

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to embrace this first Opportunity of testifying our Joy upon the happy Re-establishment of the publick Tranquillity; and gratefully acknowledge it the Effect of your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, under the Divine Assistance, that we enjoy the inestimable Blessing of an honourable Peace, which, we trust, will be effectually secured by your Royal Vigilance, and remain a lasting Monument of your Majesty's paternal Affection to your People.

It will be the most acceptable Return to your Majesty, as well as the best Use we can make of our present Happiness, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, by a due Attention to encourage Industry and improve our Linen Manufacture, the most certain Source of national Wealth and Prosperity.

We reflect with Gratitude on the late Continuance of the British Bounty upon the Exportation of our coarse Linens. A just Sense of this favourable Disposition in the Legislature of Great Britain to promote our Welfare, and of the mutual Advantages which must ever arise from a good Correspondence between the two Kingdoms, will strongly bind us to maintain by all suitable Methods, that reciprocal Confidence and perfect Harmony, which are so manifestly conducive to the Peace and Safety of your Majesty's Government, and so essentially necessary to the Interest of Ireland.

We hold ourselves obliged, as Lovers of our Country, to resent with the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, every Attempt to raise groundless Jealousies between the two Kingdoms, and to disunite the Affections of your Majesty's common Subjects, whose great Felicity it is to be connected together by the same civil and religious Interests.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready on all Occasions to demonstrate our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty, by a cheerful Concurrence in every Measure which can contribute to the Security, Honour, and Ease of your Reign.

We esteem it a signal Mark of your Royal Favour, that your Majesty has been pleased to continue the Government of this Kingdom to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington: His Abilities and Inclination to promote your Majesty's Service, and the Welfare of your faithful Subjects, we have happily experienced, and upon his known Candour we rely for a just Representtation to your Majesty of our ever loyal and dutiful Affections.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will take the first Opportunity to transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to his Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Behaviour of your Forces by Sea and Land, which has disappointed the ambitious Views of your Enemies; and are highly sensible of your Majesty's great Wisdom and Prudence in re-establishing the publick Tranquillity by an honourable and advantageous Peace.

The many Proofs we have had of your Majesty's paternal Care of your Subjects of this Kingdom, give us a firm Persuasion that your Majesty will take all proper Measures to secure us from any Attempts to disturb the Continuation of our present Happiness under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

The Encouragement lately given to the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, cannot fail of engaging our utmost Attention to promote and advance that great Source of national Industry and Wealth. We shall with great Cheerfulness lay hold on every Occasion which may tend to continue a reciprocal Confidence and Harmony between your Majesty's common Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and must look with the highest Indignation on any audacious Attempt to create a Jealousy between them, or disunite their Affections.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that from a thorough Conviction of your Majesty's most gracious Favour and Protection, we shall at all Times exert our most steady Zeal for the Security of your Royal Person, and cheerfully grant such Supplies as shall be necessary to support your Government with Honour.

*E. Sterling, } Cler. Dom. Com.
H. Alcock, }*

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will take the first Opportunity to transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to his Majesty.

To