Rights and Privileges which we continue to enjoy, we cannot but hold in the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, the wicked Authors and Abettors of this unnatural Rebellion, intended to deprive us of the best of Kings, and utterly to destroy our Religious and Civil Liberties.

May the same Providence, which hath hitherto so visibly preserved your Majesty, continue to bless your Arms and Councils.

May nothing ever shake your Majesty's Throne, or give Hopes to the Enemies of our Country, that we will ever depart from our Loyalty to your Majesty and to your Family, to the latest Generations.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough this 29th Day of May 1746, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Erby, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved otherwise Launceston in the County of Cornwall.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE great Troubles and Misfortunes that have attended this Nation, occasioned by a Sett of People, insensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and back'd by the known and avow'd Enemy of your Majesty, and these your Dominions, filled the Hearts of us and all your faithful faithful Subjects with the utmost Concern; nor were we less grieved to hear of their Success.

On this unhappy Occasion, your Majesty's sending his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was a remarkable Instance of your Majesty's great Regard and Care for the Welfare of your Subjects: And it was with the utmost Pleasure we received the Account, that his Royal Highness the Duke, at the Head of your Majesty's Forces, had put an End to the Outrages of those rebellious and desperate Sett of People, and that with little Bloodshed, except to those who were the first Authors of this unnatural Rebellion.

As such a Transaction as this cannot but render his Royal Highness dear to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects; so will it record his Name to all Posterity, and teach your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad, that a free People are not to be govern'd by Popery and Arbitrary Power.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, on this happy Event, to join with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in our most sincere Congratulations, and to add our Prayers for your Majesty's Welfare, and that your Reign over this Nation may be long and prosperous.

Given under our Common Seal the 25th Day of May 1746.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Borough of Selkirk, has been presented to his Majesty by John Murray, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Borough of Selkirk in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Borough of Selkirk in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms; which, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, has defeated the Rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for the Appointment of his Royal Highness the Duke to this important Service; whose Conduct and Bravery, so early conspicuous, have, by the Blessing of the Almighty, produced this our happy Deliverance; a Glory reserved for one of your illustrious Family, endowed with those Princely Qualities, which render him amiable to those under his Command, and formidable to his Enemies.

As Disgrace and Ruin have fallen on the Heads of those wicked Persons who have been Confederates in this abhorred and detested Rebellion, for the Subversion of our happy Constitution, and depriving us of all that is dear and valuable to us; so (we trust) that by Divine Providence, from their Disappointment and Destruction, Stability will redound to your Majesty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Person and Family, and Glory to your Government, over a free and happy People.

May a Series of Success attend your Majesty's Arms, until Tranquillity be restored to Europe, and your Subjects firmly established in the Possession of their just Rights of Trade and Navigation.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Town Council, by Andrew Scott and John Douglass, present Magistrates of Selkirk, at Selkirk, the 22d Day of May, 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been presented to his Majesty by Edward Bacon, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient Borough of King's Lynn, beg Leave, upon this happy Occasion, to approach your Throne, and most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Success of your Arms in Scotland, which, under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke, have in one Day, and by one decisive Blow, totally defeated the traiterous Attempts of your rebellious Subjects, and disappointed the dangerous Designs, formed by our old and inveterate Enemies, to subvert the British Constitution, which has long been the Envy of all such, whose Misfortune it is to live under an arbitrary Government. As its Power long has been, and, we trust in God, ever will be formidable to the restless Ambition of those Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, who, being themselves utter Strangers to the Sweets of Liberty, seem resolved to leave no Means unattempted tempted to extend their Monarch's Sway, and reduce all their Neighbours to their own abject State of Slavery, and Dependance on the lawless Will and Pleasure of a despotick Prince.

It is with the utmost Joy we have lately seen these Clouds dispelled, which for some Time hung over a great Part of these your Majesty's Dominions, and threatened Destruction to all that is valuable to us. When we thought ourselves in Danger of losing the Blessings of Peace and Quiet at Home, which we have without Interruption enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, your Majesty's paternal Care for your Subjects soon delivered us from our Fears, by sending a Prince of your Royal Family to head your Troops, who, led on by such a General, animated by such an Example, and fighting in the Cause of Liberty, have brought Ruin upon those who, by an horrid Rebellion, sought the Downfall of their Country.

