I'he London Gazette.

Published by Authozity.

From Saturday March 10, to Tuelday March 13, 1749.

Constantinople, February 5.

HE Grand Seignor has given the Regencies of Barbary to understand, that he would not refuse effectually to succour them, if they were attacked 5# any Powers what sever that are not in Treaty with them; but if, by their own ill 'Conduct, | they should draw on themselves the Resentment est any of the Powers with whom they are at Peace, he would not in that Case give them any Relief, but that they themselves should be an-Iwerable for such their ill Conduct. The Grand Vizier has notified this to the Ministers of the Leveral Christian Courts, desiring them at the same Time to acquaint their Masters, that it is the Request of the Grand Seignor, that they would use their utmost Endeavours to prevent their Subjects from coming wilfully to any Difagreement with the Regencies of Barbary.

Lisbon, Feb. 13. Several Men of War are ordered to be got ready forthwith to put to Sea, in order to protect the Trading Vessels of this Kingdom against the Corsairs of Barbary, many of which we are affured are now equipping with 211 Speed. The Marquess de Tavora, whom the King has lately appointed Viceroy of the Indies, will fet Sail with three Men of War for

Goa fome Time next Month.

stinction.

Petersbourg, Feb. 17. Great Preparations and Fireworks are, making here for celebrating, on the 21st of this Month, the Anniversary of the Birth of his Highne's the Great Duke, who is pretty well recovered from his late Illness. We learn from Moscow, that the Count de Gourofski, who was detained there by Illness when her Imperial Majesty lest that City, is now perfectly recovered, and intends to fet out shortly for this Place.

Petersbourg, Feb. 24. Last Saturday, the rst Instant, being the Anniversary of the Great Duke's Birth, when he enter'd in the 23d Year of his Age, there was at Noon a very numerous Court at the Palace, to compliment his Imperial Highness on that Occasion, and in the Evening there was a Ball and a very magnificent Supper of a hundred Covers, to which were invited the principal Ministers and Officers of State, the Generals, the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Rank and Di-Bologne, Feb. 21. By Letters from Milan we learn, that her Imperial Majesty has resolved to continue Count Harrach in the Government of that Dutchy, and that the Marquess de Botta will be appointed Governor of the Castle of Milan, and Commander of all the Imperial Forces in Lombardy, in the room of the Marques de Pallavicina. We are informed from Genoa, that M. de Chauvelin, having received his Credential Letters, will soon be admitted to an Audience of the Doge and Senate, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from his Most Christian Majesty to that Republick.

Naples, Feb. 24. M. Marro, late Chaplain in Ordinary to their Majesties, who was some Months ago dismissed from that Employment for his disorderly Life, and appointed Arch-Dean & of Carinola, having continued to live a scandalous Life, was, upon the Application of that Bishop to the King, taken up a few Days ago, and sent to Prison at Capoa. On the 10th Instant their Majesties, attended by their respective Retinue and Guards, returned to this City from the Woods of Persano. On the 14th their Equipage was ofdered to Bovino, where they proposed to pass a few Days in Hunting in that Forrest.

Florence; Feb. 27. Last Week some Soldiers of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards deserted from their Duty at one of the Gates of this City. On the 24th Instant arrived in this City from Leghorn, where he performed Quarantine, the Ambassador from Tripoli to the Emperor, attended by a Retinue of fourteen Persons; he lodges at one of the Great Duke's Houses, purposely prepared for him, is entertained at the Emperor's Expence, and designs to proceed for Vienna in a few Days.

Romé, Feb. 28. The Armenian Nation having requested and obtained the Pope's Confent for Erecting a College in this City, they are accordingly making the necessary Dispositions for that Building. As foon as Cardinal Corsini, Protector of the Crown of Portugal, was informed of the Death of Cardinal Bichi, he immediately fecured and sealed up all the Papers of that Minister, and on the 14th dispatched a Courter to Lisbon with Notice thereof. And the Pere Jesuite, Assistant of Portugal, has taken Charge of the Affairs of that Crown at this Court, till the King appoints a new Minister. The Chevalier Capello, the new Venetian Ambassador, had his first Audience of the Pope on Saturday last, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Parma, Feb. 28. Their Serene Highnesses the Duke and Dutchess, with the whole Court, are gone to Colorno, where it is thought they will stay till Easter. We enjoy here a persect Tranquillity, notwithstanding the many Reports which have been spread of new Troubles being foon to break out in Italy.

Venice, Feb. 28. We learn from Genoa, that a Tartan from St. Remo, having on board the Marquess de la Rocca and his Family, had perished last Week in a violent Tempest near Albizola; and that out of twenty Passengers and Sailors, only two had the good Fortune to be saved.

Turin, March 2. M. Coloffibo, the new Minister from the Republick of Venice, has had his first private Audience of his Majesty, and delivered his Credential Letters.

Stockbolm, March 3. The King continues to enjoy a pretty good State of Health, and often assists at Council. His Majesty has conferred the Dignity of President of the Council ' of Justice on the Baron de Lowenhielm, in the Room of the Count de Frolich, who has obtained his Dismission from that High Office 3 and the Baron de Fleerwood is appointed Governor of the Province of Sudermania. The Princes Royal advances happily in her Prega nancy, and publick Prayers are already ordered for her safe Delivery. The Sea is already so free from Ice, that several Ships have arrived here within thefe few Days.

Posnania, March 5. On the 28th past a dreadful Fire broke out in the little Town of Czartknow, about eight Miles from hence, which