Constantinople, March 6.

A New Ship of War of 50 Guns was launched here a few Days ago. Since the late great Fire in this Capital, another has broke out in the Palace of the Mufti, which has entirely burnt down that grand Edifice, and several other Buildings, the Damage of which appears to be very considerable.

Laghorn, March 25. We learn from Berlin, that his Prussian Majesty has resolved to have a Consul at Algiers, for the Advantage of the Commerce of his Subjects, and that M. Lutens is appointed to that Employment.

Stockholm, March 27. The King, who continues to enjoy a pretty good State of Health, and often assists at Councils, has lately disposed of several considerable Employments, both Civil and Military.

Petersbourg, March 27. Her Imperial Majesty proposes going next Week to Gostilitz, the Seat of the Count de Rosamouski, her Great Huntsman; in order to spend a few Days in Retirement. The Orders sent to the Troops on the Frontiers of Finland are only, as 'tis said, to hold themselves in Readiness to march in Case the Circumstances of Affairs should require it; and the Fleet's putting to Sea is only to exercise the Seamen.

Naples, March 27. The King has lately caused an Ordonnance to be published here, prohibiting, under very severe Penalties, the Exportation of all Sorts of Grain out of this Kingdom. The Squadron which has been equipping for some Time past in this Port, is now ready, and will put to Sea with the first fair Wind, in order to cruize on the Corsairs of Barbary. The Duke de Cerizano is appointed to go to Rome in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from this Court. The Equipage of the Abbe Castromonte, Ambassador from hence to the King of Sardinia, is already set out for Turin, but his Excellency has not as yet fixed the Day for his Departure from hence for that Court.

Parma, April 1. The Chevalier Grimaldi, Ambassador from the Religion of Malta, made his publick Entry into this City a few Days ago, and was afterwards conducted to an Audience of the Duke and Dutchess, whom he complimented, in the Name of the Grand Master, upon their Accession to the Regency of this Dutchy. The Duke and Dutchess are gone to Colorno for some Days.

Turin, April 4. Notwithstanding it is confidently asserted, in the News Papers, that the King of Sardinia is compleating all his Regiments, and reinforcing his Garrisons in the Novarrais, there is not the least Truth in it: On the contrary, though at this Time of the Year there is generally a Circular Letter sent to all the Colonels to compleat their Regiments, yet that has not been done this Year; and in Novarra there is actually but one Battalion, whereas there used to be commonly two or three. The Part of the Family that are to go to Perpignan to receive the Infanta, have Orders to set out on the 8th Instant, and her Royal Highness will arrive at Figuieres, a Place on the Frontiers of Spain, at the same Time that these arrive at Perpignan.

Vienna, April 4. Their Imperial Majesties set out on the 31st past from hence for Schonbrun, in order to spend some Weeks at that Palace. The Marquess de Pallavicini is also set out on his Return to Italy. The Departure of Count Caunitz for the Court of France is at last fixed for the Beginning of next Month. On the 3d Instant Prince Lobcowitz arrived here from Prague.

Leipsick, April 7. On the 31st of last Month a Fire broke out at Schlettau, a little Town near Hall, which entirely reduced it to Ashes, except the Church and the Town Hall. And on the 1st Instant another Fire broke out at Weydenberg in the Neighbourhood of Bareith, which consumed 37 Houses, besides 21 Barns and other Out-houses.

Bon, April 9. The Diet of the States of the Electorate of Cologn assembled on the 7th Instant

(Price Two-Pence.)
