A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

Newport, C. Hen. Boyle.

WHEREAS upon Information to His Majesty, that the Plague was broke out at Sta Cruz, and other Ports and Places in West Barbary, His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council to require all Ships coming into any of the Ports of Great Britain, either from Sta Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary, to perform a Quarantine of Forty Days.

And whereas their Excellencies the Lords Justices and Council issued their Proclamation, bearing Date the 26th Day of June 1747, ordering and directing, that all Ships and Vessels then arrived and not unladen, and all Ships and Vessels that should thereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from the Port of Sta Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary on the Atlantick Ocean, should make their Quarantine for Forty Days, in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as were by the said Proclamation directed; which Proclamation is still in Force.

And whereas His Majesty hath lately received Information, that the Plague rages at this Time at Saffie and Salle on the said West Coast of Barbary, and that from the Correspondence which is constantly carried on between those Places and the Towns of Tangier and Tetuan, lying in or near the Streights Mouth, there is great Reason to apprehend that the Infection will soon spread throughout the two Kingdoms of Fez and Morocco: And it being of the utmost Importance to prevent the Contagion being brought into this Kingdom from any of the said Places:

We the Lords Justices and Council do think fit hereby to order and direct, that the Quarantine now subsisting upon Ships coming from any of the Ports in West Barbary upon the Atlantick Ocean, be continued, and a like Quarantine of Forty Days laid on all Ships and Vessels coming from any of the Ports in the Streights of Gibraltar on the Barbary Coast, or any other of the Ports on that Coast in the Mediterranean, lying between the said Streights and Cape de las tres Forcas in the Kingdom of Fez: And that the like Rules, Regulations and Restrictions be observed by all such Ships and Vessels as are required to be observed by our said Proclamation of the 26th Day of June 1747.

And we likewise further order and direct, That the Captains of every of His Majesty's Ships of War attending the Service of this Kingdom, who shall meet any such Ship or Vessel coming to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, shall take due Care to prevent the Landing any Goods, Seamen or Passengers from on Board the same, until they shall be put under the Direction of the Officers of His Majesty's Revenue.

And we do hereby order and direct the Commissioners and other Officers of His Majesty's Revenue, to use their utmost Diligence and Care, that the Quarantine herein before directed be duly performed.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War attending the Service of this Kingdom, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea-Coast, and all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, and other Officers and Ministers of Justice, to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of the Revenue and Customs, and to all other Persons that shall be concerned in stopping Ships coming from the Port of Sta Cruz, or any other Port in West Barbary upon the Atlantick Ocean, or coming from any of the Ports in the Streights of Gibraltar on the Barbary Coast, or any other of the Ports on that Coast in the Mediterranean, lying between the said Streights and Cape de las tres Forcas in the Kingdom of Fez, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for obliging them to perform their Quarantine as aforesaid.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin the 10th Day of July 1749.
