

The London Gazette. 21

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 29, to Saturday January 2, 1747.

Dublin, December 21.

THIS Day his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went to the House of Peers with the usual Solemnity, and the Commons being sent for up, gave the Royal Assent to the following Bills, viz.

An Act for granting and continuing to his Majesty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, Strong-waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, Japanned, or Lacquered Ware, and Vinegar; and also a Tax of Four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Pensions, to be applied to pay an Interest of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum upon such Part of the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds formerly raised, and to pay an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon such Part of the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds also formerly raised, as shall remain unpaid on the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and forty seven; as also to pay an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for such Part, of the Sum of Seventy thousand Pounds as hath been or shall be borrowed, pursuant to an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and towards the Discharge of the said principal Sum.

An Act for Licensing Hawkers and Pedlars, and for the Encouragement of English Protestant Schools.

At the presenting the two first mentioned Bills, the Speaker of the House of Commons made the following Speech to the Lord Lieutenant.

May it please your Excellency,

THE Unanimity, Chearfulness, and Dispatch with which the Commons have raised the Supply for the Support of the Establishment, are a convincing Proof of that steady and inviolable Zeal which has influenced all their Proceedings, for maintaining the Dignity of the Crown, and the Ease and Honour of your Administration.

The great Abilities and Integrity by which you have long distinguished yourself in Places of the highest Trust near his Majesty's Person, and the early Experience we had of your watchful Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom; even before your happy Arrival amongst us, will always engage us to give you the strongest Proofs of our Esteem and Gratitude, and greatly adds to the Pleasure which I have in presenting these two Bills to you for the Royal Assent.

Amongst the many Instances of his Majesty's paternal Affection for his loyal Subjects of this Kingdom, we justly esteem it one of the Principal, that he has sent a Person of your approved Wisdom and long Experience in Military Affairs to preside over us, at a Conjunction when the present Situation of Europe seems to require such great Talents more immediately near the Throne.

These Considerations inspire Us with the warmest Sense of Duty to his Majesty, and Respect to your Excellency, which we have endeavoured to express by the Confidence we have reposed in you, in full Assurance, that from your known Goodness and Candour, you will favourably represent to his Majesty our Proceedings, the just and natural Effects of those unshaken Principles of Loyalty always shewn by his faithful Commons for his sacred Person and Government.

The Commons being returned to their House,

Resolved, Nem. Con That the Thanks of this House be given to the Right Honourable Henry Boyle, Esq; their Speaker, for the excellent Speech by him made this Day at the Bar of the House of Peers; and that he be desired to print the same.
