

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 4, to Saturday April 8, 1749.

Leicester House, April 5.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, to congratulate them on the Birth of a Princess; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Chandos, Richard Adams, Esq; their Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, beg Leave to attend your Royal Highnesses, to express our sincerest Joy on the Increase of his Majesty's Family, by the Birth of a Princess, and on the happy Recovery of your Royal Highnesses.

May this Princess, formed by his Majesty's and your bright Example, become the Delight of his Majesty and your Royal Highnesses. May she study to imitate the Piety and Virtues of her Royal Progenitors, and long live to experience your Royal Highnesses tender Love and Affection for her.

To which his Royal Highness return'd the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you my Thanks, and those of the Princess, for this new Instance of your Duty to the King, and Regard to us.

The Love you have for my Children is the greatest Joy to me. May it increase; and may they always deserve it, by their constant Adherence to the Laws and Liberties of the Country they have had the Happiness to be born in, and by never forgetting that great Rule, that their Interest must always be the same with that of this brave and free People.

The City may always depend on my hearty good Wishes for the Welfare of their Trade and their Prosperity.

(Price Four-pence.)

Madrid, March 31, N. S. The News of the Infant Don Philip's Arrival in Parma was brought hither on the 24th, and the Peace was proclaimed in the usual Manner and Places on the 26th past. A rich French Ship called the Conde, is arrived at Cadiz from the South Seas with Two Millions One Hundred Thousand Pieces of Eight on board; and an Aviso is likewise arrived at that Port from the Havanna, with an Account of Admiral Reggio's being ready to sail from thence as soon as the Azougues appear from La Vera Cruz, in order to put themselves under his Convoy.

Vienna, April 5, N. S. The Day before Yesterday the Prince of Aremberg and General Grune arrived here from Flanders.

Copenhagen, April 8, N. S. His Danish Majesty's Departure for Norway, is now said to be fixed for the 6th of May.

Hague, April 15, N. S. The States General took, on Saturday last, a Resolution to appoint M. William de Haren, to be their Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Sweden. The Deputies of the East India Company are returned to this Place, in order to present to the Prince Stadtholder the Diploma of his new Office of Supreme Director and Governor General of that Company.

Whitehall, April 7, 1749.

Notice is hereby given, that the Books which are now open at London, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, for receiving the Names of such Officers and private Men lately discharged the Land and Sea Service, Artificers, &c. as are desirous of settling in his Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, upon the Encouragement offered for that Purpose, will remain open until Tuesday next, the 11th Instant, after which no Person will be admitted.

And the several Commission Officers of the Land and Sea Service, and Surgeons, who have entered their Names upon the Encouragement offered by his Majesty, are hereby notified to repair to the Office of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, Whitehall, on Tuesday next, the 11th Instant, where they will receive Orders for being admitted with their Families and Effects into the respective Transports wherein they are to embark. And all other Persons who have in the like Manner enter'd their Names, are to repair to the said Office for the like Purpose upon Wednesday the 12th Instant, and the three following Days; and all Persons who are to embark in the River of Thames, are required to hold themselves in Readiness to depart before the 20th Instant, and to attend the publick Notice that will be given of the particular Days when they are to repair to the Tower Wharf, to be carried from thence to the Ships they are to go on board.

That a Ship or Ships will be ready on or before the 25th Instant at Portsmouth, to receive on board such Persons as have entered their Names with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at that Place and Plymouth.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, Thos. Hill, Secretary.

Whitehall, March 28, 1749.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty by John Mesch, Sydenham Williams, and William Richards, Esqrs. three of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Dorset, That on Monday the 20th of this Instant March, an anonymous Letter, directed to Will. Templeman, Dorchester, Clerk of the Peace of the County of Dorset, was drop'd, and taken up near the South Gate of the said Town, threatening to murder him the said William Templeman, and to fire the Houses of the said Justices of the Peace, in Case any farther Proceedings were carried on by them against the Persons concerned in Plyndering and Carrying away the Cargo and Effects of a Dutch Ship, lately stranded on Portland-Beach in that County; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, his Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Whitehall, March 30, 1749.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, That on Wednesday the first Day of this Instant March, the Warehouse of Mess. Fullagar and Todd, at the Golden Ball, Billingsgate, was broke open in the Night by one or more Persons, and many Goods, to a large Value, taken thereout; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the above mentioned Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she or they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

B E D F O R D.

