Copenhagen, April 2, N. S. The Anniversary of his Danish Majesty's Birth-day falling out this Year on Sunday the 31st past, the Celebration of it was deferred till Yesterday, and then performed with great Magnificence and all possible Demonstrations of Joy. The Knights of the two Orders appeared at Court in their respective Habits of Ceremony; the Ladies in Robes à la Romaine, and a very numerous Company of both Sexes were entertained in the Drawing-Room with Musick and a Play, and afterwards with a Supper at the King's Table, but it being so near the Holy Week there was no Ball. On this Occasion General Schulemburg was promoted to the Dignity of Feldt Marshal; General Numfen, General Lerche, M. Gersdorff, M. Raben, and M. Claus Reventlau, were invested with the Order of the Elephant.

Liege, April 6, N. S. The Troops which were at Chinay proceeded to Marche en Famine the 2d Instant, and were there joined by the Garrison of Givet, and two other Swiss Battalions. At the same Time M. de Segur was in March with another Division and 24 Field Pieces, while some other Troops from the three Bishopricks, Lorraine, Alsace, &c. came to join him by different Roads, as had been before concerted. The 2d Instant M. de Lowendahl joined the Army at Marche en Famine, and afterwards proceeded by Hotton to Boumal, where the Head Quarter was the 4th; and last Night M. de Lowendahl lay at Auwaille. While the Troops marched towards Marche en Famine, a Detachment was sent to Great Mondane to cover their Flank, and returned as soon as they were passed. On the 4th Instant, at Four in the Morning, they sent from Namur four Pontons, four Mortars, eight small Cannon, and 100 Waggon with Ammunition of all Kinds; they followed the same Road the Army had marched; and this Convoy was covered by 100 Men posted at Andenne. We are informed that M. de Lowendahl halts To-day at Auwaille; he hath Posts all along the River Outre, and hath advanced a Party to Biaufaye. The Austrians have Posts along the Weze, and To-morrow their Troops camp between Wyck and Berg; Marshal Saxe arrived this Day at Tongres.
