

London, December 4, 1746.
General Post-Office.

Whereas Vincent Matthews, alias John Saffary, alias William Morris, Esq; alias Thompson, is charged with the Robbery of his Majesty's West Mail upon the 8th of February 1743. He is described to be a lean Man, about five Foot seven Inches high, with a thin long Visage, of a fresh Complexion, somewhat freckled about the Temples, and somewhat pitted with the Small-Pox, and with a longish Nose, with a Rising in the Middle of it. He is farther described to be somewhat round-shoulder'd, with a slender hollow Back, with thin Legs and thick Ankle Bones, and is said to be of a mean Capacity, and writes a very bad Hand, and spells very ill; he is about Thirty-five Years of Age, and is said to have a small white Hand, to be slow of Speech, and of an effeminate Voice, and to stammer a little when he speaks. He was formerly a Hackney-Coachman, belonging to the White Hart Yard, and afterwards kept the White Hart Inn in Brook's Market, which he quitted about four Years ago; after that he lived in Theobald's-Row, and pretended to be a Dealer in Meal, but, as is said, rode in a Gang of Smuglers, and since that he some Time lived at Bedford; and lastly he lived as a Person of Figure and Fortune in and near the City of York, and particularly at two Houses, or Places called Acomb and Middlethorp, where he went by the Name and Title of William Morris, Esq.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whatever Person or Persons shall, now, or at any Time hereafter, apprehend the said Vincent Matthews, alias John Saffary, alias William Morris, Esq; alias Thompson, so that he be brought to Justice, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds on the Conviction of the said Vincent Matthews for the said Offence, over and above what is allowed by Act of Parliament for the apprehending of Highwaymen. The same Reward and Encouragement is offered to any Person or Persons who may have been an Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Robbery, who will moreover be intitled to his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, Jan. 28, 1746.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy, give Notice, That on Wednesday the 29th of April next, in the Forenoon, they shall be ready to treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to contract for the Victualling such of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels as shall arrive at Leghorn and be in Want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen, by applying to his Majesty's Consul at Leghorn, and at the Secretary's Office, at the Victualling Office, London.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Kinsale, that the Residue of the Prize Money due to them on account of the Judith, taken by the said Ship and Hind Sloop, (exclusive of what may arise from the Sale of the Cannon taken in the said Prize) will be paid on Friday the 6th of February next, at the Three Tuns in Crutched Fryars; and that such Shares as are not then demanded, may be received at the same Place on the first Friday in every Month for three Years to come.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Kennington, who were on board at the Taking the Postilion of Alicant, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the said Prize at Mrs. Widons, the Fountain Tavern in Plymonth, on Wednesday the 11th of March next. The Shares of such as remain undemanded, will be paid at the same Place the second Wednesday in every Month for three Years.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Sheerness, when commanded by Lucius O Brion, Esq; (and who were on board at the retaking the Hazard Sloop of War, alias Prince Charles, and the Providence Snow) that the Prize-Money due to them on Account of said Ships, will be paid on Saturday the 28th of February, at the Old South-Sea House, Broad-street; and that such Shares as are not then demanded, may be received at the same Place on the last Saturday in every Month for three Years to come.