As by Divine Providence this wicked and daring Attempt has ended in the utter Confusion of those deluded Men who rashly engag'd in it; we doubt not but by this Event your Majesty's Throne will be more firmly established, as it must have effectually convinced our foreign and domestick Enemies, that your Majesty reigns in the Hearts and Affections of your faithful Subjects, against whom, while united, they know they never can prevail.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; may the like Success ever attend your Arms and Councils; and, in Consequence thereof, may a firm and lasting Peace be restored to Europe, and Trade and Prosperity secured to this Nation; and may our Posterity never want one of your Royal House to sit on the Throne of these Realms, and to transmit to distant Ages the Enjoyment of those invaluable Privileges, our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

Sealed with our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforesaid, this Twentieth Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to his Majesty by Nicholas Fazakerley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's sacred Person, with our sincere and hearty Congratulations for the happy Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the valiant and wise Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, in the late glorious and compleat Victory obtained over your Majesty's Rebellious and unnatural Subjects in North Britain.

As the Ruin with which every Thing was threatened, that deserves the Attention and Esteem of Englishmen, as Protestants and a free People, our Religion, Liberties and Laws, could not but alarm us with the deepest Sense of Danger, and raise in us a thorough Abhorrence and Detestation of this insolent Attempt of our Enemies, to bereave us of those invaluable Blessings, depending on the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government; so every English Heart must be warmed with a true Gratitude and Thankfulness for our Deliverance from it.

Your Majesty has been ever ambitious to give your faithful Subjects the strongest Proofs of a paternal Care and Concern for their Happiness and Welfare. But a greater Instance of your Majesty's Wisdom and Regard for your People could not be given, than in appointing his Royal Highness the Duke to command and animate your Majesty's Army on this important Occasion; A Prince descended of a Family, which, for Ages past, has made it its chief Glory to stand up in Defence of true Religion and Liberty, against the aspiring Views and enslaving Attempts of France, and the Bigotry and Superstition of Rome.

This seasonable Victory has already evinced its great Importance and Influence, by the Manner in which the Account of it was received in several Nations Abroad: And it also opens to us a glorious and pleasing Prospect, not only of seeing the Rebellion, so destructive of the Peace and Trade of this Nation, speedily and totally suppressed; but of having our happy Constitution, in Church and State, still more firmly established, and the Crown of these Realms continued in your Majesty's Royal House to latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Twentieth fourth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and forty six.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by John Wright, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, have obtained against the Rebels in Scotland; a Success purchased without any other Expence of Blood than what was drawn from those whose Wickedness had rendered them unfit to live. If Rapine, Oppression and Murder have always been reckoned amongst the greatest Crimes, what Detestation ought Rebellion to meet with, which not only includes all these, but also tends to destroy our Religion, and overturn the Liberties of the Nation.

We have learnt from Experience, that the Persons engaged in this Rebellion can never be reformed; The Bigottry of their Leaders, in Favour of a popish Pretender, and the slavish Dependance of the meaner Sort upon their Chiefs, makes them ever ready to take up Arms, and to break through all the Obligations of Duty to their Country, and of Gratitude to your Majesty, who have, with the greatest Justice and Resolution, supported the Rights of your Subjects, and of all Europe.

The Share which the inveterate Enemies of this Nation had in the Rebellion, is sufficient to convince us, that they esteem your Majesty the great Protector of the Liberties of Europe, and that they despair of compassing their Schemes of Universal Monarchy, whilst your Majesty is able to give them Opposition. We therefore adore the Goodness of God, who hath raised out of your Majesty's own House one to fight against your foreign and domestick Enemies. His Royal Highness the Duke, by his unexampled Courage and Conduct, hath defeated them, at a Time when they were most formidable to your Majesty's Subjects, and most confident in themselves. May he continue to be victorious till your Majesty and this Nation shall have no more Enemies; and may your Majesty long reign in the Love and Affection of your People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of, and in the said Borough, this Twenty eighth Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty six.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Corporation of Shrewsbury, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Herbert, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Corporation of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to join in the general Acclamations of Joy, for the Success of your Majesty's Arms.

