

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 10, to Saturday January 14, 1748.

St. James's, January 14.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, has been presented to his Majesty by William Grove and Samuel Greatheed, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, their Recorder. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Coventry, in Council assembled, do, with the sincerest Joy, congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to these Kingdoms; and with the greatest Gratitude we return our most hearty Thanks to your Majesty for rescuing Europe from Slavery, and so honourably ending a just and necessary War.

Your Majesty's mild and glorious Reign, and your constant Regard for the Liberties and Happiness of your Subjects, have always, with the utmost Affection, endeared your Majesty's Person to us, and it would create in us great Concern and Abhorrence, to find any Remains of Ingratitude in this most happy Island; being fully convinc'd, that if the highest Degree of Goodness in a Prince can make a People happy, all your Majesty's Subjects have the greatest Reason to rejoice, and are under the strongest Obligations to Loyalty.

May your Majesty long continue to live the Ornament and Honour of Kings, the great and faithful Friend and Preserver of the Liberties of Europe, and the kind Father of all your People; and may Britons, in all future Generations, find and deserve that Liberty and Happiness we now enjoy, under a Succession of Princes of your illustrious Family.

Given under our common Seal the 28th Day of December, 1748.

( Price Four-pence. )

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montrose, Chancellor of the University of Glasgow: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and other Members of the University of Glasgow, humbly beg Leave, with the greatest Sincerity, to join in the National Congratulations on your Majesty's safe Return to your Kingdoms, and to express our most grateful Thanks to your Majesty, for putting a happy Period to the Calamities which always accompany War however necessarily undertaken.

The inestimable Blessings of Peace, restored to Europe by your Majesty's Influence, must be deeply felt by all Ranks of People; we rejoice with our Fellow Subjects in the Possession of them, and we are particularly sensible that Learning, and every Liberal Art must flourish under your Majesty's paternal Care, and indulgent Government.

In this happy Situation, your faithful Subjects have nothing farther to wish, but that it may please Almighty God to prolong your Majesty's Life and Reign, undisturbed for the future by foreign Wars or rebellious Insurrections; that you may continue long to secure the Liberties of your People, while they, under your Majesty's gracious Protection, cultivate the Arts, and enjoy the Fruits of that Peace which you have so wisely and happily established.

We farther beg Leave, with all Humility, to assure your Majesty, that we feel ourselves bound by the united Principles of Duty and Gratitude, to use our utmost Endeavours to inspire the Youth