Pumb. 8610.-

The London Gazette.

Published by Authozity.

From Tuelday January 27, to Saturday January 31, 1746.

a French Privateer off of Scarborough, called La Marianne of Calais, of Ten Carriage and Six Swivel Guns, and Eighty Men, after Naples, January 10, N. S. N the 4th Instant the Canons Giordano and Ruggiero, departed from this City for Rome, in Consequence of the Notification they had received from the ourt to leave this Kingdom, as Ministers of the Tribunal of the Inquisition establish'd by the Cardinal Archbishop, repugnant to the King's Jurisdiction. The same Day arrived here from Marseilles the Marquis Tripuzzi, Major General of the King of Spain's Forces, who it is faid is to command the ten Battalions of Spanish Troops, Part of which are already arrived from the Coafts of Spain and Provence in this Kingdom. On the 5th, 6th, and 9th Inftant anchored in this Port from Marfeilles and the Coast of Provence, nine Transport Vessels, four of which had on board 200 mounted Dragoons out of the Regiments of Horfe Tarragona and Rouffillon, and the other five about 1000 Men out of the Spanish Regiments of Foot, Soria and la Reine.

Rome, Jan. 14, N. S. On the 9th Instant, the new Venetian Ambassadour had his first private Audience of the Pope, to which he was introduced by the Secretary of State. On the 10th Cardinal Alexander Albani had a long private Audience of the Pope, to communicate to him the Commissions he had received from the Court of Vienna. Fresh Disagreements have lately arifen between this Court and that of Naples, on the Prohibition which the latter has caused to be notified to the Archbishops and Bishops of the two Sicilies, to suppress their Tribunals of Inquisition, and not to chastile, for the future, any Persons, either Ecclesiastical | Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover bis, or Secular, without the Knowledge and Approbation of the Government.

an Engagement of an Hour; in which the Privateer had Eight Men killed, and Fifteen wounded. The Granado did not lofe a Man, but received great Damage in her Sails and Rigging; and has brought her Prize into the Humber, which had three Ranfomers on board, when taken.

On the z5th Instant, his Majesty's Ship the Grand Turk, commanded by Captain Kerly, cruizing between the Lizard and Scilly, fell in with the Tavignon, a Privateer of St. Maloes, of 24 Guns, and 120 Men, and began to engage her about One o'Clock; the Privateer, after two or three Broadfides, was for making off, but her Rigging and Sails being much fhatter'd, and finding the could not get away the ftruck about Four, and is brought into Plymouth. The Privateer had one Man kill'd, and feveral wounded; and the Grand Turk had not a Man hurt.

Whitehall, January 26, 1746-7. Whereas an the 7th Instant, Penyston Powney, Elg; received an anonymous Letter, directed to him at Maidenhead, in Berks, requiring him, without fail, to bring, himself, Thirty Guineas, to the End of Oldsfield, betwixt the Time of Sending the said Letter, and Six of the Clock on the Tuesday Night following, and to lay the same, under a Turf, in a Hule that had been dug in the Ground; and threatning Milchief to the said Mr. Powney, in Case of Resulal; His Majefty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious her or their Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, so as be, she, or they, may be apprehended and convoisted HOLLES NEWCASTLĘ, thereof. And as a fariber Encouragement. I do bereby promile a Reward of Thirty Pounds to any Person making fuch Discovery as aforefaid, to be paid upon Conwithin fibe Offender or Offinders. Penyston Powney.

Admiralty Office, January 31. On the 21st Instant, His Majesty's Sloop the Granado, commanded by Captain Evans, took

[Price Two-pence.]