The wicked Designs of the Rebels, and the delusive Hopes of a popish Pretender, are at once blasted, by the Blessing of Divine Providence on your Majesty's Councils, and the wise and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; whose hereditary Virtues, as they are a Terror to his Enemies, so they are a sure Presage to your loyal Subjects of lasting Happiness, under the auspicious Reign of your illustrious Family; and that Sense of Gratitude, which both Houses of Parliament have so lately shew'd for his invaluable Services, is the more pleasing to us, as it is expressive of our own.

By this the Vassals of Rome, and the Slaves of France, may clearly see, how highly we esteem the Blessings we enjoy, and be convinced, that none shall disturb our Peace with Impunity, nor shake the Loyalty of the happiest People to the best of Kings.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Burgh of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, has been presented to his Majesty by Colonel Fitzroy, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which

Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Burgh of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN this Day of general Jubilee, when the Hearts of all your Majesty's Protestant Subjects overflow with the most dutiful Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude; permit your ancient and loyal Corporation of Thetford, humbly to approach your sacred Throne, and to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Success of the British Arms in Scotland, under the auspicious Conduct of his Royal Highness William Duke of Cumberland; a Hero whom Providence, in this Exigence, has vouchsafed to raise us up, as well to confound a Set of deluded Miscreants engaged in actual Rebellion at Home, as the infernal Machinations of Popery and Arbitrary Power Abroad, which were the Source of all our late Calamities: Guided by the Conduct, and animated by the native Courage of this your Majesty's illustrious Off-spring, (who like our first Deliverer of that immortal Name, has once more extinguished the vain Hopes of bigotted Tyranny, and all its Abettors) your Majesty's Arms are at length triumphant; Treason hides her hated Head, and scarcely finds a lurking Hole, even in the most desolate and almost uninhabited Mountains of your Majesty's remoter Dominions.

Thus, Royal Sir, are the united Schemes of France, Spain and Rome, to rob this envied Nation of her Civil and Religious Rights, in Exchange for Slavery and Superstition, again defeated: And hence your Majesty's Enemies may learn, that an Attempt to overthrow a Government, established upon Revolution Principles, and founded in the Affections of a Loyal, Free and Brave People, is a Thing as chimerical and ridiculous, as it will by us ever be esteem'd insolent and abominable.

As the Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person, and Progeny is the only Security for our Properties, Religion, Laws and Liberties, which we have so fully enjoy'd under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; and as Success in this unnatural and horrid Rebellion, raised in our own Country by a Son of an abjured popish Pretender, must necessarily in its Event have produced a total Subversion of these Blessings, and consequently of every Thing worth our Care, so have we ever manifested an utter Abhorrence thereto, and been ready, with great Cheerfulness, to sacrifice our Fortunes, and even Lives, in Support of your Majesty, and so good a Cause.

May this signal Victory of Culloden (which with that of Dettingen, will ever shine in the British Annals) disappoint the Projects of all our Enemies, and more firmly establish your Majesty's Throne: May it prove the Harbinger of an honourable and lasting Peace to your Majesty and your Allies, and procure us a regular Succession of Herods in the House of Hanover; who, after your Majesty's great Example, shall support the Glory, Liberty and Interest of Great Britain to the latest Posterity, is the hearty Desire and Prayers of us, who have Given it under our Common Seal this 29th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Duncannon and John Stanhope, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the late Success of your Majesty's Forces, commanded by his Royal Highness the Duke, and animated by his great Prudence and Courage, against the most wicked and unnatural Rebellion, designed to subvert our happy Constitution in Church and State, in order to introduce Popery and Arbitrary Power.

