St. James's, February 14.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Myddleton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival to your British Dominions: We cannot but on this happy Occasion offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Heaven, for preserving your Sacred Person, when exposed to the most imminent Danger in your Return to these Kingdoms, as a signal Instance of Divine Providence to this Land.

Permit us, Sir, to approach your Royal Throne, and be pleas'd to accept our sincere Thanks for your unwearied Endeavours to preserve the Honour of the Nation, and the Rights and Liberties of your People, not only by exerting the Strength of the Kingdom, when engaged in a necessary and just War, entred into by the Advice of your Parliament, but also by procuring your People the Blessings of Peace, brought about by your Majesty's steady and prudent Councils.

(Price Four-pence.)

We shall ever pray to the Almighty, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy over a free and grateful People, and that these Kingdoms may never want one of your Royal House, animated by your great and good Example, to reign over them to the latest Posterity.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, has been presented to his Majesty by George Bowes and the Hon. Henry Vane, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at the City of Durham, in and for the County Palatine of Durham aforesaid, the Eleventh Day of January, in the Twenty Second Year of your Majesty's Reign,

Most humbly beg Leave to testify our unfeigned Joy on your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions, and on the Blessing of Peace being restored to Europe, by the glorious Efforts of your Majesty's Arms, and the Vigour and Prudence of your Councils.

Permit us, dread Sir, to offer up our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that your Illustrious Family, to the latest Posterity, may continue to govern in these Realms, a People happy in our well tempered Constitution, and zealous to support support and maintain the Honour and Rights of the Crown and the Liberties of their Country.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been presented to his Majesty by Henry Lampton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to your British Dominions.

We at the same Time joyfully embrace this Opportunity to express our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours in bringing about and adjusting the several Interests of all the contending Powers, with their mutual Consents and Approbation, and thereby obtaining a lasting Peace to all Europe.

This, Great Sir, amongst many other signal and endearing Instances of your paternal Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects, and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, during your auspicious Reign, cannot fail of producing the most beneficial Effects to your loving Subjects as a trading Nation, be a lasting Memorial of your glorious Reign, and add Lustre to your British Crown.

May the God of Peace reward your Majesty with a long Continuance of this Peace; may all your Subjects unanimously join in this their Happiness, as you have effectually bestow'd it upon them; that you may long live to reign over us; and that there may never be wanting a Prince descended from your Royal Blood, to vindicate the Right of the British Throne, and maintain the Liberty of your Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Barrington and Thomas Watton, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, beg Leave to express the sincerest Joy upon your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions, and to congratulate you on the happy Consequences of exerting the Naval Power of this Kingdom, which we cannot help looking upon, as the most effectual Instrument employed by your Majesty, under the Direction of Providence, to frustrate the Designs of such Powers, who evidently prefer the false Glory of Conquest, and the Exercise of uncontrouled Dominion, to the Happiness and the Peace of Mankind.

When we view your Majesty's Conduct, and Pursuits in Opposition to these, how much more truly glorious do they appear, in your generous Endeavours to rescue the Rights and Liberties of Europe, and of Mankind, from the fatal Consequences of such oppressive Schemes. The great Advantages your Majesty has procured by these Means to your People, by so speedily restoring them to a State of Peace, and providing more effectually for a free Exercise of Commerce, and securing to them their Rights of Navigation, we look upon as one of the many great Effects the Successes your Majesty's Fleet have had, in every even the most distant Parts of the Globe. And it gives us the most pleasing Prospect of the British Navy and Traffick mutually aiding and supporting each other.

It is, Great Sir, with the highest Pleasure we observe, that the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe is, under God, chiefly owing to your Majesty's Counsels; and that your Majesty's Troops have, through the Course of this necessary War, done Honour to their Country; and shewn, that no Defect of Bravery, but only the critical Situation of Affairs, prevented their sharing in the Glories obtained in every Field by their Leader the Illustrious Duke of Cumberland, by Successes equal to their Courage. It gives us the most solid Satisfaction, when we view their Successes, as tending to secure to your Majesty the peaceable Possession of your Throne, which the great Blessings we have felt under your mild Administration, and our true Interest, induce us to hope, will be enjoyed by your Majesty, and your Royal Descendants, to the latest Posterity.

