Westminster, November 12.

HIS Majesty came this Day, to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Honourable Mr. Bellenden, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AS one of my principal Views, in calling this Parliament, was, that I might receive the most clear and certain Information of the Sense of my People, on the present Posture of Affairs; I was desirous to meet you as early as your own Convenience, as well as that of the Publick, would admit.

By the Advice of my Parliament, I entered into the War against Spain, in order to vindicate and secure the Trade and Commerce of my Subjects. By their Advice also, and in Conformity to my Engagements, I undertook the Support of the Empress Queen of Hungary, and of the just Rights of the House of Austria. In Resentment for this Conduct, so necessary for the Interests of my own Kingdoms, and of the ancient Allies of my Crown, France not only declared War against me, but fomented and supported an unnatural Rebellion within this Kingdom. In carrying on this just and necessary War, I have found the most chearful and vigorous Support from my Parliament: And though the Success has not been answerable to our Wishes, and just Expectations, in the Low-Countries; yet it must be allowed, to the Honour of this Nation, that no Part of the Misfortunes can be imputed to us.

The signal Successes, which it has pleased God to grant us at Sea, have made the Enemy feel the Weight of our Naval Strength, to their great Loss, and the real and solid Advantage of this Nation. This has appeared most remarkably in the Operations of my Fleet, this last Year; which have tended no less to the Honour of the British Flag, than to the Reduction of the Maritime Force and Commerce of France. The Government of the United Provinces has, once more, resumed that Consistency, which will give great Strength to the Common Cause; cement more firmly the Friendship between this Kingdom and that Republick; and be a lasting Security to our inseparable Interests. One great Effect of this happy Alteration in Holland has already appeared, in the vigorous Declaration lately made by the States General to the Court of France; and the Orders given by them, for committing Hostilities every where against the French King and his Subjects.

Some Overtures for a general Pacification have lately been made to me, on the Part of France; and though some of the Terms proposed were such as could not be approved, yet as I have had no other Aim, but to bring about a safe and honourable Peace, I have shewn the utmost Inclination to facilitate it, in Conjunction with my Allies; and a Congress is actually agreed to be held at Aix la Chapelle, whither the several Ministers will soon repair. I hope all the Powers concerned will bring with them the same Dispositions to effectuate this great Work, on just and reasonable Conditions, which I sincerely have.

In this Situation, I am confident you will agree in Opinion with me, that it is necessary to be vigilant and attentive to every Event; and that there can be no Reason to expect a good Peace, but by being timely prepared to carry on a vigorous and effectual War. I therefore rely on your hearty and powerful Support, to enable me to prosecute the War, in case the Obstinacy of our Enemies, in not agreeing to just and reasonable Terms of Accommodation, should render it unavoidable. For this Purpose, I am now actually concerting the necessary Measures with my Allies; whose Interests I am determined to adhere to and support. Let us be in Readiness, in case the Negotiations should fail of the desired Effect, to convince our Enemies, how much they are mistaken, if they vainly imagine that Great Britain, and her Allies, will submit to receive the Law from any Power whatsoever; and demonstrate to the World, that we will decline no Difficulty or Hazard for the Preservation of the Common Liberty, and our own Independency, and essential Interests.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Necessity of adequate Supplies appears from what has been already mentioned. The proper Estimates for the Services of the ensuing Year

Year shall be laid before you; and I desire you to grant me such Supplies, as your own Security and lasting Welfare, and the present critical and important Situation of Affairs, require. You may depend on their being applied only to the Purposes for which they shall be given; and if, by the falling out of Events, any Saving can be made, it shall be duly accounted for.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

If any farther Provisions shall be found expedient, to render more effectual the good Laws lately made for the Security of the present Establishment, extinguishing the Spirit of Rebellion, and for the better civilizing, improving, and reducing into Order, any Part of the United Kingdom, I depend on your known Affection to me and to your Country, seriously and early to set about so good a Work. I will only add, that there never was a Conjunction, in which Unanimity, Firmness, and Dispatch, were more necessary for the Safety, Honour, and true Interest of Great Britain.

Liege, Nov. 15, N. S. Marshal Lowendahl set out for Paris on the 11th Instant, where he will stay till the End of this Month. The Day before his Departure he gave Orders to quarter the Soldiers at Discretion on the Magistrates of Namur, for having refused to pay 350,000 Livres, which M. Luce, Intendant of Hainault, had demanded of them.

Hague, November 17, N. S. The States of Holland have resolved upon the Succession to the Stadtholdership, with this Restriction however, that the Succession shall only descend to the Heirs Male of the Prince of Orange's Female Issue, in Case his Highness should die without any Male Issue. The Nobles of the Province of Guelderland have likewise resolved to settle the Succession, and to conform exactly in this Affair with the Province of Holland. They have also agreed to take off the Restrictions contained in the Prince of Orange's Commission as Stadtholder of their Province, and to make out a new one conformable to that of King William: And lastly, they have nominated his Highness to be first Noble of the Quarter of Nimmegen, in Consequence of which he becomes President of the Nobility of the whole Province. We hear from Naarden, that a few Days ago, the French Prisoners of War, who are kept there, having received Intelligence that the Garrison was marched out of Town to make room for some other Troops, took that Opportunity to attempt their Escape, and accordingly had found Means to penetrate as far as the Utrecht Gate, having forced the Sally Ports, and disarmed the Centinels, when the Burghers in great Numbers ran to the Assistance of the Guard, and with some Difficulty overpowered the French, and carried them back to their Casemates, except six or seven, who found Means to escape during the Confusion. General Colycar and Count Maurice of Nassau were promoted Yesterday to the Rank of Velt Marshals, and Brigadier Sturler to that of Lieutenant General.

Hague, Nov. 21, N. S. A Resolution was passed Yesterday in the Assembly of Holland, and carried this Day to the States General for their Approbation, appointing Mess. Bentinck, Catwyck, and Hasselaer, Ministers Plenipotentiary for the intended Congress at Aix la Chapelle; as likewise Mess. Calkoen and Gronsfeldt, to be also Ministers Plenipotentiary, the first at the Court of Dresden, and the other at the Court of Berlin. We hear by this Day's Letters from Paris, that the two French Ships of War the Tonnant and the Intrepide, which made their Escape in the last Sea Fight, were returned to Brest in a very shatter'd Condition. The Duke of Aremberg arrived here this Morning, and talks of continuing at the Hague till next Spring.

St. James's, November 11.

This Day M. Ringwich, Minister from the King of Sweden, had an Audience of Leave of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Chesterfield, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, November 13.

This Morning his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arrived here from Holland.

Whitehall, November 14.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Eden, Batchelor of Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, void by the Death of Dr. Samuel Green.

Dublin, October 31.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired at his Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Concourse of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes, who appeared in great Splendor to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode set to Musick was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; after which there was a Ball in the new Ball-Room at the Castle. The Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy throughout the City. The several Entertainments were extremely regular and magnificent, and the Decorations of the Ball and Supper-Rooms in a new and elegant Taste.

Office of Ordnance, October 27, 1747.

The Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that they intend to sell by publick Auction, at their Office in the Tower, on Wednesday the 2d of December next, several Lots of Waggons, Parchment and Paper Cartridges, Tann'd Hides, Sword Belts, Laniborns, Junk, Match, Sheepskins, Horse and Mens Harness, Blocks, Bedding, Intranching Tools, Handscrews, Swords, Bayonets, Rope, Woolpacks, Gun Barrels, and other old and unserviceable Stores, which may be viewed at the Tower of London; where printed Lists of the Lots will be delivered to such Persons as apply for the same.
