Constantinople, December 14.

THE Consul of Aleppo has received a Packet from Governor Wake at Bombay, with Letters from Admiral Boscawen, dated the 20th of April 1749, with the most melancholy Account of the Loss of his Britannick Majesty's Ships the Namur, Pembroke, and Apollo Hospital Ship, with almost all their Men, in a violent Storm, which begun on the 13th of the said Month in St. David's Road; the Admiral providentially was on Shore.

The following is an Account of the Damage done by that Storm.

A LIST of Ships and Vessels lost and damaged in the Storm on the Cormandel Coast, the 14th of April 1749.

At Colderoon near the Road of Fort St. David.

His Majesty's Ship Namur of 74 Guns, foundered in nine Fathom Water. She went out of Fort St. David Road, after having taken in much Water the 13th, at 7 P. M. Captain Marshall was saved, her third Lieutenant Mr. Gilchrist, Captain of Marines, Surgeon, Purser, Chaplain, Boatswain, and about 40 other People; and 70 Sick ashore in the Hospital: The First, Second and Fourth Lieutenants, Master, Gunner, and two Lieutenants of Marines, in all 520, were drowned.

His Majesty's Ship Pembroke, of 60 Guns, struck on Colderoon Point, and over-set, having parted her Cable the 13th; at 6 P. M. she made sail out of Fort St. David Road, but could not clear the Point; twelve Men only were saved; Captain Fincher, and about 330 Men were drowned, and all the Officers except a Captain of Marines.

A large Ship drove on Shore near the Point, supposed to be the Apollo Hospital Ship of 40 Guns; she had on board 350 Men, and was seen near the Point without Masts between Cudalore and Fort St. David.

Cudalore and Fort St. David

The Winchelsea, Capt. Barow, The Lincoln, Capt. Nanfan, both Companies Ships, run on Shore, most of the Crew saved.

Princess Augusta, a Country Ship, belonging to the Company, run on Shore.

Fanny, a Country Ship, Capt. Rennie, run on Shore.

A Portuguese Ship from Macao run on Shore, only one third unladen.

Twenty four Brigantines, Sloops and Grain Vessels, run on Shore.

In Pondicherry Road.

One French Ship of 64 Guns run on Shore, three Men lost.

Two other Ships and one Brigantine run on Shore.

The Edgebaston, a Company's Ship, now at Anchor near Pondicherry without any Masts; but cannot tell what farther Damage she has sustained; from the Governor of which Place, M. Duplex, she received great Assistance in her Distress.

( Price Two-Pence. )

At Sadrass Negapatnam, Portonovo and Puliacatt.

Two Moors and one Armenian Ship lost.

Four Dutch Ships lost.

A Dutch Ship, of 50 Guns, dismasted at Sea, and put in after the Storm was over.

One Sloop and several Grain Vessels lost.

At Madras.

Two French Ships and several Grain Vessels lost.

Ships disabled, and put into Fort St. David since the Storm.

Tartar Man of War, her Top Masts and Heads of her Lower Masts gone.

Deal Castle Man of War, Main and Mizzen Mast gone.

Swallow Man of War, all her Masts gone.

Rhoda Company's Ship, all her Top Masts gone.

Danbury, a Country Ship, all her Masts gone.

Moscow, Jan. 1. The Great Chancellor, Count Bestucheff, having settled divers Affairs relating to this Capital, set out on the 25th past for Petersbourg. The Count de Woronzow, Vice-Chancellor, and several other Lords of the Court, took Yesterday the same Route; but the Foreign Ministers will not set out till next Week.

Lisbon, Jan. 4. A Spanish Register Ship, named the Salomon, bound from Vera Cruz to Cadiz, is put into this Port; she has 700,000 Piastras on board registered, besides a valuable Cargo; but as she has greatly suffered by Storms, and lost many Hands in the Voyage, 'tis imagined she will not be able to put to Sea again for some Time.

Petersbourg, Jan. 12. The Great Chancellor, Count Bestucheff, is arrived here from Moscow. They write from Revel, that M. de Sparreuter, heretofore Lieutenant General of the Artillery, died lately in that City, in the 86th Year of his Age.

Warsaw, Jan. 17. The Count de Malachowski, Great Chancellor of the Crown, is arrived here from Dresden, by whom we learn, that the King is expected here some Time in April next, for whose Reception they are already at Work in fitting up the Royal Palace in this City. The Count de Tursky, Vice Marshal of the last Diet, died here last Week. According to our last Advices from the Ukraine, the contagious Distemper was greatly abated in that Province, but continued to rage in Podolia and its Neighbourhood.

Stockholm, Jan. 20. The King continues to enjoy a pretty good State of Health, and has lately assisted at divers Conferences which have been held upon the present State of Affairs. By Letters from Finland we learn, that every Thing remains quiet upon the Frontiers of that Country, and that the Troops were in a good Condition, and the Magazines well furnished.

