My Lords and Gentlemen,

I come now to put an End to this Session of Parliament; which is become the more necessary by Reason of the advanced Season of the Year.

The Definitive Treaty of Aix la Chapelle, having been, by My Order, laid before you, several Months ago; you have all been fully informed of the Terms and Conditions on which it was made; and have already had the Satisfaction to see them carried into Execution, by the several contracting Parties, with great Punctuality and good Faith, so far as the Time and Distance of Place would admit. Nothing now remains, but to preserve and improve the Peace so happily re-established. All the Powers concerned have declared themselves, in so clear and friendly a Manner, on this Subject, as leaves no room to doubt of their sincere Disposition to render the Peace lasting in all Parts. My earnest Desire to promote the Welfare of My own Subjects, and the general Tranquillity of Europe, will make Me exert My Endeavours for the same good End, by steadily adhering to the Enagements I have entered into, and cultivating the most perfect Union and Harmony with My Allies, upon whose ready Concurrence, in all proper Measures for that Purpose, I have the greatest Reason to depend.

It is with great Satisfaction I have seen Part of this Session employed in Considerations for advancing the Trade and Navigation of My Kingdoms. I hope, at your next Meeting, you will be able to perfect what has now been begun, particularly, by taking the proper Methods to tender our Naval Force the most useful and serviceable, which is so essential to the Protection of our Commerce, and to our Security in all Times.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you My Thanks for the Supplies you have granted Me, and for the Attention you have shewn to maintain the Publick Credit, which I rejoice to see in so flourishing a Condition at the End of an expensive, tho' necessary War. The Readiness with which you have enabled Me to satisfy the Demands of My Allies, is very agreeable to Me, and cannot fail to produce the best Effects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Let Me recommend it to you to improve the Advantages of our present Situation for the Quiet and Stability of My Government, and the true Interest and Happiness of My People; and, in your several Countries, to promote such Principles and Dispositions, as may be most conducive to those desirable Ends.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is his Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the Third Day of August next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Third Day of August next.
