By the Lords Justices and Council of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

George Armagh. Newport, C.

W Hereas upon Information to his Majesty, That the Plague hath broke out at Santa Cruz, and other Ports and Places in West Barbary, his Majesty has been pleased, by his Order in Council bearing Date the 20th Day of June instant, to require all Ships coming into any of the Ports of Great Britain, either from Santa Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary, to perform a Quarantine of Forty Days :

And whereas it is of the utmost Importance to prevent the Infection being brought by Ships or Vessels coming from thence into the Ports of this Kingdom ;

We the Lords Justices and Council do think fit, hereby to order and direct, That all Ships and Vessels already arrived and not yet unladen, and all Ships and Vessels which shall hereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom, from the Port of Santa Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary on the Atlantick Ocean, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, which shall be reckoned and commence from the Day each Ship or Vessel shall come to anchor in the Place appointed for performing such Quarantine, and not before.

That the Place for performing Quarantine by such Ships and Vessels, bound to any Port between Miffen-Head and the Tuskard, be the Bay of Baltimore. And for such Ships and Vessels as shall be bound for any Port between Tuskard and Rathlin, be Lough Learn and the Bay of Carlingford, near Killowen Point, opposite the Town of Carlingford. And for such Ships and Vessels as shall be bound for any Port between Rathlin and Torry-Island, be Ballymastoker Bay or Red Castle Road, near Londonderry. And for such Ships and Vessels as shall be bound to any Port between Torry-Island and Black-Sod Bay, be the Harbour of Killybeggs. And for such Ships and Vessels as shall be bound to any Port between Black-Sod Bay and Loop-Head, be Clew-Bay (otherwise called) the Bay of Burrishowle. And for such Ships and Vessels as shall be bound to any Port between Loop-Head and Miffen-Head, be Scattery Road, in the River of Limerick.

That until and during the Time for making such Quarantine, no Person coming, or Goods imported in any such Ship or Vessel, shall come on Shore, or be landed in any Place within this Kingdom, other than as aforesaid.

That whatsoever Ship, Vessel, or Person shall receive any Men or Goods, from on board any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine, shall be compelled to perform the like Quarantine.

And we likewise further order and direct, that the Captains of every of his Majesty's Ships of War attending the Service of this Kingdom, who shall meet any such Ship or Vessel coming to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, shall take due Care to prevent the Landing any Goods, Seamen, or Passengers, from on Board the same, until they shall be put under the Direction of the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue.

And we do hereby order and direct the Commissioners and other Officers of his Majesty's Revenue, to use their utmost Diligence and Care that the Quarantine herein before directed be duly performed.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command the Commanders of his Majesty's Ships of War attending the Service of this Kingdom, as likewise the Commanders of his Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coast, and all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, and other Officers and Ministers of Justice, to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of the Revenue and Customs, and to all other Persons that shall be concerned in stopping Ships coming from the Port of Santa Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary upon the Atlantick Ocean, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for, and obliging them to perform their Quarantine, as aforesaid.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the 26th Day of June, 1747.

C. Dublin, Ar. Cashell, Granard, Southwell, Hen. Singleton; John Bowes, Lu. Gardiner.
God save the King.
