Leicester House, April 5.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, to congratulate them on the Birth of a Princess; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Chandos, Richard Adams, Esq; their Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, beg Leave to attend your Royal Highnesses, to express our sincerest Joy on the Increase of his Majesty's Family, by the Birth of a Princess, and on the happy Recovery of your Royal Highnesses.

May this Princess, formed by his Majesty's and your bright Example, become the Delight of his Majesty and your Royal Highnesses. May she study to imitate the Piety and Virtues of her Royal Progenitors, and long live to experience your Royal Highnesses tender Love and Affection for her.

To which his Royal Highness return'd the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you my Thanks, and those of the Princess, for this new Instance of your Duty to the King, and Regard to us.

The Love you have for my Children is the greatest Joy to me. May it encrease; and may they always deserve it, by their constant Adherence to the Laws and Liberties of the Country they have had the Happiness to be born in, and by never forgetting that great Rule, that their Interest must always be the same with that of this brave and free People.

The City may always depend on my hearty good Wishes for the Welfare of their Trade and their Prosperity.
