

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 18, to Saturday April 22, 1749.

St. James's, April 22.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common-Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Vere Beauclerk, and Arthur Stert, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common-Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon.

May it please your most gracious Majesty,

TO permit your faithful and loyal Subjects to present to your Sacred Person their most zealous and hearty Congratulations upon the Completion of a safe and honourable Peace, procured to your People by the Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils, and the Stedfastness and Firmness of your Forces, under the auspicious Conduct of your Heroical Son his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and the victorious Success of your Royal Navy against the common Enemies of your Kingdoms, and of the Liberties of Europe, whereby we trust the Balance of Power is preserved, the Prosperity and Safety of your People secured, and the Trade of your Dominions established upon a lasting Foundation.

As all our Happiness and Security, and the Safety of our Religion, Rights, Liberties and Properties, and all that is near and dear to us, depend so entirely upon your Majesty, and the Continuation of the Succession to the Crown of these Realms in your truly Protestant Line, we cannot avoid taking this welcome Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the late Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Princess, Daughter of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, as a further Addition to the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty.

May the God of Heaven continue to pour down his manifold Favours upon your Majesty and your Royal Posterity; and may your People never want one of them to rule and bless these Kingdoms after your Majesty's Example.

The following Address of the States of Jersey has been presented to his Majesty by Charles Lempriere, Esq; his Majesty's Advocate General in that Island, and Deputy of the States of the said Island: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly presume to approach your Sacred Person with Hearts full of the sincerest Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Return to your British Dominions, and to express our Gratitude for the Blessings of a General Peace.

We are convinced that no Gift could be so great or pleasing to your faithful People, and in particular to the Inhabitants of Jersey, after a long Interruption of Commerce, as the Return of Peace, which we took the earliest Opportunity of making known, by publishing your Majesty's Royal Proclamation throughout the Island.

Sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, and that our Civil and Religious Liberties entirely depend upon the Protestant

(Price Four-pence.)

