Brussels, November 10, N. S.

THE Duke of Aremberg is expected here next Week, to take upon him the Government of the Low Countries, as well Civil as Military, till such Time as Prince Charles of Lorraine shall arrive, which will be in the Spring. It is said that a great Alteration will be made in the Civil Government, That three Persons only are to represent the States of Brabant, of which the Duke of Aremberg is to be the first, M. Steenhout the second, and M. Berrevoet the third; That there are likewise only three Persons to be appointed for the Chamber of Accounts, and it is much doubted, whether the Council of Finances and the Privy Council will subsist.

Rotterdam, Nov. 12, N. S. By the Advices from Amsterdam, there is still a Ferment and Uneasiness amongst the People there. As to this City every Thing is perfectly quiet. We are just inform'd that the Mob at Leyden is up, and insist upon the Magistrates consenting to the free Council of War; and as the Commissaries did not decide this Affair, the Gates were shut Yesterday.

Whitehall, Nov. 5, 1748.

His Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, doth hereby signify his Pleasure, that such Officers of his Majesty's Forces upon the Establishment of Ireland, as are absent from their respective Posts in that Kingdom, do forthwith repair to them. And his Excellency expects that these his Orders be punctually obeyed.

By his Excellency's Command,
E. Weston.

Whitehall, November 3, 1748.

Whereas it hath been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that Sarah Green, late of the Parish of St. Saviour's in Southwark, Widow, aged about Forty Years, was, on the 23d Day of July last, assaulted in a narrow Walk leading to Newington Church Yard in Surry, by three Persons, betwixt the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, who threw her on the Ground, and abused and treated her in so violent a Manner, that she languished in great Agony, under the Care of the Surgeons of St. Thomas's Hospital, until the 19th Day of September last, when she died; — And whereas it hath been found by the Coroner's Inquest, that Richard Coleman, a Brewer's Servant in Bandy Lag Walk, Southwark, together with two other Persons unknown, are guilty of the wilful Murder of the said Sarah Green, and the Coroner's Warrant hath been issued thereupon for apprehending the said Coleman, who hath ever since absconded, and the other two Persons are not yet discovered: In order to the discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in the said wilful Murder, their Excellencies the Lords Justices are pleased hereby to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Person or to any other Person or Persons making the same as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

J. Potter.

And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, the Inhabitants of the said Parish do promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to be paid by Thomas Ward, Corn-chandler, in Queen-street in the said Parish, upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

Ja^s Lowther, for Thomas Ward.

Whitehall, October 21, 1748.

Whereas it has been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that on Friday Night the 16th of September last, one Mare, one Gelding, one Two Years old Heifer, and two Yearling Heifers, the Property of John West, of Godsbill, in the Parish of Fordingbridge, in the County of Southampton, Husbandman, were maliciously stabbed and killed in the inclosed Grounds of the said John West, in Godsbill aforesaid; and that at the same Time, one other Cow was stabbed and wounded, and about Two Loads of Peat burnt and destroyed: Their Excellencies, for the better discovering the Person or Persons concerned therein, are pleased to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be convicted thereof.

J. Potter.

And as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of the Person or Persons concerned in the above Facts, a Reward of Twenty Pounds will be paid by Robert Butcher, Esq; Steward to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, at Bedford House, London, to any one of the Accomplices, or any Person or Persons who shall make the Discovery above mentioned, so as any one or more of the Persons concerned may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. Butcher.