This Victory is never to be effaced from our Memories, which (through God's Providence) has wonderfully brought back to us the Fruition of those real and inestimable Blessings of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, so much of late endangered by the Parricides and Invaders of your Majesty's most lawful and rightful Dominions, in Favour of a popish and long abjured Pretender.

We of this Borough are the more sensible of this Blessing, because the Enemies to your Majesty's Kingdom and Government, made this Place their last Scene of Action, before their Return into Scotland; and inexpressible were the Horrors and Confusion they brought with them, attended in many Instances with violent and open Acts of Rapine and Plunder.

May your Majesty, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with a Continuance of Descendants from your Majesty's own Royal Family, always reign and live triumphant and victorious over rebellious Subjects and their Abettors, and hand down to us and our Posterity, the Blessings we now enjoy to the End of Time.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough the 2d Day of June, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Elgin, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir James Grant, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Elgin, having but lately recover'd our Liberty from the grievous Oppression we groan'd under by the late unnatural Rebellion, humbly beg Leave at once to express our just Abhorrence of that wicked and daring Attempt, in Favour of an abjur'd popish Pretender; and our Sense of your Majesty's Fatherly Care, in sending his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland to accomplish our seasonable Deliverance, and secure us against popish Slavery and Arbitrary Power.

Our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, shown on this Occasion, drew upon us the distinguishing Hardships we met with, beyond most other Places, many of us being more than once imprisoned, the Community heavily assailed, and the Inhabitants and their private Effects were at the Mercy of the rebellious Army, for no less than eight Weeks; during which Time they staid among us mostly at the Charge of the Place.

We cannot but with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction congratulate your Majesty on the late signal Victory obtained by his Royal Highness, over the Enemies of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; That your Majesty's precious Life may be long preserved, your Reign happy and prosperous, your Arms more and more successful; That your Dominions may be for ever bless'd in having one of your Royal Progeny to sway the Sceptre over them for the Defence of our Constitution, and Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe; and that all your Majesty's Subjects be ever sensible, that the Stability of your Majesty's Throne and their own Interests are inseparable, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

Signed at Elgin the 15th Day of May 1746

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Linlithgow, has been presented to his Majesty by John Mackye, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon the glorious and compleat Victory lately obtained by his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland over the Rebels, and to testify our Gratitude for sending us so seasonable a Deliverer, who (under God) has rescued us out of the Hands of those, who had risen in Arms against your Majesty and their Country.

We are deeply sensible of the many valuable Blessings we have enjoy'd under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and do detest the Treachery of those who, by an unnatural Rebellion, endeavour'd to raise a Popish Pretender to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to change Liberty and the Protestant Religion for Slavery and Popish Tyranny, and were not ashamed to call in a Foreign Enemy to assist them in destroying their native Country.

It is our fervent Prayer to God Almighty, That your Majesty may long reign over us, and that there may never be wanting one of your Illustrious Family to perpetuate the Blessings we enjoy enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and to secure our Religion, Laws and Liberties to us and our latestt Posterity.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of Linlithgow, the Town Council,
May 10, 1746. John Bucknay, Provost.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, and Capital Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, has been presented to his Majesty by John Phillipson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, and Capital Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

TO be silent when (all around us) your Majesty's faithful Subjects are congratulating your Majesty on the late most glorious and important Victory, obtained by his Royal Highness the Duke, (that Darling of the Soldiery, and Nation's Triumph,) over those infatuated and detestable People the Rebels, (incited and stirred up by the Artifice and Delusions of the Common Enemy of the British Nation, to an Attempt not less vile and heinous than the total Subversion of this Kingdom, and utter Extirpation of the Protestant Religion, our most valuable Blessings,) would beak us insensible of that Happiness we enjoy under the Tuition of the best of Kings.

Permit us therefore, in these our Sentiments, (most Excellent Prince) to join our Fellow Subjects with our joyful Congratulations of your Majesty on that most happy Event; an Event, conspicuously pointing out the merciful Providence of God to this Nation, in your Majesty's Sacred Person, (our great Deliverer from popish Tyranny and Arbitrary Power) and from which we hope a sure and firm Establishment of those invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign; and that through your Majesty, and Royal Descendants, they will be transmitted down to us and our Posterity to the remotest Time.

