Kensington, July 19.

THE following Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats, the Dean and Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Hartford, was presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lieutenant Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats, the Dean and Clergy, your Majesty's Officers, and other principal Gentlemen in this Island of Guernsey, ever faithful and loyal, beg Leave to make an humble Tender of our zealous Congratulations, on the Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Defeat of your rebellious Subjects.

Their ungrateful and traiterous Attempt to interrupt your Majesty's most just Government; to deprive your Kingdoms of your necessary and powerful Protection; and to bereave your People of all else that in Life can be dear to them, so deeply affected us at the Distance we are, that nothing then could alleviate our Concern, but your Majesty's known Steadiness; and that cheerful active Duty, which, at that Time, so eminently and so unanimously exerted itself amongst the Great, and the sensible Part of your Subjects: An Act which will shine in British Annals, and ever redound to their Honour, who bore a Share in it.

Your Royal Wisdom has at length been crown'd with a happy Issue, and your paternal Care has relieved us of our Anxieties.

As Providence never fails to direct the desperate Intentions of evil Men to some good and useful End; so we have the Joy to see the hellish Deeds of those Miscreant Jacobites become instrumental to our future Peace and Security, as well as to their own Shame, and the Confusion of their contemptible Abettors; by giving Birth to fresh and pregnant Proofs of the Strength of your Hands, at that Juncture of Time.

Permit us, Sir, to express the just Sense we have of your Majesty's high Regard, in your gracious parting with, and sending your own Son the Duke to the Rescue of your invaded People. The distinguishing Marks of Valour and Conduct which his Royal Highness (so soon after his tender Years become the darling Hero of the British Nation, and the Curb of its Enemies) has manifested in his important Commission, call forth our loudest Applause: And we heartily congratulate your Majesty on the pleasing Prospect of his confirming and further extending the Glory of your august House.

That Almighty God may bless your unwearied Labours for the Good of Mankind; that your Majesty may long live to settle the Repose of Europe, be the firm Support of your Allies, the Scourge of the proudest of your Enemies, and the Father of your People; and late transmit the Imperial Scepter of these your Kingdoms down to your Royal Off-spring, from Son to Son, till Time be no more, are the earnest and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal and most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, has been presented to his Majesty by John Harris and John Arscot, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dun-

[ Price Four-pence. ]

Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, humbly beg Leave, with the most joyful Hearts, to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Victory lately obtained over the Rebels in Scotland, by his Royal Highness the illustrious Duke of Cumberland.

As your Majesty's giving the Command in this important Affair, (an Affair attended with the most imminent Danger) to this heroic Prince, is the strongest Demonstration of that paternal Care and Affection, which you have always expressed for your People, so does it demand the sincerest Thanks of every Briton: It is his Courage and Conduct (under God) we owe our Preservation from the Ravages of the execrable Tools to the Disturbers of the Peace of Europe: Deluded Wretches, who would introduce into this happy Island Slavery and Chains, instead of the greatest Blessing of Heaven, which we at present enjoy, Liberty.

The Pleasure that rises in our Minds on considering our present Happiness; but Happiness composed of innumerable Blessings under your Majesty's best of Governments, which with our Aid we shall be for ever ready and willing to defend; and the Prospect we have of its being transmitted down to our Posterity by your Royal Descendants, is beyond the Power of Words to express.

With the utmost Sincerity and Reverency we pray, that the Almighty will confound the Devices of all your Majesty's Enemies, and give you a long and happy Reign over us; that you may live to triumph over the Bigotry of Rome and the diabolical Policy of States, that he will pour down the choicest of his Blessings upon your Royal Family, and grant that there may be never wanting one of your august House to sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Magistrates, and Citizens of the City of Lichfield, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Goring, their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Magistrates, and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Lichfield.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts full of inexpressible Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Success of your Arms against the united Force of insolent Invaders and traitorous Subjects. We are sensible that our present Deliverance, next to the Blessing of Almighty God, is owing to the Conduct and Bravery of that heroic young Prince the Duke, and shall think ourselves justly chargeable with the blackest Ingratitude, if we do not always most thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's fatherly Goodness to us, in appointing him Commander of your Troops, and exposing your own Royal Son for the Preservation of the People committed to your Charge.

