The London Gazette.

Bublished by Authority.

From Pundep April 20. to Chursday April 23. 1674.

Cologné, April 20. He Letters from Berlin of the tenth instant, advise us, That her Electoral Highness of Brandenburgh had been brought to Bed the Thursday before of a young Princess, to the great joy of that Court. From Rathbonne we have the confirmation, That a fire having hapned in the Electors Palace at Munich, had in a very short time reduced to ashes above a third part thereof, and had confumed all the richest Furniture, and other houshold Ornaments which did belong to the Electoresses apartment, the value whereof was very considerable. From the Palatinate they write, That the French having made several Mines to blow up and dismantle the Fortifications of Germerskein, they had not had the effect that was intended; that the Prince of Badendourlach, Generalissimo of the Forces of the Empire, was parted thence for Vienna; from whence we have advice, That the Count de Souches was preparing to go to the Rendevous of the Imperial Troops at Egra in Bohemia: The same Letters add, That the Count de Souches will act with the Imperial Army in Alface, excepting fuch Troops as are to be fent to the affiliance of the Spanish Netherlands, under the command of the Duke of Fournon-We have here this following Lilt of the Forces, which the Emperor is now drawing together in his Hereditary Countreys. Colonel Schmitz

Regiments	The Count de Garaffa	1000
	The Marquels of Bareiel	1000
	Col. Reiffenbergb	. 1000
	Col. Suetz	. 1000
	Col. Merernick	1000
	Dragoons.
manded by	Col. Scark	1000
	Col. Wopping	1000
,	Croates.	,
•	Col. Polfi	1000
	Col. Caroldi.	1000
		10000 Horfe.
*	Infa ntry.	. ,

		ia iitiye		/
	Wopping		i	2500
3 . · . · . · . · .	Spar	* 4	*	2500
. '	Laport			2500
` .	Mallini *		4	2500
,	Herbestein			- 2500
Colonel.	Strabaldt;	.,		2500
	Spanchau	4	× 4	2,500
	Schutz	*	The state of	1 2500
Mary Con.	Krey	, .		.2500
ي براد د	Reajeb	* 1 z	i	$ 00
			· • • · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	oo Foot

Brufelss April 24. On Sunday last arrived here from the Hague, Don Bernardo de Salinas, the Spanish Minister there, and the Rhinegravo, Governor of Breda, to concert farther with his Excellency several Matters relating to the Campagne: It is said they bring his Excellency an account, That seeing the Mareschal de Belfonds is drawing together a very confiderable Body of Men out of the several Conquests, which the French are now about to quit; the Prince of Orange will not be able to fend hither fuch large fuccors, as was intended, for that he will be obliged to keep a greater force at home, to observe the motions of the faid Mareschal de Belfonds; However, such Troops as are to come, are now fuddenly expected at M. lines, where a Palace is preparing for the Prince of Orange. The Forces of these Countreys are likewise bringing together, and will be quartered near this place, till such time as there is Forage abroad, that they may take the Field. His Excellency is fending the Count, de Renebourg to Ghent, to take care of Affairs there. The eighteenth instant, the French Ambassadors arrived at Maestricht from Cologne, and we do not yet hear, that they are parted from thence, on their return for France. We are informed, that the French have appointed the Rendevous of their Troops to be the eighth of the next Moneth at Charleroy, and at Orchies near Tournay.

Antwerp, April 26. During these three or sour days, Boats have continually passed by this place, with Soldiers from Halland. And it is said, that the Prince of Orange will now suddenly soldiew in person. The French we hear are resolved to quitall their Conquests in the sinited Provinces by which means they will compose a good Army of the several Troops drawn our from thence, and weaken the Durch in the Field, who will be obliged to put Garisons into the said abandoned places. We have not as yet any astrice, That the Prince of Conde is come into Flanders.

Hague, April 27. Yesterday we received the Confirmation of the conclusion of the Treaty between the Bithop of Munfter, the Emperor, and this State: That the twenty first instant, the faid Treaty was figned at! Cologne by the Imperial Ministers, and the Bishop of Munners Deputies, and the day following by the Ambalfadors of this State: It is faid, that within fifteen days after the Ratification of the faid Treaty, the Bishop of Munster is to quit all those places, which he, at prefent, possesses, belonging to this State, and taken during Our Letters from Groningen tell us, That Monfieur Rabent aup having left some Troops in Nienhuys, 6000 Munster Men came down upon them, who were all killed or taken prifoners. This Evening the Prince of Orange is expected here from Mirccht. States of Holland are appointed to meet the eighth of the next Moneth, in order to the Ratification of the Treaty with the Bishop of Munster. From Nimmegen they write, that the Inhabitants had agreed with the French Governor to pay him 55000 Gilders, to fave themselves from being plundered, upon the French drawing out from thence, which will not be so foon as some expected, because the Troops which quit the other places, are commanded to come thither, to continue, there, till such time as the season will permit them to take the Field. We are in great hopes, that the Elector of Cologne will likewise make his Accord with the Amfterdam, April 27. The East India Company hath appointed four persons to go in quality of their Commissioners for England. The Med of War fitted our here, have now most of them passed the Pampus, and those that are yet on this side, will likewise ger over in a tide or two: The said Men of War, so soon, as they are ready, have orders to fail to the Wielings, where is to be the Rendevous; Lieutenant Admiral de Ruyter is gone for Rutterdam to embark, and Monfieur de Tramp, to the same end is arrived here; in the mean time, feveral Fly-boats are preparing to carry the Soldiers who lie ready to go on board. This day the French. as is faid, leave Zuiphen. Monsseur Rabenhaup having sustained some los at Nienbuys, upon advice of the Conclusion of the Peace with the Bishop of Munster, is retreated with the Forces under his command, towards Groningen, part of which Troops are to come hither, being designed for Sea this expedition. We are some-what surprised to hear from France, That the most Christian King, instead of coming towards Flanders, had fuddenly changed his refolution, and is gone towards the Franche Comte.

