From Tuesday August 5, to Saturday August 9, 1746.

Petersbourg, July 5.

ON the 3d Instant her Imperial Majesty, accompanied by the Great Duke and Dutchess, with some of the principal Ladies and Officers of the Court, set out for Revel; this Journey was notified to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers on the 2d Instant, but, as in all Probability the Empress will not be long absent, none of the Ambassadors nor Foreign Ministers were asked to accompany her Majesty.

Stockholm, July 22. The Day before Yesterday arrived here Baron Korff, the new Russian Minister to this Court; but as Count Gyllenborg is in the Country for the Recovery of his Health, and Count Tessin at Ulrichsthal, attending on the Prince Successor, as Grand Maître of his Household, the said Minister has not yet had an Audience of his Swedish Majesty. Count Finkenstein, the Prussian Minister at this Court, is appointed to go to that of Petersbourg, where he is to reside in the room of M. Mardefeldt.

Vienna, August 7. This Day a Courier arrived with Letters of the 1st Instant from M. Botta and M. Richecourt, by which it appear'd, that upon General Brown's having been detach'd cross the Po to endeavour to drive the Enemy out of the Milanese, M. de Gages had held so good a Countenance, that the Austrian General had desired to know of the King of Sardinia, whether it was adviseable or not for him to attack the Enemy with a Force very near equal only; whereupon his Sardinian Majesty march'd in the Night, between the 31st past and 1st Instant, at the Head of his own Troops, and was join'd by 16 Austrian Battalions, three Regiments of Hussars, and about 1000 Irregulars, under the Command of General Brown, in order to attack General de Gages, so that the whole Piemontese Army, with the Austrian Troops abovementioned, is at present on this Side of the Po, commanded by the King in Person, while M. de Botta, to reinforce the remaining Austrians in their old Post on the other Side of Placentia, has called over the best Part of the Troops that General Roth had left at Pizzighitone and Cremona, not doubting, as he writes, but to give singly a good Account still of the Spaniards, if by being forced into Placentia, they either attack him, or attempt to escape by the Parmesan.

Camp at Viler, August 6, N.S. The French having formed a Design to carry off a Post which we have at St. André, and for that purpose made a Detachment the Day before Yesterday from their Army, consisting of most of their Hussars and Grassins, supported by a Body of Foot and Dragoons with Cannon, the Whole amounting to 7000 Men; the Generals Baronai and Trips, who had Notice thereof, came up with them upon a little Plain near Perweiss, and attacked them. The French Hussars and Irregulars in Front were immediately dispersed or cut to Pieces, and their Colonel, Senzé, the Lieutenant Colonel, Major, and several inferior Officers taken Prisoners. The Dragoons kept their Ground for some Time; but were at last obliged to give way. The Infantry, which was drawn up behind the Dragoons, in a Square with Cannon, maintain'd their Post till our Men received a Reinforcement of some Pandours, and three free Companies, which entirely broke and routed them. Upon this Occasion we have taken 15 or 16 French Officers, and made 400 private Men Prisoners. Most of the Officers are wounded. Yesterday several Detachments from our Army took Possession of the Wood of Petit Lez, and routed a Body of 100 French Horse between that Wood and Gemblours. The Enemy have advanced three Brigades upon our Left Flank near Bossiers, and are erecting Batteries there. Our Artillery Horses and Baggage are arrived.

Camp at Viler, August 7, N.S. Our Left and the Right of the Enemy are not an English Mile distant, but there is a very bad and difficult Piece of Ground, impracticable for the most Part, between us. The Enemy have blown up the Bridge at le Masz, broke the Bridges above and below it, and raised Batteries at every fordable Pass. Their Army is said to be composed of 174 Battalions, and 265 Squadrons, besides heavy Artillery in Plenty. The Right of the Enemy's Camp Yesterday Afternoon was within Musket Shot of the River Orneau at Houné, and extends to Couroy, Grand Manilz and so to the Cinq Estoiles near Sart-a-Walherin. The Left of our Camp, since the seven Battalions joined us from Namur, is close to the Wood of Millemont, and extends to the Right of St Denis toward Dhuy, leaving the Castle of Ostin in our Rear.

Camp at Viler, August 8, N.S. Yesterday the Enemy removed 2000 Paces backwards, passed the Sambre with a considerable Corps, and appear'd at St. Girard.

Paris, August 8. The King has conferred the Archbishoprick of Paris upon M. Beaumont, Archbishop of Vienne.

Copenhagen, August 9, N.S. On the 6th Instant, about Five in the Morning, after a lingering consumptive Illness, his Danish Majesty Chrithan the Vith, departed this Life at Hirschholm, in the 47th Year of his Age, and in the Sixteenth of his Reign. The same Day his Successor Frederick the Vth, was proclaimed in the usual Manner, and entered upon the Government. This young King has already shewn such evident Tokens of an extraordinary Capacity, and of a truly Royal Disposition, as justly raise the greatest Hopes and Expectations, and very much alleviate the Loss of our late King, who, for his Humanity, Generosity and extensive Goodness, certainly deserved to be ranked among the best of Princes.

