From Tuesday November 28, to Saturday December 2, 1749.

Moscow, November 7.

A New Regulation has been made by the Senate with respect to the Rank of each Officer and Soldier in her Imperial Majesty's own Company of Guards; by which Regulation, the Captain-Lieutenant is for the future to rank with Generals, the Lieutenants with Lieutenant-Generals, the Second Lieutenants with Major-Generals, the Adjutant with Brigadiers, the Ensign with Colonels, the Serjeants with Lieutenant-Colonels, the Under-Serjeants with First Majors, the Quarter-Masters with Second Majors, the Corporals with Captains, the Vice-Corporals with Captain-Lieutenants, and the common Soldiers with Lieutenants.

Naples, Nov. 11, N. S. The 4th Instant, being the Feast of St. Charles, whose Name the King bears, the same was celebrated at Court with the usual Ceremonies; at Noon Cardinal Spinelli the Archbishop, together with divers of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, Chief Magistrates of this City in a Body, and many other Persons of Distinction, went to Portici to compliment his Majesty on this Occasion; and in the Evening a general Discharge was made of our Artillery. Last Week the Inhabitants of this City, and those in the neighbouring Villages, were pretty much alarmed by two small Shocks of an Earthquake, however they both went off without doing any considerable Damage.

Genoa, Nov. 18, N. S. On the 13th Instant in the Morning, the Infanta Dutchess of Parma, with the Infanta Isabella her Daughter, who have been here for these eight Days past, set out from hence with a numerous Retinue; that Night they lay at Voltaggio, and the Night following at Novi; and, on the 15th in the Morning, they proceeded on their Journey to the Frontiers of Placentia, where the Infant Duke, with Numbers of the Nobility, wait their Arrival. At their Departure, they were saluted by a triple Discharge of all the Artillery of this City, and of the several Ships in the Harbour.

Placentia, Nov. 19. The Infant Duke our Sovereign returned hither this Day, with the Infanta his Consort, whom he had met on the Road; they immediately repaired to the Ducal Palace, where they were complimented by the Nobility, and other Persons of the first Rank; and in the Evening all the Houses were illuminated, the Cannon fired, and great Rejoicings were made by the Inhabitants.

Turin, Nov. 19. The Small Pox still continues to rage so very much in this City, that his Majesty seems determined to stay at the Venerie till it is somewhat abated.

Madrid, Nov. 24. Her Catholick Majesty being a little indisposed, the Departure of the Court from the Escorial, which was fixed for the 22d Instant, hath been put off to the 26th, when their Majesties are expected in Town. The last

Letters from Cadiz mention, that Admiral Spinoła was not expected from the Havanna till the End of next Month; and that a Register Ship had sailed the 16th Instant from that Bay for Lima: The 19th Instant being the Day of St^a Isabella, whose Name the Queen Dowager bears, it was observed at the Escorial with the usual Solemnities.

Vienna, Nov. 26, N. S. On Sunday next, being St. Andrew's Day, the Emperor will hold a Grand Chapter of the Order of the Golden Fleece, and will make a Promotion of six new Knights, viz. The Princes of Didrichstein, Emanuel Lichtenstein, Trautson, and la Tour Taxis, the Marshal Bathyany, and Count Kaunitz.

Venice, Nov. 28, N. S. M. Diedo, the Republick's late Ambassador at the Imperial Court, is returned hither; and Count Canal, the King of Sardinia's Envoy to the said Court, passed through here this Week on his Return to Vienna. Great Honours were paid to the Infanta at Tortona, and in all other Places of the King of Sardinia's Dominions through which she passed. Don Philip, upon the News of her Approach, went from Castle St. Giovanni to meet her upon the Road. On the 19th Instant they made their Entry into Placentia, and after having received the Compliments of the Deputies of the Nobility, and of those of the Merchants, they proceeded to the Ducal Palace, where they were received by great Numbers of the Nobility who were assembled there for that Purpose. Madame the Infanta has declared the Count San Vitale, a Parmesan Gentleman, to be her Master of the Horse.

Paris, Nov. 28, N. S. The King talks of setting out on Tuesday next for Crecy, where he proposes spending two or three Days. M. de Montpeyroux set out a few Days ago for Genoa, in Quality of Resident from his most Christian Majesty to that Republick, in the Room of M. Champeaux, whom his Majesty has named his Minister to the Circle of Lower Saxony.

Berlin, Dec. 2, N. S. The King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and other Lords of his Court, arrived here Yesterday from Potzdam. Field Marshal Keith is appointed Governor of this City, in the room of the late Duke of Holstein Beck.

Paris, Dec. 5, N. S. On Tuesday last his Majesty went to Crecy, and returned this Night to Versailles. The Marquis de Valory, Minister from this Court to that of Berlin, having obtained Leave to be recalled, the King has appointed the Lord Tyrconnel to that Post. Last Saturday an Express arrived at Court from Placentia, with Advice of the Infanta's safe and happy Arrival there the 19th of last Month.

