

Hague, April 11, N. S. By Letters from Paris of the 7th, we have the following Particulars of the Embarkation from the French Ports in the Mediterranean for Genoa. Eleven Transports were taken by the English Men of War, and sent up to Villa Franca, the 21st and 22d of last Month, 14 more were run into the Harbour of Monaco, two of which were closely pursued by an English Man of War; three Ships with Spanish Troops were got into Agay, and two at Antibes, waiting there for M. de Las Minas's farther Orders. M. Taubin, having with him ten Transports with Spanish Troops, was still missing. Advices from Brussels say, that the Troops quartered about Ath and Alost are to march in a few Days; and that those that are in the Neighbourhood of Courtray are immediately to follow them. The French are putting great Quantities of all the Necessaries for a Siege in Boats upon the Canal at Brussels: A Train of heavy Artillery, that arrived from Brussels the 8th Instant, is likewise to be embarked. Count Lowendahl is not to return to Namur, as was said; he is to continue with the Marshal de Saxe. M. de Belleisle is arrived at Versailles, and it is said that he is soon to return to the Army. Count de Clermont is gone to take upon him the Command of the Corps said to be assembled near Sedan. The latest Letters from Milan arrived at Paris, and the News from the Mediterranean, increased their Fears for Genoa.