And as a farther Encouragement for the making such Discovery, the said Mess. Fullagar and Todd do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to the Person or Persons who shall apprehend or take any one or more of the Persons concerned in the above Robbery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the said Offenders, or any one or more of them: Or whoever will discover where the said Goods are lodged, so that they may be had again, shall have the like Reward of Twenty Pounds, and so in Proportion for any Part of them.

For Partner and Self,

Stephen Todd.

Tower, March 27, 1749.

THE Treasurer of His Majesty's Ordnance hereby gives Notice, That by a Resolution of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 21st Day of March 1748, All Persons who shall be interested in, or intitled unto any Debentures payable out of His Majesty's Office of Ordnance, which were dated on or before the 31st of December 1748, who shall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, carry the same to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Office of Ordnance, to be certified by him to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be intitled unto and have an Annuity for the Principal and Interest due on the said Debentures, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of March 1749, payable Half Yearly: The said Annuity to be charged upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferable at the Bank of England until redeemed by Parliament.

John Plumptre.

Treasury Office,

Broad-street, March 24, 1748.

THE Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy hereby gives Notice, that pursuant to a Resolution of the Honourable the House of Commons of Tuesday the 21st Instant, all Persons who shall be interested in, or intitled unto, any Bill or Bills payable in Course, out of his Majesty's Offices of the Navy or Victualling, or for Transports, which were made out on or before the 31st Day of December 1748, and who shall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, bring the same into his Office in Broad Street to be mark'd and certified to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be entitled unto, and have an Annuity for the Principal and Interest due on the said Bills, after the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of this Instant March, payable half yearly: The said Annuity to be charg'd upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferrable at the Bank of England, until redeem'd by Parliament.

George Dodington.

London, Jan. 16, 1748.

General-Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy bringing the Swaffham Mail, from that Town to Thetford, on Saturday last, the 14th Instant, was attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Bodney, between Swaffham and Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, by two Highwaymen on Horseback, who who carried off the Letters contained in the Rougham, Holkham, Wells and Fakenham Bags, and also the Letters from several other Towns and Places in the Thetford Branch: The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be both stout Men, and one of them was mounted on a light grey Horse, and the other on a Brown one. He on the Grey Horse was dressed in a Gold-laced light colour'd Waistcoat with a Great Coat over the same, and he on the Brown one, wore a compleat Soldier's Dress, with Gold Button Holes.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons, or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby the Persons, or either of them, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of both, or either of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

London, Dec. 2, 1748.

General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy, bringing the West Mail from Andover to Basingstoke, was last Night, between the Hours of Seven and Eight, attacked on the Highway, about a Quarter of a Mile on this Side of a Place called Clarken Green, which is near Four Miles distant from Basingstoke in the County of Southampton, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the Letters contained in the following Bags, viz. The two Exeter Bags, Shaftsbury, Ashburton, Truro, Barnstaple, Launceston, Weymouth, Camelford, Bodmin, Tonnes, Ilchester, Dorchester, Somerton, Yeovil, and Blandford.

This is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, of whom no particular Description is as yet come to Hand, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, March 30, 1749.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 14th Day of June next, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the furnishing his Majesty's Ships and Vessels that may touch at Gibraltar, with Wine and other Species of Sea Provisions, and so hire his Majesty's Victualling-Office and Storehouses at the said Port, during the Time that the Contract, which may happen to be made for the Supplying the Provisions, shall last.

And on the same Day the said Commissioners will be also ready to receive Proposals for the Supplying his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the said Place for Wine only. And a Part of the Store-Room belonging to his Majesty, will be let for the Stowage of that Species.

The Rent that in both Cases is fixed on the Victualling Premises, may be seen with the other Conditions of the Contracts, at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling-Office, London.

Navy Office, April 4, 1749.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Thursday the 13th Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, they will expose to Sale at this Office, the Hulls of his Majesty's Ships, Feversham, Burthen 689 Tons, Lys of 336 Tons, and Scarborough of 442 Tons, together with their Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Pumps, &c. as they now lye at his Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, where they may be viewed by such Persons as are inclinable to attend the said Sale and bid for them; and as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent, or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Ships and Particulars, all Persons who shall attend the said Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose; and unless the Ships so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of Forty Days after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Ambuscade, Capt. Richard Gwynn, Commander, who were on Board of her at the taking the Ships Venus and Anna Maria, two French Prizes, that the Residue of the said Prizes will be paid at the King's Arms Tavern in Lombard-street, on Thursday the 25th of May, 1749. The Retail to be at the Old South-Sea-House in Broad-street, the first Thursday in every Month for three Years afterwards.