The

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. Sir William Yonge, Knight of the Bath, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Falconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, being duly sensible of our Happiness, and the many Blessings we really enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, cannot, with Satisfaction to ourselves, any longer defer laying hold of the present favourable and inviting Opportunity of publicly expressing our most dutiful Regard and affectionate Concern for the Safety of your Royal Person; and therefore humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy and safe Return to these Kingdoms. And under a grateful Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, we thankfully acknowledge your paternal Care and constant Endeavours for the Welfare of your People, by which, under God, your Majesty has been the glorious Instrument of re-establishing, on honourable Conditions, the Peace of Europe, whereby Commerce is again restored, and a Foundation laid for the Improving and Enlarging it.

And as, on this Occasion, we feel in our Breasts the warmest Resentments of Duty and Gratitude, we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, in our several Stations, use our utmost Endeavours to make your Majesty's Reign easy and happy; and, from the same powerful Motives, we join in Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long, peaceable and prosperous, and that one of your Royal House may continue to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms down to the latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset, has been presented to his Majesty by Peregrine Powlet and George Dodington, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset, assembled at the Guildhall, Feb. 3, 1748.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Bridgwater, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to these your British Dominions, and to present our most thankful Acknowledgements for the happy Success that has attended your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours in procuring a General Peace.

An Event that cannot fail of occasioning a general Joy throughout these Kingdoms, whose Welfare and Greatness depend upon Trade and Navigation. May therefore Commerce and Trade increase and flourish; may your Majesty's Reign be long and glorious, and may there never be wanting a Prince in your Illustrious Family to give Happiness and Protection to a Free and Obedient People.

These, may it please your Majesty, are the most sincere and ardent Wishes of your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk and Common-Council, Gentry, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to his Majesty by their Recorder, and by the Right Hon. the Lord Vere Bertie and John Michell, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk and Common-Council, Gentry, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk and Common-Council, together with the Gentry, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants

stants of the Borough of Boston, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with Hearts full of the warmest and most sincere Sentiments of Joy, for your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions. And as we are truly sensible, that all the great Blessings, which your People enjoy, flow from your Majesty's constant and Paternal Care and Concern for their Happiness; so are we more especially bounden, at this Time, most chearfully and gratefully to acknowledge your Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness in putting an End (at a very Critical Juncture) to the Calamities of War, and restoring to your People the Blessings of a much wish'd-for Peace; and to pray that your Majesty may live long to see your grateful People enjoy the happy Effects thereof, and in Return for that, and for the many other Blessings they possess under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, that your Majesty may receive from them the Tribute of such a constant, chearful and united Duty and Affection, as may make your Reign Happy and Glorious, and your Majesty's Family a Succession of Blessings to these Kingdoms.

Naples, Jan. 21, N. S. The King has ordered a new Regiment of Horse to be raised, which is to be called the Prince's Regiment, and is to be form'd of the Men that are dismissed out of the Regiments of Foot. On the 12th the Spanish Troops, consisting of 12 compleat Battalions, embarked on board of 40 large Transports in this Port, and only wait for a fair Wind to sail to Barcelona and Malaga.

Florence, Jan. 24, N. S. On the 17th Instant, the Emperor's Dispatches were read in the Council of Finances, notifying his Pleasure, that from the Beginning of the Year 1750, (when the Administration of the present Company of French Farmers expires) the Administration of the Publick Revenues of Tuscany shall be carried on, for his Account, under the Direction of M. de Schmitveiller, and two other Commissaries; which Determination has accordingly been notified to the respective Magistrates and Offices in this City.
