Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King by the Mayor and other Magistrates of the Town of Penryn in the County of Cornwall, that on Friday the Seventh Day of October last past, divers Tinnors, and other Persons unknown, to the Number of two or three Hundred, came in a riotous and tumultuous Manner and broke open the Cellars of Benjamin Heame, Merchant, in the said Town of Penryn, and carried away Corn to the Quantity of 900 Winchester Bushels, (or 300 great Bushels) the Property of the said Benjamin Heame; And whereas the said Mayor and other Magistrates, in their said Representation, transmitted the Names of certain Persons therein and herein after-mentioned, as being notorious Offenders in the said Riot; and farther represented, that the Behaviour of the Tinnors since that Time gives no Room to think they are at all concerned at their Conduct, but the said Mayor and other Magistrates have Reason to apprehend the great Danger that may attend the not discouraging in the most effectual Manner the like tumultuous Riots and Disorders for the future; His Majesty, on Consideration of this Matter, hath been graciously pleased (for the Security of the Persons and Properties of his Subjects, and the Preservation of the publick Peace, and in order that the said Offenders may be brought to Justice, and the like Riots and Disorders may be prevented for the future) hereby to signify his Royal Pleasure to all his Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, and Under-Sheriffs, and all other his Civil Officers whatsoever, that they do use their utmost Endeavours for discovering and apprehending the Offenders herein after-mentioned, who are particularly named in the said Representation, (that is to say) John Pope, of St. Merrin, Husbandman, within the Parish of Gluwius; Edward Nicholas, of the Parish of St. Agnes; John Davy, late of the Parish of Perran Arwothball, but now of the Parish of Kea; Richard Rempbry, of the Parish of Gwenop, and Walter Richards, of the said Parish of Gwenop, all Tinnors, in the said County of Cornwall: And to the End that they may be brought to Justice, as also all other Persons who have been, or Whitehall, December 10, 1748.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that the Chariot of Robert James, Doctor in Physick, was on Monday the 28th Day of November last, about Eight in the Evening, stopped by two Men, as he was passing therein through Hide Park near the Water Works, one of whom laid hold on the Reins of the Horses, and the Coachman whipping him over the Face, and endeavouring to drive the Horses against him, the Man retired and fell down; whereupon the other told the Coachman, he would blow his Brains out, stept up to the Fore Wheel, and fired a Pistol at him so near, that it scorched his Cheek. And farther, that about the same Hour in the Evening of the next Day, the Chariot of the said Doctor James passing gently through Hide Park, with his Servants armed attending it, near the said Water Works, a Pistol or Gun, or some other Fire-Arms were discharged at the said Chariot, by some Person or Persons who lay concealed at some Distance from the Road; and whereas there is Reason to believe, from some particular Circumstances, that the Persons who thus attacked the Chariot of the said Doctor James, and fired thereat, had some malicious Design against the Person of the said Doctor James, or of one of his Servants: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Crimes above-mentioned, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

B E D F O R D.

And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, the said Doctor Robert James doth hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to such Person, or to any other Person or Persons making the same as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any one of the said Offenders.

Robert James.
