Kensington, September 13.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Nottingham, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant of the said County, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person, with our sincerest Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and glorious Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke, in the Suppression of the late desperate and unprovoked Attempt to destroy our most excellent Constitution in Church and State.

This happy Event appears to us in the strongest Light, when we are led by the View of the general Calamities occasioned by the Incurſion of those audacious Disturbers of the publick Peace, to the dismal Prospect of the Loss of our Laws, Liberties and Religion, Blessings the most valuable to Britons, and which we hope long to enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Petersbourg, Aug. 12. On Sunday last Baron Nieuhaus, the Bavarian Minister, had his Audience of Leave of the Empress, and is to set out very soon for his Court. Baron Mardefeldt, the Prussian Minister, was likewise to have taken his Leave of her Imperial Majesty, on Sunday last, but has been prevented by a Fit of the Gout.

From the Sardinian Camp at Cairo, Aug 31. N:St The Army, after having halted at Acqui the 26th and 27th, marched from thence on the 28th in the Morning, and arrived here in four Marches, having passed thro' Bassagno, Spingno and Aldelgo. The Marquis de Botta having required six Pieces of Cannon more, 32 Pound Ball, to be employed in the Siege of Gavi, his Majesty immediately granted them, and they were to set out from Alexandria on the 29th. The four first Pieces of the same Calibre, and the 10 Mortars, which were before sent to him, arrived at Novi on the 27th. The Chevalier Radiati, whom the King had sent to the Imperial Army to be informed of their Motions, returned hither Yesterday. He reports that that Army had begun to move on the 29th, divided into several Corps: The first, consisting of 19 Battalions, commanded by Count Brown, had taken the Rout of St. Christophoro, to go from thence to the Bochetta, to dislodge a Detachment of near 1000 Men, which the Enemy has still there; The second, of 13 Battalions, under the Command of M. Novati, marched to his Left by the Way of Saraval to second him: And the third, of six Battalions, with M. Gorani at their Head, is advanced thro' Isola, to Arbisola: This last Column is detached, and goes directly to Bisegno. Prince Piccolomini, who commands the Siege of Gavi, invested that Place on the 28th with 12 Battalions, and on the 29th he had already fired some Pieces of Cannon and Mortars. M. de Botta, who is not very well, remains at Novi with one Battalion and two Regiments of Dragoons. Advices from Final assure us, that Part of the Spanish Cavalry, with some Infantry, had passed thro' there; that M. Maulebois was at Lezzo, encamped between Savona and Vado with six French Battalions, and one in the Borough of Savona: They have besides, some Posts, facing our Mountain of Monterrat. The Infant Don Philip, who was thought to be at Savona, had embarked at St. Pierre d'Arepa, but perceiving some English Ships, was obliged to disembark at Sestri, where he is at present, and is to go from thence incognito by Land.

Cairo, Sept. 2, N. S. This Day at Noon an Officer arrived here, dispatched by the Marquis de Botta to the King, with the agreeable News, that Yesterday Morning the 1st Instant, Count Brown having joined General Novati's Corps, had attacked the Post of the Bochetta, defended by 24 Companies of Grenadiers, and as many Picquets; that, after some Hours Resistance the Enemy had been driven from three Redoubts, and were entirely dispersed, leaving four Pieces of Cannon Six-pounders to the Imperial perial Troops. General Brown having made himself Master of the Bochetta, immediately pushed forward, but at about a Leagues Distance from thence, the Enemy assembled, and a smart Battle ensued, to the Advantage of the Imperialists, who marched directly for Ponte Decimo, where they enter'd the same Evening. There is at present a Battery of 22 Pieces of Cannon and eight Mortars before Gavi, which make a continual Fire. The Army, which has halted here two Days, the Troops being fatigued by the four last Marches, will be put in Motion immediately. Baron Leutrum has been ordered to reconnoitre the Posts before us, and will return this Evening.

Munich, Sept. 5. The exact Day of the Elector's leaving Dresden is not yet known, but Count Konigsfeld went to his Country Seat near Ratisbon Yesterday, in order to receive his Electoral Highness, who will lay one Night at his House in his Return.

