To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Principal Burgesses and Assistants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Principal Burgesses and Assistants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, in Common Council assembled, do, in the most sincere Manner, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Return to England,

As we are very sensible of the great Weight and Efficacy your Majesty's Endeavours have been attended with, in procuring the general Tranquility, so we should think ourselves very ungrateful, if we did not express the just Sense we retain of them, by returning your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for this great Event; and at the same Time assuring your Majesty of the steady Attachment we bear to your Royal Person and Government.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; and when the Almighty pleases to take you to Himself, may the British Crown descend to your Royal Offspring till Time shall be no more.

Those are the real Sentiments which warm our zealous Breasts: And, in Testimony thereof, we have hereunto caused our Common Seal to be affixed, this Third Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and forty eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to his Majesty by Baptist Levelson Gower, Esq; and the Right Hon. the Lord Parker, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, in the County of Stafford, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Majesty upon her Royal Highness's safe Delivery of a Princess; and to return you our most hearty Thanks for your unwearied Endeavours in procuring to this Nation the invaluable Blessing of an honourable, and (we hope) a lasting Peace.

We cannot too much admire your Majesty's Wisdom, Goodness and Conduct, in putting so seasonable an End to the Calamities of War, in reconciling so many jarring Interests, and establishing the great Work of Peace, with the Concurrence and to the Satisfaction of all your Majesty's Allies.

That your Majesty and your Illustrious Family may, to the latest of Time, reign over a dutiful, loyal and free People; and that all your Subjects, being with us truly sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, may faithfully serve you, and be, as we are, firmly united in their utmost Endeavours to make your Reign happy and glorious, shall be our constant Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the first Day of April, in the Twenty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, 1749.
