

than the VIth, departed this Life at Hirschholm, in the 47th Year of his Age, and in the Sixteenth of his Reign. The same Day his Successor Frederick the Vth, was proclaimed in the usual Manner, and entered upon the Government. This young King has already shewn such evident Tokens of an extraordinary Capacity, and of a truly Royal Disposition, as justly raise the greatest Hopes and Expectations, and very much alleviate the Loss of our late King, who, for his Humanity, Generosity and extensive Goodness, certainly deserved to be ranked among the best of Princes.

Amsterdam, August 12. We have just received the News of the Death of the King of Denmark, which happen'd on the 6th Instant, N. S.

Hague, August 12, N. S. On the 7th Instant the Armies on the Orneau remained in their old Position; but the French were said to be hard at Work in improving their Situation, both by Artillery and Retrenchments. We hear from Brussels, that on Monday last 135 Carriages, full of wounded Men, were conducted thither from the French Army. The Prince of Waldeck has drawn a third Battalion out of Maestricht. It has, within this Day or two, been reported here, that the Duke of Modena and the Infant Don Philip were both retired to Venice.

Edinburgh, Aug. 2. By the latest Intelligence from Arisaig, dated the 23d of July, we are well assured that the Pretender's Son continues there, and is inclosed on all Sides, and it was believed that Lochiel, and some of the Highland Chiefs were likewise within the Lines. General Campbell was then at Applecrofs Bay, and Colonel Campbell at Lochmahach; Old Meinnen and the Priest, Lochiel's Brother, are taken; as also Rhonald M'Donald, Brother to Kenloch Moidart. Commodore Smith was at Tobermorey, and was joined on the 22d by three Ships of War from the Northland; the Glasgow Man of War had, on the Western Coast, taken a Brigantine with 13 Officers on Board, who have since the 1st of June been trying to carry off the Pretender's Son. Yesterday Francis Anderson and John Trithie were convicted, before the Court of Justiciary, of the Murder of John Catanach, near Glames, (whom they suspected to have given some Informations to the Government) and condemned to be hanged in Chains, the one between Leith and Edinburgh, and the other at Forfar, near to the Place where the Crime was committed. This Day Alexander M'Donald of Kingsborrow, who was taken up for having received and entertained the Pretender's Son at his House in Skye, was sent hither a Prisoner by the Earl of Albemarle, under a Guard of the Duke of Kingston's Horse, and committed to the Castle of Edinburgh. And this Day all the Prisoners from Aberdeen were brought hither and lodg'd in the Goal of the Cannongate. The Transports, with the three Battalions, will, it is thought, be ready to sail on Monday Evening or Tuesday Morning for Flanders.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, August 5, 1746.
 Orders were issued for the Court going into Mourning on Sunday next, the 10th Instant, for the late King of Spain, and for the late Dauphiness of France.

The Men to wear Black full trimm'd, black Swords and Buckles, fring'd or plain Linnen.
 *The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet, fring'd or plain Linnen, black and white Fans, and white Gloves.

Midland

Lord e 2 Her
 Mr. J.

Warwick, Saturday August 30, at W 1 k
City of Coventry, Tuesday September 2, at the City of Coventry.

Leicester, The same Day, at the Castle of Leicester.

Borough of Leicester, Wednesday September 3;
 at the Borough of Leicester.

Derby, Thursday September 4, at Derby.

Nottingham, Monday September 8, at Notting- ham.

Town of Nottingham, Tuesday September 9
 at the Town of Nottingham.

Lincoln, Wednesday September 10, at the Castle of Lincoln.

City of Lincoln, The same Day at the City of Lincoln.

Rutland, Saturday September 13, at Oakham,
Northampton, The same Day at Northampton.

London, August 4, 1746.

General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the West Mail from Hartford Bridge to Stains, was this Morning, between the Hours of Twelve and One, attacked on the Highway, near a Place called the Hiber Black Water, in the County of Surry, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the following Bags, wize Plymouth, Truro, St. Collumb, Bodmin, Camelford, Oakhampton, Barnstable, Ashburton, Totness, Dartmouth, Launceston, Crewkerne, Ilminster, Axminster, Lyme, Chard, Bridport, Taunton, Wellington, Minehead, Shaftsbury, Weymouth, Dorchester, Blandford, Salisbury, Wimborn, Christ church, Pool, Cranbourn, Fordingbridge, and Ringwood: The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a lusty Man, and had on a brown-colour'd loose Horseman's Coat, and rode on a Bay Horse, with a bald Face, and his off Legs white, and appears to have made his Way towards Weybridge, or Cobham. This is therefore to give Notice, that whosoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplish in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
 George Shelvocke, Secretary.

His Majesty having been most graciously pleased, in the Desire of sundry of the Nobility, Gentry, and Merchants of Great Britain, to grant them the said Royal Charter, incorporating them into a Body Politick, for the more effectually promoting the Linnen Manufacture of the Kingdom, by the Name and Stile of The British Linnen Company; and having appointed for their first and immediate Governors and Directors, his Grace Archibald Duke of Argyll, Governour; the Right Honourable Andrew Fletcher, Esq; Lord Justice Clerk, Deputy Governour; Patrick Craufurd and William Bell-fords, Esqrs. Messrs. John Coult, Thomas Allan, and Alexander Shairp, Merchants in Edinburgh, Directors: They therefore in Consequence of the Powers vested in