Hague, Dec. 9, N. S. The Count de Bentheim Steinfort, with the Countess his Spouse, set out from hence Yesterday for Germany. By Advices of the 4th Instant from Leuwarden we learn, that his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange was returned thither from Groningen, tinguen, and that the Departure of the Court from Leuwarden for this Place, seemed fixed for Thursday or Friday next.

St. James's, November 29.

This Day Koied Mahammed Aga, lately arrived Ambassador from Tripoly, had his first Audience of his Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Mercurii 29^o Die Novembris, 1749.

Resolved,

THAT any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who now are, or hereafter may be, interested in or intitled unto, any Part of the National Debt, redeemable by Law, incurred before Michaelmas 1749, which now carries an Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and who shall, on or before the 28th Day of February 1749, subscribe their Names, or signify their Consent to accept of an Interest of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of December 1757, subject to the same Provisions, Notices and Clauses of Redemption, which their respective Four per Cents are now liable to, shall, in lieu of their present Interest, be intitled unto, and receive, an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till the 25th Day of December 1750; and from and after the said 25th Day of December 1750, an Interest of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, until the said 25th Day of December 1757; and no Part of the same, except what is due to the East India Company, shall be liable to be redeemed till after the said 25th Day of December, 1757.

Resolved,

That all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Trustees, may subscribe or signify such Consent for the several Parts of the said Debt, for the holding of which their Names are made use of respectively.

Resolved,

That all Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, which now stand appropriated to the Payment of the said Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum respectively, shall continue, and be appropriated and applied to the Payment of the respective Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, in the same manner as the same now stand appropriated to the Payment of the said Four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that the Surplusses of the said Funds after the said 25th Day of December 1750, shall be made Part of the Sinking Fund, and applied in the same manner, as the Surplusses of the said Funds are now applicable.

Resolved,

That Books be opened at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, at the Bank of England, and South Sea House, for receiving the said Subscriptions or Consent.

Ordered,

That for the immediate taking in of the said Subscriptions and Consent, Copies of the said Resolutions be forthwith transmitted to the Auditor of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, and to the Governor and Company of Merchants trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fisheries; and be affixed at the Royal Exchange, and be printed in the London Gazette.

J. Dyson, Cl. Dom. Com.

Tower, November 17, 1749.

The Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice to all Gunpowder-makers, who are willing to supply new, or repair old Gunpowder, for his Majesty's Service, that they may leave Proposals, in writing, sealed up, at their Office here, on or before the 11th of next Month; and that such will be treated with, and meet with all due Encouragement; who will serve them best, and at the cheapest Rate.

By Order of the Board,

Charles Bush.

By the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy.

Whereas divers Persons have had Sums of Money imprested to them by us, and others have drawn Bills of Exchange, which have been paid and charged as Imprests against them: These are to give Notice to all Persons who have had any Money imprested to them from this Office, or drawn Bills, and have not delivered in their Accounts and Vouchers to be examined and pass'd to clear the same, that they do forthwith deliver them into this Office in order to pass their Accounts, and thereby clear the Imprests standing out against them, and prevent their being returned into the Exchequer, and prosecuted, as otherwise they will be; and such Persons as have passed their Accounts, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, and take up their Imprests. Dated at the Victualling Office this 8th of November, 1749.

NUMBER XIII. XIV. and XV. of
The New, Full, Critical, Biographical, and Geographical,

HISTORY of SCOTLAND,

With all the Preceeding Numbers, and the Head of Fergus the Second, which should have been delivered with No XII. had the Plate been timely delivered to the Proprietor.

The Number XIII. contains many curious and important Articles of the History of this Reign; in particular, the Amours of King James with two married Ladies; which the Public, at all Times construed as the Cause of his fatal Misfortunes and Overthrow soon after.

All Noblemen, Gentlemen, and others, who want Setts of the Fourteen Numbers now publish'd, and of the Five antique Heads already engraved of the Kings of Scotland, viz. of Fergus the First and Second, Robert Bruce, Malcolm, Canmore, and James the First, may be supplied at the Admiralty Coffee House, Middle Scotland Yard, from the Author and Proprietor; or by leaving their Directions, shall have them sent to any Part of the Town without Expence; none else having Right to sell or vend the Numbers or Heads, but such as the Author delivers out to the Shops or otherwise.

The History is to be carried on, as first proposed, with the greatest Care, Candour, and Impartiality, to give Satisfaction to the Public; avoiding Offence as much as possible in the relating of Facts, and the representing of Characters. The Proprietor and Author being determined to execute the whole with Truth, Spirit, and Integrity, has taken no mercenary, mean, or deceiving Ways, to introduce this national, useful, and great Work. As there is so much Drawing, Engraving, and Printing, the Public may easily see their Bargain is fair, and no Plot can be to impose upon the Public, for no Subscription Money Advance is accepted.

The Fifteen Numbers of this New History are all entered in Stationers Hall, with the Heads; and as the whole History will consist of 110 Numbers with the Maps of the Counties and Heads, the legal Methods are taken to secure the Property to the Author, and whoever shall be found pirating or vending these Numbers, Heads or Maps, over England, Scotland, or Ireland, without the Author's Permission and Order, will be prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of Law.
