Constantinople, April 23. In the Night between the 15th and 16th Instant, a Fire broke out in the Scharschee or Market, where all the Riches of this great City center, and notwithstanding it was always supposed to be Fire-Proof, being vaulted and of Stone, it was entirely consumed to the Ground, and with it an immense Value in rich Apparel of all Sorts for Men and Women, Quilts, Sophas, Warehouses belonging to Dealers in Gold and Silver Wares, and Money Changers, who had a great Part of the Cash of this City in their Hands. The Damage is computed to amount from 10,000 to 30,000 Purfes of Money, which is from 5 to 15 Millions of Dollars. This Fire appearing in several different and opposite Parts between Eleven and Twelve at Night, and some Bags of combustible Matter being found, it was imagined the Intent was to get at the Arms which were sold there, in order to raise a Rebellion; but an Order was sent to the Janizar Aga to keep the Gates of these great Exchanges shut. On the 18th one of the great Arches of the Buildings gave Way, and crushed some People under its Ruins, which occasioned so much Confusion, that the Malevolents took Advantage thereof, and began to cry out amidst the distressed Multitude, Rebellion, and that the Grand Signior was dead. On which an Alarm spread through the whole City, the Shops began to be shut, and Bake-houses to be stormed for Bread, so that double Guards were immediately placed, and Rounds made by the Vizier and other great Officers Day and Night. On the 19th, all the Cziosbaskys, or Colonels of Janizaries, were called to the Porte, and a considerable Sum of Money given them to distribute amongst the Janizaries, since which Time all remains in perfect Tranquility. Upon some Murmurs and Complaints, the Janizar Aga has been deposed and exiled, and the Caul Cheaiazy, or Lieutenant General of the Janizaries, has been made Aga. Several Persons are imprisoned, but no Executions have yet been made.

His Majesty has likewise ordered the Bishop of Nola, who gave his Consent to their Marriage, to be cited before the Royal Chamber, in order to his being censured for the same.

Whereas the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, have, by their Petition, humbly represented to the Lords Justices, that divers Goods and Merchandizes, belonging to them, have been stolen out of their Ships and Lighters, and out of their Warehouses, after the same have been landed; which Practices the said Company greatly attribute to the Persons who buy those Goods when stolen; Their Excellencies, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice such Offenders, and to deter others from committing such illegal Practices for the Future, are pleased to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons who shall discover any of his, her, or their Accomplices, concerned either in stealing of the said Goods, or in purchasing the same, knowing them to be stolen, so as he, she, or they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1750.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st Day of May next; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavit required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

Georgia Office, Westminster, May 25, 1750.

Whereas the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, thought it necessary in the first Establishment of that Colony to restrain the Grants they made of Lots of Land to limited Tenures only, in order thereby to prevent many Abuses which at that Time might probably have defeated the good Ends proposed by that Establishment, and during the late War it might have been of dangerous Consequence to have alter'd the Tenures; but as a general Peace and Tranquility happily prevail, the said Trustees are of Opinion, that the intended Enlargement of the Tenures may now be safely made, and have come to the following Resolution, viz.

That the Tenures of all Grants of Land whatsoever already made to any Persons within the Province of Georgia be enlarg'd and extended to an absolute Inheritance; and that all future Grants of Land shall be of an absolute Inheritance to the Grantees, their Heirs and Assigns.

Sign'd by Order of the Trustees.

Benj. Martyn, Secretary.

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS.

Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforced. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.