The present and future Happiness of us and our Descendants, are necessarily and inseparably connected with the Establishment and Continuance of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty and your Royal Family, to whom we are already indebted for the full and free Enjoyment of all our religious and civil Rights: And as the Cause of Virtue and Liberty, which your Majesty has ever espoused and supported, is the peculiar and favourite Care of Heaven, we trust the same good Providence, which has hitherto watched over and preserved your Majesty, will still continue to crown all your Undertakings with Success and Glory, so that your Throne be established in Righteousness and Peace, and the Blessing of your auspicious Reign be transmitted to latest Posterity.

Given under our common Seal this 5th Day of July, 1746.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Town of Ludlow, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Corbett, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Com-monarchy of the Town of Ludlow, humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majesty, upon the Success of your Arms, under the auspicious Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke, who hath so happily exerted the Courage, hereditary in the Princes of your illustrious House, in the Defence of your Majesty's Crown, and of the Rights and Liberties of all your People.

Whatever Mischiefs we have suffer'd from this odious Rebellion, your Confidence is, that (as Providence often produceth Good out of Evil) from hence your Majesty's Throne will be more firmly established, and your faithful Subjects for ever delivered from the last of all human Evils, Popery and Arbitrary Power: that from hence the World will more evidently see, how dear your Majesty's Person and Government are to all good Men, and that none are Traytors to your Majesty, but Barbarians, Enemies to all civil Society.

Your Majesty's Town of Ludlow hath been in all Ages, renowned for Loyalty to the Crown, and enjoys most ample Priviledges, the Rewards whereof we now beg leave to vow the same ardent Zeal and Fidelity to your Majesty, which were ever shew'd by our Predecessors, to the best of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our common Seal, the first Day of July, in the twentieth year of your Majesty's to his Majesty's

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Corporation of Kendal, in the County of Westmoreland, has been presented to his Majesty by Daniel Wilson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Durham, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Corporation of Kendal in the County of Westmoreland, in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with the highest Transports of Joy, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the late most glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the auspicious Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke, at a time when no less than the Subversion of our most excellent Constitution in Church and State was attempted by some of your Majesty's desperate and traiterous Subjects, instigated to an unnatural Rebellion, and supported therein by the ambitious and perfidious Disturbers of the Tranquillity and Repose of Europe, and inveterate Enemy to your Majesty's Person and the British Constitution.

We cannot sufficiently applaud your Majesty's Wisdom and Paternal Care and Regard for the good and safety of your People, in appointing General, a Prince of the most heroic Valour and military Accomplishments and amiable in all Respects; and we are at a Loss for Words to express to your Majesty our Gratitude for making so wise and happy a Choice.

As the late Victory over the Rebels was, under the Divine Providence, owing to the distinguished Bravery, Conduct, and indefatigable Application of his Royal Highness, the highest Reward will fall short of his Merit for that important Service, performed by him to your Majesty and the Kingdom; whereby our Religion, Laws and Liberty have been secured and preserved; but we are laid under a particular, and the strictest Obligation of expressing our most grateful Acknowledgements, and celebrating his Praise for rescuing our Town from the Flames, by the Celerity of his March after the flying Rebels, who threatened us with Destruction for shewing our Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty; the Defender and Protector of our Religion and Liberty; and it is with Regret we reflect that we were prevented by the Shortness of the Time, and general Hurry and Confusion amongst us, from paying our Respects to our illustrious Deliverer, in a Manner suitable to his most eminent Merit and Dignity during his Stay with us.

We have nothing further to add, than our most ardent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, a Terror to your Enemies, and a Comfort and Support to your Friends, and your loyal Subjects; and that the Nation may never want a Succession of Pro-stant Princes of your Royal House, following your Majesty's shining Example, to reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our common Seal the Day of June, 1746.

The following Address of the General Convention of Royal Burrows in Scotland, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,
YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects,
the General Convention of Royal Burrows in Scotland, with Pleasure embrace this first Op-

Opportunity, at their stated annual Meeting, of expressing the Overflowings of Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Care, in appointing a Royal Commander to animate the Troops, and lead them on to Victory. No sooner did a young Hero of your illustrious House appear at the Head of the Army, than the Rebels, struck with a Pannick, exchanged their vain Hopes of Success for a precipitate Flight, while every true Friend to Religion, Liberty, and their Country, felt inexpressible Joy resulting from the near Prospect of having all that is valuable, as Men and Members of Society, secured to them under the auspicious Reign of the best of Princes.

