WHEREAS his Majesty hath signified unto us his Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the First Day of July next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Third Day of March following; We do therefore publish and declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Third Day of March next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 13th Day of June, 1746.

By their Excellencies Command,
Jas. Belcher.

God save the King.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, having been transmitted by Sir Thomas Hales, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Victory obtained over your rebellious Subjects, by your Majesty's Forces, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke.

It can't but be Matter of great Satisfaction to your Majesty's faithful Subjects to reflect, that this great Event, which has at once defeated the wicked Designs of the avowed Enemy of your

Person and Government, and secured to them the Continuance of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government, has been, under God, and your Majesty, owing to the Valour and Conduct of that illustrious Hero.

Your Majesty will therefore permit us to express our most sincere and lively Sense of that universal Joy, which every loyal Subject to your Majesty, and Friend to Religion and Liberty, must feel, upon exchanging the Apprehensions of being exposed to tyrannical and arbitrary Power, for the Prospect of enjoying, in their utmost Extent, all the innumerable Benefits of our most excellent Constitution.

The inviolable Regard your Majesty has, for the Time past, shewn to the religious and civil Rights of your People, gives the strongest Assurance of your continuing the same gracious Protection to them for the future. In Confidence of which, we beg Leave to testify our most ardent Desires; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the Eleventh Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, has been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar in Council assembled, being deeply sensible of the many and valuable Blessings we have enjoy'd under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, do, with the greatest Sincerity declare the vile Abhorrence we have ever had against the wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which was rais'd and promoted in this Kingdom in Favour of a Popish Pretender, a meer Tool and Minion of the French King.

We have always look'd on the Support of your Majesty's Government, to be the only true Interest of these Kingdoms; and the Authors and Abettors of this monstrous Rebellion.
