From Saturday January 10, to Tuesday January 13, 1746.

Stockholm, December 23, O. S.

ON Thursday last, the 18th Instant, being the Empress of Russia's Birth Day, his Excellency Baron Korff, the Russian Ambassador, gave a splendid Dinner on that Occasion, at which were present most of the Senators, several of the great Officers of the Crown, and all the foreign Ministers.

Copenhagen, Jan. 3, N. S. Yesterday the King of Denmark appeared in the Circle, and dined in Publick, as usual, for the first Time since his Indisposition, which indeed was short, but so violent while it lasted, as to occasion a general Alarm and Uneasiness.

Hambourg, Jan. 6. Letters from Marseilles of the 18th of December mention, that Part of the Spanish Troops, without any Specification of their Numbers, were then embarking off from thence, but that their Destination was not known.

Hambourg, Jan. 10, N. S. Captain Rowzier, in his Britannick Majesty's Sloop the Swallow, who convoyed into this River the Trade from Hull, and was detained here upwards of four Weeks by contrary Winds, put to Sea last Friday on his Return to England.

The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, being resolved to Lease out their two Estates, called Consets, in the Island of Barbados; and being perfectly free of all Engagements, and other Treaties relating to the same, have directed Copies of the Particulars of the said Estates, to be left at Lloyd's Coffee-house in Lombard-street. And all Gentlemen inclined to treat for the same, are desired to leave their Proposals in Writing at the said Coffee-house, sealed up, and directed to Dr. Bearcroft, Secretary of the said Society: And a Committee is appointed to receive, and open the same, who are not to communicate the several Persons Biddings to any one whatsoever.

Whitehall, December 18, 1746.

It having been represented to his Majesty, That on the Twentieth Day of November last, a Fire broke out in the Thatch on the Top of the House of William Fowler, at Bampton in the County of Oxford, whereby the same was entirely consumed, as also a large Rick of Beans; and there being great Reason to suspect, that the said House was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, several Fires having happened within a few Years past, in the said Town. His Majesty, for the better Discovery, and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons, concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Earl of Coventry doth hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by Samuel Child, Esq; and Company, on the Conviction of any of the said Offenders.

William Backwell, for Sam. Child, Esq; Self and Co.

London, December 4, 1746.

General Post-Office.

Whereas Vincent Matthews, alias John Saffary, alias William Morris, Esq; alias Thompson, is charged with the Robbery of his Majesty's West Mail upon the 8th of February 1743. He is described to be

[Price Two-pence.]

A lean Man, about five Foot seven Inches high, with a thin long Visage, of a fresh Complexion, somewhat freckled about the Temples, and somewhat pitted with the Small-Pox, and with a longish Nose, with a Ring in the Middle of it. He is farther described to be somewhat round-shoulder'd, with a slender hollow Back, with thin Legs and thick Ankle Bones, and is said to be of a mean Capacity, and writes a very bad Hand, and spells very ill; he is about Thirty-five Years of Age, and is said to have a small white Hand, to be slow of Speech, and of an effeminate Voice, and to stammer a little when he speaks. He was formerly a Hackney-Coachman, belonging to the White Hart Yard, and afterwards kept the White Hart Inn in Brook's Market, which he quitted about four Years ago; after that he lived in Theobald's Row, and pretended to be a Dealer in Meat, but, as is said, rode in a Gang of Smuglers, and since that he some Time lived at Bedford; and lastly he lived as a Person of Figure and Fortune in and near the City of York, and particularly at two Houses, or Places called Acomb and Middlethorp, where he went by the Name and Title of William Morris, Esq.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whatever Person or Persons shall, now, or at any Time hereafter, apprehend the said Vincent Matthews, alias John Saffary, alias William Morris, Esq; alias Thompson, so that he be brought to Justice, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds on the Conviction of the said Vincent Matthews for the said Offence, over and above what is allowed by Act of Parliament for the apprehending of Highwaymen. The same Reward and Encouragement is offered to any Person or Persons who may have been an Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Robbery, who will moreover be intitled to his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Navy-Office, Jan. 9, 1746.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, That there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay the Interest due on the 31st of December last, on Navy and Transport Bills, register'd between the First of October 1745, and the Thirtieth of June 1746, that all Persons possessed of such Bills, may at any Time carry them to the Treasurer's Office in Broad-street, and receive the Interest due thereon, and have the same wrote off upon the Bills.

Victualling-Office, Jan. 12, 1746.
