By the Lords Justices General and General
Governors of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

WHEREAS his Majesty hath signified unto us his Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the First Day of July next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Third Day of March following; We do therefore publish and declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Third Day of March next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 13th Day of June, 1746.

By their Excellencies Command,
Jas. Belcher.

God save the King.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, having been transmitted by Sir Thomas Hales, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Victory obtained over your rebellious Subjects, by your Majesty's Forces, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke.

It can't but be Matter of great Satisfaction to your Majesty's faithful Subjects to reflect, that this great Event, which has at once defeated the wicked Designs of the avowed Enemy of your Person and Government, and secured to them the Continuance of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government, has been, under God, and your Majesty, owing to the Valour and Conduct of that illustrious Hero.

Your Majesty will therefore permit us to express our most sincere and lively Sense of that universal Joy, which every loyal Subject to your Majesty, and Friend to Religion and Liberty, must feel, upon exchanging the Apprehensions of being exposed to tyrannical and arbitrary Power, for the Prospect of enjoying, in their utmost Extent, all the innumerable Benefits of our most excellent Constitution.

The inviolable Regard your Majesty has, for the Time past, shewn to the religious and civil Rights of your People, gives the strongest Assurance of your continuing the same gracious Protection to them for the future. In Confidence of which, we beg Leave to testify our most ardent Desires; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the Eleventh Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, has been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar in Council assembled, being deeply sensible of the many and valuable Blessings we have enjoy'd under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, do, with the greatest Sincerity declare the vile Abhorrence we have ever had against the wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which was rais'd and promoted in this Kingdom in Favour of a Popish Pretender, a meer Tool and Minion of the French King.

We have always look'd on the Support of your Majesty's Government, to be the only true Interest of these Kingdoms; and the Authors and Abettors of this monstrous Rebellion.

to be a Sett of Men destitute of all Regard to their Country, who wanted to introduce Tyranny and Popery, in Exchange for our noble Liberties, Civil and Religious, the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure, secur'd to us by the happy Revolution, and of which we have had the most ample Enjoyment under your august House.

The Care which your Majesty has taken in suppressing the Rebellion, has been highly agreeable to every Person, warm'd with the least Zeal for the publick Good; and your sending down his Royal Highness the Duke to command the Army, was such an Instance of your paternal Goodness, as we hope will never be forgot by our latest Posterity: It confounded our Enemies, gave fresh Spirit and Vigour to the Army, and ineffable Joy to every true Lover of his Country.

What has happened, has answered our warmest Expectations, and we highly felicitate your Majesty on the joyful Event of a glorious and compleat Victory gained over the Rebels, by your Arms, under the Command of this illustrious Hero, whom we shall always look upon, under your Majesty, as the Deliverer of our Country; and we hope God will preserve him to be a further Blessing to these Nations, not only by settling the present Troubles, but likewise make him the Instrument in your Hand, of checking and disappointing the ambitious Views of France, which are calculated not only to subvert our most excellent Constitution, but likewise the Liberties of Europe.

It was owing to the Inconsiderableness of our Community that we could not manifest what our Loyalty declared towards the suppressing of this unnatural Rebellion, but at the same Time it gives us inexpressible Joy, when we reflect on the steady and unshaken Fidelity of every Individual in the Society, firm to the present happy Establishment, and contributing all in their Power to assist and accommodate your Majesty's Forces, even when the Rebels were oppressing the greatest Part of this Country.

We beg Leave to conclude with assuring your Majesty, in the sincerest Manner, that this our Address is the Language of Hearts overflowing with Love and Gratitude, zealously attached to your sacred Person and Government, and always ready to defend them to the utmost of our Power.

May Almighty God continue to bless and long preserve your Majesty to make these Kingdoms happy under your mild and auspicious Government; and may the British Scepter continue to the latest Posterity in your illustrious House; that so we may always have a Protestant Sovereign to secure us in the Possession of our most valuable Rights and Privileges.

Sign'd in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council.

This Day being the Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the great Guns were fired in the Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out on Oxmantown Green. At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction. And the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.
