Constantinople, April 24.

A Few Days ago was married by the Grand Signor's Orders, the Daughter of the present Vizir, of Eleven Years old, to the Captain Pascha's Son of thirteén, by which these two Ministers are now on the greatest Foot of Friendship. Large Presents were made them by the Sultan. The Captain Pascha is to depart in a few Days with five Men of War and seven Gallies for the Islands of the Archipelago: On which Occasion all the Foreign Ministers as usual are taking their Audiences of him. Two Frigates and two Gallies are likewise sailed for the Black Sea, to carry Stores to the several Fortresses. Hagy Mehemet, Pascha of Mossul, appointed Pascha of Babylon, is not yet entred that City; he wants more Force to vanquish the Opposition he expects to find there. Hesterly Pascha, formerly of Babylon, died at Marrahash, by which a large Inheritance devolves to the Grand Signor.

Vienna, June 4, N. S. Prince Craon, who has been long Governor of Tuscany for the Emperor, has been here for some Time in his Way to Lorraine, where he proposes to go and spend the Remainder of his Days. Count Harrach, Chancellor of Bohemia, died this Afternoon of the Small Pox: He was taken ill at his Country-house upon Tuesday was Sevensnight, the next Morning he came to Town, and in a few Days the Small Pox appeared, but with so very bad Symptoms, that from that Time the Physicians had but very small Hopes of him.

Dresden, June 8, N. S. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Poland, is to have his Audience of Leave of his Polish Majesty Tomorrow, and of the rest of the Royal Family in the Course of this Week.

Hague, June 10, N. S. Last Night a Dispute arose here between some of the Attendants of Ali Effendi the Tripolitan Ambassador, and some Jews: The Jews assembled in great Numbers, and attacked the House of the said Ambassador; but a Guard being sent for, they were prevented from doing any other Mischief than breaking the Windows.

Hague, June 13, N. S. Yesterday the States of Holland appointed M. Stein to act provisionally as Grand Pensionary till their next orinary Meeting, which will be next Month. The Lottery of Obligations, which the States of Holland lately resolved upon, is said to be quite full. As the Fire-Works, which have been preparing for these several Months, on the Restoration of the Peace, are to be play'd off this Evening, the States-General have invited the Prince Stadtholder, and her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, to be present at the Entertainments, and to sup with them in the Chamber of their Assembly; and in Consequence of a Resolution of their High Mightinesses, M. Byemont their Agent has been with all the Foreign Ministers residing here, to deliver to each of them a certain Number of Tickets for this Occasion; and to acquaint them in Form, that an Apartment would be provided for their Reception in Prince Maurice's House. The Prince of Anspach arrived here from Utrecht last Tuesday Evening.

Whereas the Act passed this Session of Parliament for opening and making a new Turnpike Road, from New Street in the Parish of Saint John, Southwark, through Redriffe into Deptford, took Place the first Day of this Instant June, This is to give Notice, That the first Meeting of the Trustees for putting the said Act into Execution, will be held on Tuesday the Thirteenth Instant, at the Jamaica House, in the Parish of St. Mary Magdalen Bermondsey. And it being usual to elect a Treasurer, Surveyor, Clerk, and other Officers at such first Meeting, it is desired that the Commissioners will meet early, in order to proceed to the Election of such Officers by Twelve of the Clock. And such Persons as have any Proposals to make to the said Commissioners, for lending of Money, serving Materials, or performing any Kind of Work, may attend in the Afternoon, to deliver their respective Proposals for the Commissioners Consideration against their next Meeting.

General Post-Office,

Whereas the Post-Boy, bringing the West Mail, from Andover to Basingstoke, was last Night, between the Hours of Seven and Eight, attacked on the Highway, about a Quarter of a Mile on this Side of a Place called Clarken Green, which is near Four Miles distant from Basingstoke in the County of Southampton, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the Letters contained tained in the following Bags, viz. The two Exeter Bags, Shaftsbury, Ashburton, Truro, Barnstaple, Launceston, Weymouth, Camelford, Bodmin, Tonnets, Ilchester, Dorchester, Somerset, Yeovil, and Blandford.

This is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, of whom no particular Description is as yet come to Hand, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

London, Jan. 16, 1748.

General-Post-Office.

Whereas the Post Boy bringing the Swaffham Mail, from that Town to Thetford, on Saturday last, the 14th Instant, was attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Bodney, between Swaffham and Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, by two Highwaymen on Horseback, who carried off the Letters contained in the Rougham, Holkham, Wells and Fakenham Bags, and also the Letters from several other Towns and Places in the Thetford Branch: The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be both stout Men, and one of them was mounted on a light grey Horse, and the other on a Brown one. He on the Grey Horse was dressed in a Gold-laced light colour'd Waistcoat with a Great Coat over the same, and he on the Brown one, wore a compleat Soldier's Dress, with Gold Button Holes.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons, or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby the Persons, or either of them, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of both, or either of the said Robbers, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

By the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy.

Whereas divers Persons have had Sums of Money imprested to them by Us, and others have drawn Bills of-Exchange, which have been paid and charged as Imprests against them: These are to give Notice to all Persons who have had any Money imprested to them from this Office, or drawn Bills, and have not delivered in their Accounts and Vouchers to be examined and passed to clear the same, that they do forthwith deliver them into this Office, in order to pass their Accounts, and thereby clear the Imprests standing out against them, and prevent their being returned into the Exchequer and prosecuted, as otherwise they will be; and such Persons as have passed their Accounts, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, and take up their Imprests. Dated at the Navy Office, 26 May, 1749.

London, June 3, 1749.
