

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 11, to Tuesday February 14, 1748.

St. James's, February 14.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Myddleton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival to your British Dominions: We cannot but on this happy Occasion offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Heaven, for preserving your Sacred Person, when exposed to the most imminent Danger in your Return to these Kingdoms, as a signal Instance of Divine Providence to this Land.

Permit us, Sir, to approach your Royal Throne, and be pleas'd to accept our sincere Thanks for your unwearied Endeavours to preserve the Honour of the Nation, and the Rights and Liberties of your People, not only by exerting the Strength of the Kingdom, when engaged in a necessary and just War, entred into by the Advice of your Parliament, but also by procuring your People the Blessings of Peace, brought about by your Majesty's steady and prudent Councils.

( Price Four-pence. )

We shall ever pray to the Almighty, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy over a free and grateful People, and that these Kingdoms may never want one of your Royal House, animated by your great and good Example, to reign over them to the latest Posterity.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, has been presented to his Majesty by George Bowes and the Hon. Henry Vane, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at the City of Durham, in and for the County Palatine of Durham aforesaid, the Eleventh Day of January, in the Twenty Second Year of your Majesty's Reign,

Most humbly beg Leave to testify our unfeigned Joy on your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions, and on the Blessing of Peace being restored to Europe, by the glorious Efforts of your Majesty's Arms, and the Vigour and Prudence of your Councils.

Permit us, dread Sir, to offer up our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that your Illustrious Family, to the latest Posterity, may continue to govern in these Realms, a People happy in our well tempered Constitution, and zealous to support