Munich, Sept. 8. The Prince of Hilburgshausen's Regiment will pass through this Town To-morrow in its Way to Donawert, and the second Division will begin to march from thence on the 18th. Letters dated at Acqui the 26th of August, N. S. inform us, that the King of Sardinia, who arrived there the Day before, intended to march with his Army, on the 27th, to Savona, which would take up six Days, whilst the Marquis de Botta and General Brown were employed in the Siege of Gavi. Another Letter from Turin of the 27th says, that the Prince of Lichtenstein, who has hitherto remained sick at Colorno, was so far recovered, as to be able to rejoin the Army and resume his Command.

Copenhagen, Sept. 10, N. S. This Afternoon the Court comes to Christiansberg, and To-morrow the Mourning for the late King begins in Town.

Berlin, Sept. 10, N. S. The King of Prussia is expected in Town on Wednesday the 14th Instant, and it is said that his Majesty proposes to stay here and at Charlottenburg about fourteen Days, and afterwards to take a Journey into Prussia.

Liege, Sept. 13, N. S. The Allied Army extends from the Chartreuse of Liege to Viset, their Head Quarters are at Bombay. Marshal Saxe's Quarters are at Betto, distant a quarter of a League from Tongres, and the Troops under his Command cover the Ground from the Citadel of that Place to near Bilsen. The Trenches before Namur were opened upon the 11th Instant, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning. The Prince de Clermont has the Direction of the Siege, and has under him Mess. Segur, Lowendahl, l'Autrec, and Vellemur, with 61 Battalions and 40 Squadrons. We have an Account this Morning, that upon the 11th the French began to fire upon the Town from some Batteries erected on the Side of the Iron Gate, that their Firing was very terrible and continual, and that they had destroyed some Caserns.

Maastricht, Sept. 14, N. S. Yesterday the advanced Body of our Army passed through this Town in order to cover the Passage of the Meuse, which was effected last Night upon the Bridges which had been thrown over that River for that Purpose. The Artillery and Baggage are following this Day.

Hague, Sept. 13, N. S. By the freshest Advices, our Army seemed to be still lying on the East Side of the Meuse, near Dalem, except a Detachment which is said to have passed that River near Viset, under the Command of General Trips. Marshal Saxe is now said to have sent Detachments lower down that River, which have posted themselves at Stockem and Masleyk. Namur, it is agreed on all Hands, is invested. Brigadier General Houghton, with the three Regiments under his Command, proposed to begin his March for the Allied Army the Day after To-morrow. There are Letters just arrived of the 10th Instant from the Army, which mention our Army's being then encamped with its Right at Eesden upon the Meuse, and its Left at Hous near Dalem, whilst the main Army of the Enemy extended along the Jaire, from Tongres down towards Maastricht.

Hague, Sept. 16, N. S. By Letters from Maastricht of the 14th Instant we learn, that our whole Army was that Morning actually repassing the Meuse in four Columns; one just above the Town at St. Pierre; one through the Town; one just below it at Leumel; and the fourth a little lower at Smeermaes. It was to encamp that Evening at Lonaken. The main Army of the French lay on the 13th between Bilsen and Liege, with its Center and Head Quarters at Tongres.

Hague, Sept. 18, N. S. This Day Letters are arrived from the Allied Army, dated the 16th Instant, which mention the Retreat of the French Army, upon hearing that the Allies had repassed the Meuse. We have just received the following Account from Mantua.

Mantua, Sept. 7, N. S. This Moment Prince Lowenstein is arrived here from the Army, in his Way to Vienna, with the agreeable News of the Surrender of the City of Genoa at Discretion. All the Conditions the Senate asked of her Imperial Majesty, were, To preserve the Liberties of the City, and that no Troops should be sent into the Town. That if they could obtain these Demands, they would engage to put into her Majesty's Hands all the Fortresses belonging to the Republick, and to give up every Thing else which should be demanded of them; that in case the Empress desired the City to be delivered up, the Senate were ready to submit thereto. In all Appearance, one of the City Gates will be secured by way of Precaution. The Enemy having abandoned the Posts of St. Pierre d'Arca, vast Magazines of all Sorts were found there.
