Moscow, October 20.

THE Departure of her Imperial Majesty for Petersbourg, will certainly take Place in the Course of the Month of December, for which Preparations are already making. Great Quantities of Snow has lately fallen in these Parts, and the Frost is so far set in, that we begin already to make use of Sledges. The Nuptials of the Chamberlain Nariskin with Mademoiselle Romanzow, Niece of the late General Romanzow, were celebrated at Court Yesterday with great Magnificence.

Naples, Oct. 20, N. S. On the 10th Instant M. Reggio, General of the Gallies, received Notice that the King's Frigate la Reine, lately launched from the Stocks, had been obliged to take Shelter in the Port of Baja, having been in Danger of foundering, her first Tere of Guns proving too low, on which Account many Carpenters and Caulkers were immediately ordered to Baja, to repair these Faults, and to make her fit for Navigation. The Prince of Ardore, the King's Ambassadour at the French Court, is preparing to set out from this City on his Return to Paris.

Naples, Oct. 29, N. S. The King having been informed that the ill Usage of the Officers to their Soldiers, and the Badness of the Bread with which they had been served, were the principal Reasons of the late great Desertion amongst his Troops, has given Orders for the punishing of all those, who, upon Enquiry, shall appear to have been guilty of either of those Offences.

Rome, Oct. 25, N. S. Cardinal Portocarrero's first publick Audience of the Pope, as Minister from the Court of Spain, is fixed for the 28th Instant. The Bishop of Agnani is appointed Bishop of Lorette, and the Abbe Latanzi is appointed Bishop of Citta di Castello.

Florence, Oct. 31, N. S. Last Week the Dominican Fryers in this City having assembled to chuse their Prior, a Dissention ensued amongst them, and Pere Isola was very irregularly elected. Pere Vernaccini, Brother to the Spanish and Naples Agent in this City, who had principally opposed that Election, was, by express Orders from the Regency, ordered to depart Tuscany in twenty-four Hours: A Representation thereof having been made to the General of their Order at Rome, he, on the 21st Instant, by an Express, declared void and revoked that Election, as irregular and contrary to their Rights and Constitutions, appointing at the same time another Frier to act provisionally as Prior.

Plaisance, Nov. 1, N. S. The Infant Duke arrived here Yesterday from Parma, and was complimented thereupon by all Persons of Distinction at this Place. An Express is arrived here with an Account, that the Gallies, on board of which was the Infanta Dutchess of Parma, had been seen off Sestri di Ponente, where her Highness was to land; from thence she is to proceed by St. Peter d'Arena near Genoa for this City, where every Thing is ready for her Reception. The Infant Duke sets out To-morrow or next Day for Castle St. Giovanni, on the Frontiers of this Dutchy, to meet the Princess Infanta his Spouse, and conduct her to this Place.

Genoa, Nov. 5, N. S. The Troubles of this State seem to be at present pretty much appeased, and Commerce begins again so far to flourish, that several Ships, loaden with Merchandize from Foreign Countries, are almost continually coming in and going out of this Port. We learn by Letters from Constantinople, that an Ambassador of great Dignity was arrived there from the Sophy of Persia, with a very numerous Retinue, amongst whom were many Persons of Distinction; and that he had been admitted to an Audience of the Grand Vizier, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Milan, Nov. 6, N. S. An Express is gone to Vienna with the Proposition of the Count Arcelli, and some Jews of Mantua, for farming the
