At the General Quarter Session of the Peace held at Lancaster, in and for the County Palatine of Lancaster, the third Day of October, in the Three and twentieth Year of King George the Second's Reign.

WHEREAS it appeareth to this Court, that the Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle now rages in the Counties of Chester and York, near adjoining to the Southern and Eastern Parts of this County, and also in several Parts of this County, by Reason whereof it is greatly feared that the said Distemper will spread itself into all or most Parts thereof, which is very large, and abounds in Horned Cattle, unless speedy Care be taken, as much as possible, to prevent the same; Therefore, in order to prevent such Spreading of the said Distemper, and in Pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given as well by his Majesty's Order in Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, This Court doth order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place or Places of Sale, shall be held or kept within this County, for the Sale of any Horned Cattle, from this Instant until the ninth Day of January next; and that no Person or Persons shall or do presume to drive, send or remove, or cause to be driven, sent or removed, any Horned Cattle to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place or Places of Sale in this County, within the Time before-mentioned for prohibiting the holding of Fairs, Markets, or other publick Place or Places of Sale for horned Cattle, under the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned, set or imposed by his Majesty's said Order in Council, or the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them in that Case made. And for the notifying this Order it is further directed, that the same be forthwith inserted in The London Gazette, and also in The London Evening Post, The Whitehall Evening Post, and Chester, Manchester, Kendall, and Preston News Papers.

By especial Order of Court,

Arnold Mort,

Deputy Clerk of the Peace in and for the said County.