The inestimable Blessings procured to Great Britain by the happy Revolution, and inviolably maintained by the illustrious Sovereigns of your august House, make your faithful State of Burrows, with double Joy, unite with the general Voice of the Nation, in expressing our most sincere and hearty Congratulations to your sacred Majesty, on the late glorious Victory, gained by his Royal Highness the Duke, over the Pretender's Son and his deluded Followers, who, insensible of the Happiness of a mild Administration, aimed at exchanging Liberty, and a Government by Laws, for Slavery and arbitrary Power.

The happy Effects of this Victory, the Rebellion being now entirely suppress'd, are sensibly felt by the State of Burrows, who suffer'd severely during this unnatural Rebellion; but with Peace and Tranquillity, Trade and Commerce, cannot fail to revive; and while the industrious quietly enjoy the Fruits of their Labour, we are persuaded every loyal Subject will be sensible of your Majesty's Royal and Fatherly Care of this Part of your united Kingdom; and that the State of Burrows will ever look on themselves as bound by the most sacred Ties of Gratitude to support your Majesty to the utmost of their Power against foreign and domestick Foes, till by Divine Assistance, you triumph over both, and not only secure the Trade and Happiness of Great Britain, but prove the Protector of the Protestant Interest and Liberties of Europe.

Sign'd in Presence, and by Appointment of the General Convention of Royal Burrows, Edinburgh, And. Cochrane, Preses.
July 2, 1746.

The following Address of the County of Linlithgow, has been presented to his Majesty by George Dundas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the County of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE the Sheriff, Freeholders, and other Electors of the County of Linlithgow, beg leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the late glorious Success of your Arms against the Raisers of a most wicked, unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion, which under the Blessing of God, by the prudent and wise Measures taken by your Majesty, and the Conduct and Valour of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, is now, we hope, entirely defeated and extinguish'd.

The many and great Blessings these Nations have enjoyed since the Accession of your Royal Family to the Crown, with the general Sense of your Majesty's loyal Subjects of their Happiness under our present Establishment, ought to have deprived the most sanguine of our Enemies of the smallest Hopes of being able to disturb your Majesty's Government; and the Fruitfulness of their late Attack, must now convince the whole World, how vain every Attempt will prove against a British King, whose Throne is established in the Hearts of Subjects, ready at all times to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of his sacred Person and Government, and in the Support of the best of Constitutions.

Such we most humbly assure your Majesty always were, and ever will be the true and sincere Sentiments of our Hearts, arising from an unviolable Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty and your Royal Family; and may the Almighty grant that after a long and happy Reign you may transmit to your Royal Heirs these Virtues which are the Sources of that Happiness we enjoy under your auspicious Government, and which we pray for the Continuance of to our latest Posterity.

Stockholm, July 4, O. S. His Swedish Majesty is entirely recovered of his late Indisposition, and seems at present to be in a better State of Health than he has been for some Years past.

Liege, July 22, N. S. The French invested Charleroy on the 14th Instant, and are extended to Sambreff, Genappe, and Mazy.

Camp of Peer, July 24, N. S. On Friday last, the 22d Instant, N. S. Prince Charles and Count Palsy arrived at the Head Quarters at Falkensworth; the Morning following marched to Peer, where Count Palsy's Corps joined us, consisting of 12 Battalions and 18 Squadrons.

Squadrons, Two thousand five hundred Recruits from Germany have also joined us, and more are daily expected. We halt To-day; To-morrow we march to Hasselt, and from thence towards Namur and Charleroy. The French are still encamped between Louvain and Tirlemont: It is thought, that as we advance, they may take the Camp of Mazy. Count Saxe covers the Siege of Charleroy.

Hague, July 26. Prince Charles of Lorraine has joined the Allied Army with the Austrians from the Rhine. The Allied Army is supposed to be at present between Hasselt and St. Tron, whilst that of France, under the Orders of Marshal Saxe, is reported to extend, in different Corps, from Mazy towards Louvain. The Paris Letters received To-day, at the same Time they mention the Dauphiness's Delivery of a Princess, postpone the French King's Departure for Brabant for six or seven Days. Some Letters mention the Death of the said young Princess. The freshest Advices from the Side of the Poire of the 12th Instant, when the Siege of Platenia was not at all advanced.

Edinburgh, July 12. Yesterday the Earl of Kellie surrendered himself to the Lord Justice Clerk, and was committed Prisoner to the Castle of Edinburgh.