Amsterdam, August 12. We have just received the News of the Death of the King of Denmark, which happen'd on the 6th Instant, N. S.

Hague, August 12, N. S. On the 7th Instant the Armies on the Orneau remained in their old Position; but the French were said to be hard at Work in improving their Situation, both by Artillery and Retrenchments. We hear from Brussels, that on Monday last 135 Carriages, full of wounded Men, were conducted thither from the French Army. The Prince of Waldeck has drawn a third Battalion out of Maestricht. It has, within this Day or two, been reported here, that the Duke of Modena and the Infant Don Philip were both retired to Venice.

Edinburgh, Aug. 2. By the latest Intelligence from Arisaig, dated the 23d of July, we are well assured that the Pretender's Son continues there, and is inclosed on all Sides, and it was believed that Lochiel, and some of the Highland Chiefs were likewise within the Lines. General Campbell was then at Applecrofs Bay, and Colonel Campbell at Lochmahach; Old Meinnen and the Priest, Lochiel's Brother, are taken; as also Rhonald M'Donald, Brother to Kenloch Moidart. Commodore Smith was at Tobermorey, and was joined on the 22d by three Ships of War from the Northland; the Glasgow Man of War had, on the Western Coast, taken a Brigantine with 13 Officers on Board, who have since the 1st of June been trying to carry off the Pretender's Son. Yesterday Francis Anderson and John Tithie were convicted, before the Court of Justiciary, of the Murder of John Catanach, near Glames, (whom they suspected to have given some Informations to the Government) and condemned to be hanged in Chains, the one between Leith and Edinburgh, and the other at Forfar, near to the Place where the Crime was committed. This Day Alexander M'Donald of Kingsborrow, who was taken up for having received and entertained the Pretender's Son at his House in Skye, was sent hither a Prisoner by the Earl of Albemarle, under a Guard of the Duke of Kingston's Horse, and committed to the Castle of Edinburgh. And this Day all the Prisoners from Aberdeen were brought hither and lodg'd in the Goal of the Cannongate. The Transports, with the three Battalions, will, it is thought, be ready to sail on Monday Evening or Tuesday Morning for Flanders.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, August 5, 1746.
Orders were issued for the Court going into Mourning on Sunday next, the 10th Instant, for the late King of Spain, and for the late Dauphiness of France.

General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the West Mail from Hartford Bridge to Stains, was this Morning, between the Hours of Twelve and One, attacked on the Highway, near a Place called the Hiber Black Water, in the County of Surry, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the following Bags, viz. Plymouth, Truro, St. Collumb, Bodmin, Camelford, Oakhampton, Barnstable, Ashburton, Totness, Dartmouth, Launceston, Crewkerne, Ilminster, Axminster, Lyme, Chard, Bridport, Taunton, Wellington, Minehead, Shaftsbury, Weymouth, Dorchester, Blandford, Salisbury, Wimborn, Christchurch, Pool, Cranbourn, Fordingbridge, and Ringwood: The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a lusty Man, and had on a brown-colour'd loose Horseman's Coat, and rode on a Bay Horse, with a bald Face, and his off Legs white, and appears to have made his Way towards Weybridge, or Cobham. This is therefore to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplish in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

His Majesty having been most graciously pleased, in the Desire of sundry of the Nobility, Gentry, and Merchants of Great Britain, to grant them the said Royal Charter, incorporating them into a Body Politick, for the more effectually promoting the Linnen Manufacture of the Kingdom, by the Name and Stile of The British Linnen Company; and having appointed for their first and immediate Governors and Directors, his Grace Archibald Duke of Argyll, Governour; the Right Honourable Andrew Fletcher, Esq; Lord Justice Clerk, Deputy Governour; Patrick Craufurd and William Bell-fours, Esqrs. Messrs. John Coult, Thomas Allan, and Alexander Shairp, Merchants in Edinburgh, Directors. They therefore in Consequence of the Powers vested in them by the said Charter give Notice, that a General Meeting of all those who have agreed to become Proprietors, will be held at the House of Ebenezer McCulloch, Merchant in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 17th Day of September next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon.

Bank of England, August 9, 1746.

The Possessors of Receipts for the Call of 10 l. per Cent. upon Bank Stock, are desired to bring them to the Transfer Office on or before the 5th Day of September, in order to their being made into Stock, otherwise a Warrant for the Dividend, which will be due to such Persons at Michaelmas next, cannot be made thereon.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That they have made an Agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchequer Bills, made forth, or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament made for that purpose now in force, for one Year computed from the 24th Day of July 1746, to the 25th Day of July 1747.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

Affurance Office, Serjeants Inn, Fleet-street, August 9, 1746.
