Constantinople, June 19, N. S. The Presents sent by the Emperor and Empress to the Grand Signor, amounting to between 40 and 50,000 Dollars, have been delivered in a publick Audience by the Imperial Minister, and were extremely well received. There is some Advice received from Erzerum at Aleppo, as if Mirza Ibrahim was fled, or had made his Peace with Shawrooke Schach, and even join'd him, so that this latter remain'd sole Possessor of the Throne of Persia. A Caravan is gone from Aleppo to Bagdat with 300 Bales of English Cloth. Haggy Mehemet, Pascha of Babylon, has entered that City: His first Execution was the Bazirgan to the Corps of Janizaries; a Jew offer'd 100 Purfes of Money to save his Head, but without Effect; he has also deposed the Janizar Aga; and it is now hoped, by this Means, that the Grand Signor's Government will be firmly established in that Province.

Madrid, July 21, N. S. The Court has received the agreeable News of the Arrival of the Flota, consisting of five Ships of War, and ten Merchantmen, under the Command of Admiral Reggio, at Ferról, on the 12th Instant: They are said to have brought twenty-three Millions of Dollars in Specie, with a very large Quantity of Cochineal, as well as Indico, &c. They left the Havana the 13th of May last.
