War-Office, July 10, 1747.

This is to give Notice, that his Majesty hath been pleased, by an Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the King's most Gracious, General, and Free Pardon, passed the last Session of Parliament, to pardon all such Persons who had, since the 25th of December 1743, deserted from his Majesty's Land Service, and shall, on or before the 1st Day of November next, return to his Majesty's Service in the Regiment, Troop or Company to which they did belong at the respective Times of such Desertion.

General Post Office, London, July 10, 1747.

Whereas William Bibbie and Thomas Bibbie, the two Persons who were confined in his Majesty's Goal of Newgate for the Robbery of the Chester Mail on the 22d Day of April last, did late last Night, or very early this Morning, break the said Goal and make their Escape, in Company with two other Persons, who were likewise Prisoners in the said Goal for Capital Offences:

This is therefore to give Notice, that whoever shall retake the said William Bibbie and Thomas Bibbie, or either of them, and bring them, or either of them, back to his Majesty's said Goal of Newgate, or any other of his Majesty's Goals or Places of safe Custody, so that they, or either of them, be brought to Justice for the said Offence, such Person or Persons will be intitled to a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid upon the retaking the said William Bibbie and Thomas Bibbie, or either of them, and securing them, or either of them, in his Majesty's said Goal of Newgate, or any other of his Majesty's Goals or Places of safe Custody, as aforesaid.

By Command of the Postmaster General, George Shelvocke, Secy.

N. B.
