By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament which we summoned to meet at Westminster on Thursday the Thirteenth Day of August last, stands prorogued to Thursday the Eighth Day of this Instant October, We, by the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Eighth Day of this Instant October, to Tuesday the Tenth Day of November next: And we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Writ Patent under our Great Seal for proroguing the same accordingly. And we do further hereby declare our Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Tenth Day of November, be held and sit for the Dispatch of diverse weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Tenth Day of November next.

Given at our Court at Kensington, the Second Day of October 1747, and in the Twenty-first Year of our Reign.

God save the King.

Kensington, October 2.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Friday the Ninth of this Instant October, should be further prorogued to Wednesday the Eleventh Day of November next.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 2d Day of October, 1747.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in His Privy Council.

WHEREAS John Dunk, of Bexhill in the County of Suffex, Labourer; Thomas Kemp, of Hawkhurst in the County of Kent, Labourer; Thomas Drury, of the same Place, Labourer; Stephen Tucker, late of Deal in the County of Kent, Labourer; and John Tucker, of the same Place, Labourer, Brother to the said Stephen, were, upon the Eleventh Day of September last, charged by Information of a credible Person upon Oath, by him subscribed before Thomas Burdus, Esquire, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, with having been guilty, upon the First Day of November last, of being, together with divers other Persons, armed with Fire-arms or other offensive Weapons, and so armed, being assembled at or near Sandgate Castle, in the Parish of Folkstone in the said County of Kent, in order to be aiding and assisting in the Running, Landing, and Carrying away uncustomed Goods; which Information was afterwards certified by the said Thomas Burdus, under his Hand and Seal, to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who has laid the same before his Majesty in his Privy Council, pursuant to the late Act of Parliament of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty in that Case made and provided.—His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by this his Order in his Privy Council, require and command, that the said John Dunk, Thomas Kemp, Thomas Drury, Stephen Tucker, and John Tucker, and each of them, do surrender himself and themselves, within the Space of Forty Days after the first Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, to Majesty's Justice, or one other of his or to one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

William Sharpe.
