

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 2, to Tuesday April 5, 1748.

Vienna, March 27, N. S.

BARON Ketlar, who was sent to meet the Russians, is fallen ill in Upper Silesia, and Count Willshag, another Chamberlain; will be dispatched in his Room. Some Advices from Poland make us apprehend, that they will not be even at Bilitz before the End of the next Month; but others give us Hopes that they may be at Olmutz by that Time.

Copenhagen, April 2, N. S. The Anniversary of his Danish Majesty's Birth-day falling out this Year on Sunday the 31st past, the Celebration of it was deferred till Yesterday, and then performed with great Magnificence and all possible Demonstrations of Joy. The Knights of the two Orders appeared at Court in their respective Habits of Ceremony; the Ladies in Robes à la Romaine, and a very numerous Company of both Sexes were entertained in the Drawing-Room with Musick and a Play, and afterwards with a Supper at the King's Table, but it being so near the Holy Week there was no Ball. On this Occasion General Schulemburg was promoted to the Dignity of Feldt Marshal; General Numfen, General Lerche, M. Gersdorff, M. Raben, and M. Claus Reventlau, were invested with the Order of the Elephant.

Liege, April 6, N. S. The Troops which were at Chinay proceeded to Marche en Famine the 2d Instant, and were there joined by the Garrison of Givet, and two other Swiss Battalions. At the same Time M. de Segur was in March with another Division and 24 Field Pieces, while some other Troops from the three Bishopricks, Lorraine, Alsace, &c. came to join him by different Roads, as had been before concerted. The 2d Instant M. de Lowendahl joined the Army at Marche en Famine, and afterwards proceeded by Hotton to Boumal, where the Head Quarter was the 4th; and last Night M. de Lowendahl lay at Auwaille. While the Troops marched towards Marche en Famine, a Detachment was sent to Great Mondane to cover their Flank, and returned as soon as they were passed. On the 4th Instant, at Four in the Morning, they sent from Namur four Pontons, four Mortars, eight small Cannon, and 100 Waggon with Ammunition of all Kinds; they followed the same Road the Army had marched; and this Convoy was covered by 100 Men posted at Andenne. We are informed that M. de Lowendahl halts To-day at Auwaille; he hath Posts all along the River Outre, and hath advanced a Party to Biaufaye. The Austrians have Posts along the Weze, and To-morrow their Troops camp between Wyck and Berg; Marshal Saxe arrived this Day at Tongres.

Hague, April 9, N. S. Count Wartensteden is to set out To-morrow for Bonne, with final Instructions relating to the Negotiation which has been so long depending, for a Body of the Elector of Cologn's Troops. He is likewise to negotiate for another Battalion with the Margrave of Baden Baden. The States General have appointed M. Van Haren the elder Brother, their Deputy to attend upon his Royal Highness the Duke, in order to facilitate the Operations of the Campaign as far as the Power of their High Mightinesses can extend. The Council of War have given their Opinion to the Prince of Orange concerning the Behaviour of M. Van Echten, the late Governour of Menin; in Consequence of which he is to be broke, and declared incapable of ever serving in any military Capacity. This Morning M. de la Calmette was nominated Resident to the Protestant Cantons.

Whitehall, April 5.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Edward Crane, Doctor of Laws, the Place and Dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter Westminster, void by the Resignation of Dr. John Hume, late Prebendary thereof.

Admiralty-Office, April 4.

Captain Coates, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Edinburg, of 70 Guns, having been sent to Sea with the said Ship, together with the Eagle, Windsor, and Princess Louisa, of 60 Guns each, and the Inverness of 24 Guns, in order to join Sir Edward Hawke, has sent the Inverness to England with the following Advices, viz. That on the 7th of last Month, being in his Station off of Cape Cantin, looking out for Sir Edward Hawke, he fell in with a Fleet

