

December 1748, who shall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, carry the same to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Office of Ordnance, to be certified by him to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be intitled unto and have an Annuity for the Principal and Interest due on the said Debentures, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of March 1749, payable Half Yearly: The said Annuity to be charged upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferable at the Bank of England until redeemed by Parliament.

John Plumtre,

Treasury Office,

Broad-Street, March 24, 1748.

THE Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy hereby gives Notice, that pursuant to a Resolution of the Honourable the House of Commons of Tuesday the 21st Instant, all Persons who shall be interested in, or intitled unto, any Bill or Bills payable in Course, out of his Majesty's Offices of the Navy or Victualling, or for Transports, which were made out on or before the 31st Day of December 1748, and who shall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, bring the same into his Office in Broad Street to be mark'd and certified to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be entitled unto, and have an Annuity for the Principal and Interest due on the said Bills, after the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of this Instant March, payable half yearly: The said Annuity to be charg'd upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferrable at the Bank of England, until redeem'd by Parliament.

George Dodington.

London, Jan. 16, 1748.

General-Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy bringing the Swaffham Mail, from that Town to Thetford, on Saturday last, the 14th Instant, was attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Bodney, between Swaffham and Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, by two Highwaymen on Horseback, who carried off the Letters contained in the Rougham, Holkham, Wells and Fakenham Bags, and also the Letters from several other Towns and Places in the Thetford Branch: The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be both stout Men, and one of them was mounted on a light grey Horse, and the other on a Brown one. He on the Grey Horse was dressed in a Gold-laced light colour'd Waistcoat with a Great Coat over the same, and he on the Brown one, wore a compleat Soldier's Dress, with Gold Button Holes.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons, or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby the Persons, or either of them, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of both, or either of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

London, Dec. 2, 1748.

General Post - Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy, bringing the West Mail from Andover to Basingstoke, was last Night, between the Hours of Seven and Eight, attacked on the Highway, about a Quarter of a Mile on this Side of a Place called Clarken Green, which is near Four Miles distant from Basingstoke in the County of Southampton, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the Letters contained in the following Bags, viz. The two Exeter Bags, Shaftsbury, Ashburton, Truro, Barnstaple, Launceston, Weymouth, Camelford, Bodmin, Totness, Ilchester, Dorchester, Somerton, Yeovil, and Blandford.

This is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, of whom no particular Description is as yet come to Hand, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,

George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, March 30, 1749.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 14th Day of June next, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the furnishing his Majesty's Ships and Vessels that may touch at Gibraltar, with Wine and other Species of Sea Provisions, and to hire his Majesty's Victualling-Office and Storehouses at the said Port, during the Time that the Contract, which may happen to be made for the Supplying the Provisions, shall last.

And on the same Day the said Commissioners will be also ready to receive Proposals for the Supplying his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the said Place for Wine only. And a Part of the Store-Room belonging to his Majesty, will be let for the Stowage of that Species.

The Rent that in both Cases is fixed on the Victualling Premises, may be seen with the other Conditions of the Contracts, at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling-Office, London.

Notice is hereby given, that the Captains that were on board the respective Ships at Carthage in March 1740-41, as published in the Gazette of the 14th, 18th and 21st of March last, may receive their several Shares for destroying Six Spanish Men of War there, on Wednesday the 12th and Thursday the 13th of April instant, at Mr. Edward Jasper's House in Crutched Fryars; and such Gentlemen as shall not receive the same then, may receive it any Saturday Morning. And Notice is hereby further given, that the two Ships following, which are found to be legally intitled to the Head Money