Rotterdam, April 27. Three Vessels are arrived in the uly from Curaffaum, and, as is faid, bring advice, That the French had with 800 Men attempted to Land on the Island of Puctio Rico, but that their design had The Fleet of this State is now ready to nor fucceeded. put to Sea, and the Soldiers are embarking, some in one place, and fome in another, they will be in all 10000 Men; and, as we are told, are to land, as they fee an opportunity on the Coast of France, to give the Enemy a diversion on that side. Our Letters from Cotogne, dated on Tuesday last, tell us, That their Excellencies, the English Ambassadors, were then upon their departure from thence; so that we now expect them here in a day or two, at farthest, in their return for Paris, April 28. The 20th instant their Majesties having dined at Ponthier y, wencand lodged that night at Fontainbleau; the next day they parted from thenge, and passing through Morel, dined at Foffers, and lodged at Pont (ur Tonne; the twenty second their Majetties having passed through sens dined at the Castle of Possy, and thence continuing their journey through Villeneuse le Roy, arrived that Evening at Joigny, where their Majesties remained the twenty third for their refreshment, and the next day their Majesties went thence, with intentions to go and lodge at Auxerre, and fo to proceed for Dijon; and this Morning early the Duke of Orleans is parted hence to go and meet their Majesties there. From Alface we have advice, that Monsieur de Turenne had his Head Quarters at Steinbrucke, within a League of Saverne and within four leagues of Strusburgh; that part of his Troops are lodged in the Suburbs of Saverne, where they guard a Post of great importance, and by that, secure the passage there; that the faid Troops are to continue in their Quarters, till the middle of May, the scason not allowing them to take the Field before; but that, in the mean time, they are daily reinforced with the Troops that come down from Lorrain. Our Letters from Francfort of the fixteenth tellus, That the Duke of Lorraine was on his march with the Forces under his command through the Durchy Rhimfolds, and so to continue his march towards the Prince Comte. The Troops which are to compose the Army of the Prince of Conde, are assembling at Peronne, and will be 30000 Men effective; they are to go into the Field the eighth of the next Moneth Monsieur Courtinand Monsieur Barillon, his Majesties late Ambaliadors and Plenipotentiarics at Cologne are arrived here. Rhinfolds, and so to continue his march towards the Franche Comte. The Troops which are to compose the Army of the Prince of Conde, are affembling at Peronne,

It is faid, that the King before his departure from bence. fent orders to the Mareschal de Belfonds, to quit all the conquered places belonging to the Dutch, except Mae-Bricht. From Rochefort we have advice of a French Man of War of considerable Force, that hath been lately calt away as the was coming in there, and has almost stopped up the Channel. From Burgundy we have no other news, then that our Forces continue to believe Bejançon. We have just now advice that the Duke of Lorraine having passed the Rhine at Rhinfilds, with design to march towards the Franche Comte, Monsieur de Turenne upon advice thereof, had quitted his Quarters, and was gone to meet him, to oppose his pass-

Plimouth, April 17. Here is arrived the Barchetor of Hall, who about eight Moneths fince was taken in the West Indies, by some of Everson's Squadron, and carried afterwards into Catiz, where some of the Dutch going on shore, the English took the opportunity, and mastering the Dutch that remained on board, brought the Ship away, and happily arrived, as is above faid, at Plimouth.

Deal, April 20. This day arrived in the Downs, the Bourdeaux Fleer, richly laden, and are proceeded for the River.

Thereas His Majesty was pleased in the year 1672. to be at the charge of making a Waterwork on the North side of Danwich, in the County of Suffolk, within a Furlong of the High Water-Mark; so that the Ground being level, cashe may with ease be tolled to and fro; and for better direction to it, there is a white Post fet up as a Land-

These are therefore to inform all Masters of Ships. who shall ride in the Bay of Dunwich, now larely called Southwold Bay, That they may be there supplied with good Fresh Water, proportionable to their bulks, or occasions; for which Water nothing is to be paid, the Work boing made at His Majesties proper costs for the benefit of Scamen.

Advertisements.

Hereas William Reynolds, late Porter to the Right
Honorable the Earl of Craven, a Scotchman born
(and retains somewhat of that Dialed) aged 2bout Thirty six years, low of stature, his own pair black brown, and very short, his Nose falling in at the Nostrils, his Face marked with the Small Pox, and his Shins with big knots; has absented himself (upon leave but for two days) from his Lordships House in Discribere, ever suce the tenth of April instant; since which, it has been discovered, that he has cheated several persons to a considerable value. If any person shall apprehend and detain him, and give notice thereof to David Lloyd, at his Lordships House aforesaid, or to Captain Gilbert Thomas at his house in Newtonsfreet, in S. Giles in the Fields, he shall have Five pounds for his pains, William Jones, Son of Thomas Jones of Watford (Apprentice William Jones, Son of Thomas Jones of Watform (Apprentiae to James Beane, Stationer, at the Queens Arms, near the New Exchange in the Strand about 17 years old, of a pale countenance, having had the Small Pox, wears a Periwig, in different tall, in fad coloneed Cloaths; went away from his Mafter the 29th of January laft, with a confiderable, fum of Money. If any person can inform the said Mr. Beane, where his faid Apprentice is, so that he shall be taken, he shall have forty thi lings for his pains,

Hele are to give notice, That there is a School-mafter now