At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, holden at Southwark by Adjournment, on Thursday the Second Day of November, in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Second, King of Great Britain, &c. Before Sir William Richardson, Knight, and Williant Hammond, Esquire, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace in the County aforesaid, and also to hear and determine diverse Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdemeanors committed in the said County.

WHEREAS it appeareth to this Court, that the Infectious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle, which has for some Time raged in several Parts of this Kingdom, hath lately broke out again in five several Parishes within the County of Surry, occasioned by the Sale of Infected Cattle at the Fairs in this County, which Fairs, if not timely prevented, may be of very fatal Consequences to this Kingdom in general;

And whereas this Court hath been credibly informed, that several Drovers of Cattle are intended to be sent to several Fairs within this County, and that there is great Reason to believe the Distemper that now rages will be greatly increased by the Sale of the Horned Cattle at the said Fairs:

There ore, (in order to prevent the spreading of the said Distemper, and in pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by his Majesty's Orders of Council, as by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made) It is ordered by this Court, That no Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within this County for the Sale of Horned Cattle (except Fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from this Time to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for this County, which will be on the 9th Day of January next; and that no Person or Persons do presume to drive, send, or remove, or cause to be driven, sent, or removed, any Horned Cattle (except Fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale in this County, within the Time before mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, mentioned, set and imposed by his Majesty's said Orders of Council, and the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them in that Case made. And it is further ordered, that the chief Constables, or Headborough of the Hundred, Lathe, Rape or Wapentake, and the Petty Constables of the respective Parishes, do prevent their holding such Fair, Market, or other publick Place of Sale. And if any Person or Persons shall act contrary to this Order, such Person or Persons so offending, shall be carried before some neighbouring Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law.

By the Court,

M I L L E R.

East India House, November 15, 1749.
