From Saturday November 8, to Tuesday November 11, 1746.

Hague, November 15, N. S.

WE hear from Cadiz, that several Settees had been hired there by the Intendant, to carry to the Mediterranean 500 Men, that were to be draughted out of the Troops of that Garrison, though it only consisted of four Battalions, and they far from compleat; and that the same Vessels were to call at Ceuta, in their Way, to take on board likewise another Draught from that Garrison. By Advices from Carthagená, all the Troops there are marched for Catalonia, and the Inhabitants mounted Guard, and did Duty in their room. M. Navarro, who was Commander in Chief of the Spanish Squadron at Carthagená, had been disgraced, and succeeded by M. d'Anteil, a Frenchman, who was the Rear-Admiral under him. Letters from Madrid mention, that it was reported that a Resolution had been taken by the Court to reinforce their Army in Italy, by ordering the Troops that were in the Principality of Catalonia, to march thither, and that some Battalions were to be drawn off from Majorca and other Places, for the same Purpose.

Whitehall, November 11.

This Day his Majesty, his Royal Highness the Duke, and the rest of the Royal Family, came from Kensington to St. James's, to reside there during the Winter.

[Price Two-pence.]

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 11.

His Majesty being come this Morning to St. James's, the Birth-Day will be kept on Thursday next the 13th Instant.

Whitehall, November 7, 1746.

Whereas on Saturday the 25th of October, about Seven o'Clock at Night, a Fire broke out at a Farm belonging to Edward Clark, Esq; at Milton, in the County of Wilts, which entirely consumed a Barn, Stables, with all the Horses, and several Ricks of Wheat, Oats, and Barley: And whereas a Fire broke out at the same Place on the Thursday Morning following, which entirely consumed another Barn, Stables, and Appurtenances, together with several Ricks of Corn, and all the remaining Stock of the said Farm: And whereas there is great Reason to believe that the said Houses, &c. were maliciously set on Fire; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; as also a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