And may that watchful Eye of Providence, which favourably beholds the Actions of the Just, ever preserve your Sacred Majesty and Royal Family, and grant, that there may never be wanting a Prince, descendant of your Illustrious

House, to reign over this Nation, in the Hearts and Affections of a great and free People, are the Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Whitehall, June 10.

The King has been pleased to constitute Edward Falkingham, Esq; one of the Commissioners in Quality of a principal Officer of his Majesty's Navy.

The King has been pleased to constitute James Compton, Esq; a Commissioner in Quality of a principal Officer of his Majesty's Navy, particularly for the Affairs of the Yards at Deptford and Woolwich.

Whitehall, May 30, 1746.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to be King, that on Wednesday the 14th of May, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, John Milles, Esq; was attacked in David street, betw en Grosvenor-street and Mount-street, by four Foot-pads armed with Pistols, one of whom stop't the said John Milles's Mouth, another of them held his Hands over his Eyes, whilst the others holding him fast and threatening to murder him if he made the least Noise or Resistance, rifled his Pockets, and took from him a Silk Purse with some Guineas in it, a Gold Watch, with a Steel Chain, and two Seals set in Gold, besides several Keys and other Things: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen of the Vestry of the Parish of St. George Hanover Square, do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds for such Discovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Simon Parry, their Vestry Clerk, at his House in Conduit Street.

J. Parry.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Augusta, That they will be paid their respective Shares of one fourth Part of the Champflour Prize (exclusive of the Silver) on Thursday the 3d of July, at Plymouth, provided his Majesty's said Ship be return'd from her Cruize, and if not, it will be defer'd till farther Notice. N. B. The other three Fourths will also be paid as soon as the Claim put in by his Majesty's Ship Faulkland is decided; of which immediate Notice will be given Navy Office, June 5, 1746.

This is to give Notice, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to appoint Money to pay all the Arrears due due to the Pensioners belonging to the Chest at Chatham, to Lady day 1746; and that the said Pay will begin on Tuesday the 12th of August, 1746, at the Chest Room in his Majesty's Dock Yard at Chatham.

South Sea House, London, June 4, 1746.

The Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, that the Transfer Books of New South Sea Annuities will be shut on Thursday the 19th Instant, at Two o'Clock, and opened again on Tuesday the 29th of July following; and that the Warrants for the Half Year's Interest due thereon at Midsummer next, will be paid on Thursday the 7th of August. They also give Notice, that the Transfer Books of the Trading Stock will be shut on Monday the 23d Instant, at Two o'Clock, and opened again on Monday the 11th of August following; and that the Dividend due thereon for the Half Year ending at Midsummer next, will be paid on Monday and Tuesday, the 18th and 19th of the said Month of August; on which Days of Payment the said New Annuity and Stock Transfer Books will be shut.

Wine Licence Office, June 6, 1746.

All Persons owing or engaged for Arrears of Rent for Wine Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby required to take Notice, that if they do not pay off their said Arrears, and renew their said Licences with all Speed, they will be forthwith prosecuted for the same. And whereas his Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Revenue arising by Wine Licences, have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to retail Wine without Licence, and to whom Letters have been sent, advertising them of the Penalties incurred thereby: These are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do speedily apply themselves to the said Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided, will be forthwith put in Execution.

London, June 5, 1746.

The Committee for carrying on an Expedition by Hudson's Straits, for the Discovery of a North West Passage to the Western and Southern Ocean of America, do hereby give Notice, That a General Meeting of the Subscribers to the said Discovery, is appointed to be held on Wednesday the 18th of this Month, at Garraway's Coffee-house in Exchange Alley, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; when the Committee will make a Report of their Proceedings, and lay before the Subscribers the State of their Account, and also take their Directions upon what is farther necessary to be done. N. B. The Ships were well, and with their Convoy, off Tinmouth, the first Day of this Month.