Vienna, 1749

Vienna, Jan. 21. The Count de Kaunitz, Ambassador from this Court to that of France, has put off his Departure for some Time. M. de Villavechia, heretofore Minister from the Republick of Genoa to the States General, is arrived here from the Hague; and the Baron de Backhoff, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, is soon expected. Some Days ago arrived here a large Detachment of Militia from Croatia, in order to learn the new Exercise which has been introduced amongst the Troops of her Imperial Majesty.

Dresden, Jan. 25. General d'Arnim set out this Morning for Petersbourg, where he is to reside in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court. His Majesty has conferred on young Count Keyserling the Office of Councillor of the Supreme Tribunal of Appeals. The Prince of Furstembourg arrived here on Tuesday last from Vienna.

Cologne, Jan. 27. The Recruits for the Imperial Regiments continue to be raised here with great Success. Last Week another Detachment of 250 of them was sent away for Luxembourg, escorted by some regular Troops. We learn from Duffeldorp, that a few Days ago died there the Count de Nesselraed Irresheim, President of the Tribunal of Justice of Juliers and Burghues.

Paris, Jan. 29. On Thursday last the King, accompanied by the Dauphine, came from the Castle of Murette to Versailles; and on Sunday his Majesty signed the Contracts of Marriage between the Marquess de Culant and Mademoiselle Durand d'Auxy; and M. Calender, Nephew to Count d'Argenson, and Mademoiselle de Gravelle. By Letters from Brest we learn, that some Days before, a Ship from St. Domingo, named the Pere Eternal, laden chiefly with Sugar, was lost off that Port.

Hague, Feb. 3. We hear her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange has appointed Mademoiselle Wilhelmine vander Does de Nortwick, to be one of her Ladies of Honour, in the Room of Mademoiselle de Nassau Berghe, lately married to Count Degenfeld. On the 1st Instant the Court went into Mourning for a Month, on Occasion of the Death of the Princess Dowager of Nassau Siegen. The States of Holland and West-Friesland continue their Assembly, at which his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange often assists in Person.

Whitehall, January 27, 1749-50.

It having been represented to the King, That Four Houses, in the Parish of Northam, in the County of Devon, have lately been set on Fire, and burn'd by Persons unknown, and that a Pile of Wood has been found in an empty House in the said Parish, which was supposed to have been laid there, with a Design to be in Readiness for setting Fire to other Houses; and also, that there is Reason to apprehend, that the Persons concerned therein intend to burn the Church: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing them to Justice, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, Thomas Benson, Esq; Member of Parliament for Barnstaple, does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Thos. Benson.

King's Remembrancer's Office.

Hillary Term, in the Twenty-Third Year of the Reign of King George the Second.

Tuesday the 23d of January, 1749.

Court of Exchequer.

WHEREAS Mr. Starkie, for and on Behalf of the Deputy to his Majesty's Remembrancer of this Court, informed the Court, That by an Act of Parliament passed this present Session of Parliament, entituled, An Act for reducing the several Annuities which now carry an Interest after the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to the several Rates of Interest therein mentioned, It is amongst other Things enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, Committees of the Estates of Ideots or Lunaticks, and the Accomptant General of the Court of Chancery, and the Deputy Remembrancer of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to make or cause to be made Subscriptions in the Book or Books in the said Act mentioned, signifying their Consent to accept an Interest or Annuity of 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. per Annum, from the 25th Day of December 1750, until the 25th Day of December 1757, and of an Annuity of 3 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the said 25th Day of December 1757, for and on Behalf of their respective Testators, Infants, Minors, Femes Covert, Ideots or Lunaticks, and the Suitors of the Court of Chancery, and of the said Court of Exchequer, and others for whom they are or shall be respectively entrusted. And such Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, and Accomptant General, and Deputy Remembrancer, are and shall be, by virtue of the said Act, indemnified in and for doing the same. The said Mr. Starkie also informed the Court, that there is now standing in the Name of the said Deputy Remembrancer, in Trust for the Suitors and subject to the Orders of this Court, several Sums in Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, and 4 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities, and praying, on Behalf of the said Deputy Remembrancer, the Court to give Directions therein; It is thereupon this Day ordered by the Court, That the said Deputy Remembrancer be at Liberty, in Pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, to make or cause to be made Subscriptions in the Books opened at the South Sea House and Bank of England for the Purposes aforesaid, signifying his Consent to accept of an Interest or Annuity of 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. per Annum, from the said 25th Day of December 1750, until the said 25th Day of December 1757, and of an Annuity of 3 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the said 25th Day of December 1757, for and on Behalf of the Suitors of this Court, on all such Sums of Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, and 4 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities, as shall be standing in his Name, in Trust for the said Suitors at the Time of making such Subscriptions, except so far as any Order or Orders of this Court to the contrary shall be obtained, and Notice thereof given in Writing to the said Deputy Remembrancer at any Time during this present Term, or at the Sittings of the Court after this present Term, upon the Application of any of the Suitors of this Court, who shall be desirous that any of the said Sums of Old and New South Sea Annuities, and 4 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities standing in the Name of the said Deputy Remembrancer, in which they are or shall be interested, shall not be subscribed in Manner aforesaid. And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be forthwith affixed up in the Office of his Majesty's Remembrancer of this Court, and published in the London Gazette.

W. Miles, Register.
