William Sharpe.

Hague, Feb. 7, N. S. M. Van Deurs, (who was M. Van Hoey's Secretary at Paris, and left there since to take Care of the Affairs of the States,) is appointed to repair to St. Malo, as their High-Mightinesses Commissary. A few Days before the Prince Stadtholder sat out upon his late Journey into Friesland, a Deputation was sent to Groningen, in order to quiet the Minds of the People, and to settle the Government, according to the Power given to his Serene Highness by a Resolution of the States of that Province; but before the Prince's Commissaries could terminate their Commission, we are inform'd, that on the 28th of January, the whole Body of the Burghers having attended upon them, desiring the immediate Redress of their Grievances, and Intelligence coming at the same Time, that the Boors were risen throughout the whole Province, and were marching to support the Request of the Inhabitants of the Capital, the Burgo-masters, the Members of the Council, and the rest of the Magistracy, thought it adviseable to lay down their Employments; in which they were imitated by all the other Members of the Regency, belonging both to the Town of Groningen, and to the Ommelands, and by all those who had any Sort of Employment, from the highest to the lowest. The Prince's Orders have since been sent to Groningen, for the Appointing of a new Regency. Mess. de Catwyck and Pauw are gone to Purmerend, in
