

Kennington, July 8.

The following Address of the Governor, Council and Assembly of Jamaica, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Council and Assembly of Jamaica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Jamaica ss. WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council and Assembly of this your Majesty's Island of Jamaica, do humbly beg your Majesty's Acceptance of our most sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Conclusion of the Peace, and the general Tranquility thereby restored.

The great Vigour your Majesty exerted in prosecuting the late War, so necessary to the preserving the Liberty and Independency of Europe, against the ambitious Designs of the House of Bourbon, and the consummate Wisdom of your Councils, by which the same hath been brought to so happy an Issue, are such Marks of your Majesty's paternal Care of and tender Regard to your Subjects, as can never be obliterated from our Minds, and require the most grateful and dutiful Acknowledgments.

The great and the distinguished Protection your Majesty was graciously pleased to grant us, during the Continuance of the War, in this our dangerous Situation, hath laid on us an inviolable Obligation to pray for your Majesty's long and happy Reign, and that there never may be wanting a Prince of your Illustrious House to perpetuate the Blessings we now enjoy under your most mild and auspicious Government.

Passed the Council
the 14th Day of April, 1749.

Wafel Briscoe, Clerk
of the Council.

Passed the Assembly
the 14th Day of April, 1749.

Ch. Price, Speaker.

Edw. Trelawny.

The following Address of the Governor, Council and Assembly of South-Carolina, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Council and Assembly of South-Carolina.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council and

Assembly of South-Carolina, beg your Majesty would be pleased to accept of our most unfeigned and hearty Thanks for your Majesty's gracious and fatherly Concern for the Welfare of your Subjects, in procuring for them a solid and lasting Peace, and putting an End to the War, which your Majesty might have been induced longer to protract, from the Bravery and Success of your Forces both by Sea and Land, had your Majesty not solely and graciously grounded the Glory of your Reign on the Security, Ease and Prosperity of your Subjects.

Your Majesty's People of this Province were too deeply affected with the Calamities of War not to be now most highly sensible of the Benefits of Peace, and which they are assured could only be so speedily and effectually concluded by your Majesty's personal Labours, as well as by the Prudence of your Majesty's Councils; and we hope to evince, that the many Instances of Favour, which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to bestow on this Province, particularly in granting a Bounty upon Indico, and sending us a Supply of Presents for our neighbouring Indians, will soon be amply recompensed by increasing the Trade of your Majesty's European Dominions, from the Fruits of our Labour and Culture here, which we shall now be encouraged to pursue with a Cheerfulness that naturally attends a grateful and happy People.

*South Carolina
Council Chamber
6th of May 1749.*

Wm. Bull,
President.

In the Commons House of Assembly the 5th Day of May 1749.

By Order of the House,

Wm. Bull, jun. Speaker.

Gambroon, February 8. There have been great Tumults lately at Suratt, by two Chiefs contending for the Government, in which almost Half the City has been destroyed; but some Forces having been sent thither from Bombay, they have obliged one of the contending Parties to leave the Place, and have put the other in quiet Possession of the Government. The Report that Audel Shah, King of Persia, and his Brother Mirza Ibrahim, had made Peace, is contradicted; and it now appears that Mirza Ibrahim has taken and blinded his Brother the King, and destroyed Emir Aslan Caun, an old Soldier, both which Events were effected with the Loss of a very few Men; for, after each Battle, the Armies of his Opponents, contrary to all Expectations, changed Sides and joined him. When Audel Shah was first seized, he acquainted the Nobility, that, on his Accession to the Throne, he had preserved alive, in a private Place at Moshatt, a Grandson of Nadir Shah's, by a Daughter of Shah Sultan Hussein: This Youth, who is called

B